Cooper-La Follette Nuptials.

The wedding of Mrs. Kate Warner La Follette to Mr. William F. Cooper took place Wednesday, March 3, at the home of her sister, Mrs. William C. Hobdy and will doubtless be a surprise to many friends.

To Join Her Husband.

Mrs. George Gardner, formerly Miss Martha Smith of San Jose, one of the brides of the early autumn, will sail for Honolulu this week to join her husband. Mr. Gardner is an engineer connected with one of the large corporations of Hawaii and the new home will be established in Honolulu.

Mrs. Gardner Has Passed the Greater Part of Her Life in San Jose.

Mrs. Gardner has passed the greater part of her life in San Jose. She has been much feted and entertained since her marriage. The past two months having been her one round of teas and dinners and evening functions. Shows, miscellaneous, steam jet letters, linen and china and traveling shows have all added to the interesting series of entertainment. The voyage across the sea gave suggestions to many hostesses and there were happy hours to be remembered in after days, though all were crowded with the thought of the coming separation for lifelong friends.

Kauai Couple Married.

William H. Grote, bookkeeper of the Lihue store, and Miss Helen Louise Day, teacher of the Lihue school, were married in Honolulu at noon last Tuesday, Rev. Leopold Kroll of St. Andrew's cathedral, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cowles of Chicago accompanied by Miss Helen Elizabeth Cowles were arrivals by the Manahua on Friday and were met at the dock by Major Smith, an old Bohemian Club acquaintance of Mr. Cowles. Later in the afternoon Mr.

and Miss Cowles came out to the post to see the parade and for an informal cup of tea with Mrs. Smith after the ceremony. That evening Major and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. de Ford dined informally at the Moana with Mr. and Mrs. Cowles. Miss Cowles is sailing on the Manahua tomorrow for Manila where upon arrival she will be wedded to Ensign Marcus of the navy. The wedding will take place from the quarters of General and Mrs. T. H. Barry. Mr. and Mrs. Cowles will remain in Honolulu until the sailing of the Manahua on the 10th, when they will return to Chicago.

The fortnightly hops that were suspended on account of the Carnival were resumed last evening and the number attending was sufficiently large to make the occasion most pleasing.

Mrs. Homer N. Preston received the guests upon arrival and at the conclusion of the dancing presided over the service of an informal supper. Among those from without the post on the dancing floor were observed Miss Harlow of Washington, Miss McChesney, Miss Soper, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Riggs, Dr. Barnes and others from Honolulu.

A tour around the island by motor was indulged in by Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln and Maj. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. de Ford and Mrs. Jackson on Sunday last. The day was a delightful one in every respect and the luncheon that was served upon arrival at the queen's cottage at Haleiwa was a notable one in all ways.

Mrs. Jackson did not return to Shafter with the party but dropped off at her own quarters at Leleha there to await the return of Captain Jackson with the 1st Infantry from the Carnival.

Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan was a hostess on Monday evening last for a number of friends at a delightful supper after the card game at the regimental club had been concluded.

Mrs. Lenihan's guests numbered Mrs. Randolph, Mr. Randolph, Capt. and Mrs. Knowles, Mrs. McCleave, Major and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. de Ford, Capt. and Mrs. Kay, Lieut. and Mrs. Cook, Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln, Capt. and Mrs. Bell, Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, Miss Haloran, Lieut. Greene and others.

Mrs. H. N. Preston is active in arranging for a continuance of the dancing class that was so successful and popular before the Carnival season distracted the attention of everyone from everything except that gaiety.

It is proposed that a class of at least 20 members be formed and that the meetings be held as formerly once each week with an informal supper party to follow the lesson at the home of each member in turn.

Miss Cheney of South Manchester, Conn., who has been a guest of Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson since her arrival on the Great Northern, will return to the states by the Sierra that sails on Saturday next. Miss Cheney has quite recovered from the indis-

2nd Infantry from the 1st regiment at Schofield Barracks and takes the vacancy caused by the transfer of Capt. Archie J. Harris to the 14th Infantry.

SCHOOL FOR BOYS REVIEWS YEAR'S WORK AT DINNER

The annual dinner of the Honolulu School for Boys was given last night at the school buildings at 18th avenue, Kaimuki. There were 100 guests around the table, not including those attached to the school in the capacity of instructors or students.

Before the dinner a drill was given by Company A of the school, which was closely watched by Col. Rafferty and other regular army men present. Professor Brigham made the first address, his words dealing with the duties parents owe to their children, emphasizing the fact that when a boy gets along to the higher grades there should be a man at the helm.

John Waterhouse acted as toastmaster for the occasion and called on A. L. Castle who gave a resume of the financial condition of the institution. He said the Honolulu School for Boys had come to stay and that more money was needed to carry on the work.

L. G. Blackman, the principal of the school, spoke at some length on the ideals that he wished to attain in the future, and told of the struggles in the past to keep the institution on its feet.
