

W. B. OLESON IS CALLED BY DEATH ON HEALTH TRIP

has been the first in Honolulu Mrs. Oleason writes that he came in from the sea and soon on the ocean trip but failed after getting on the train.

The body was embalmed at Flagstaff, Arizona, where the train stopped at day break, after which Mrs. Oleason proceeded to Lumbago to meet her son, Edward Oleason of Worcester, Mass., and a daughter from White Plains, N. Y.

The funeral was held in Lombard, where he was buried beside his only brother.

Had Long and Useful Life.

Rev. Mr. Oleason had led a long and useful life, much of it devoted to the uplifting of religion and education in Hawaii.

He was born in Portland, Maine, September 9, 1851, and prepared for college at Portland high school. He entered the University of Maine in the class of 1872 but left after two years. From 1876 to 1877 he was in newspaper work and the wholesale grocery business, leaving that to teach in Illinois from 1877 to 1878. He was in Oberlin Theological seminary from 1874 to 1877, taking the bachelor of divinity degree, and then for a year was pastor of the Congregational church at Gambier, Ohio, being compelled to give up his pastorate after six months on account of nervous prostration.

He then came to Hawaii and was principal of the Hilo boarding school from September 1, 1878, to July 1, 1884, when he became principal of Kamehameha schools, which position he held until July 1, 1893. In that year he was in newspaper work and book publishing and lecturing in the States. In 1894 he went to Belmont Congregational church, Worcester, Mass., as pastor, remaining there until 1898, when he accepted a call to Warren, Mass., holding this pulpit until 1905. In 1906 and 1907 he preached in Ware, Mass., and Holyoke, Mass., respectively. In 1908 he became secretary of the Hawaiian Board of Missions, which office he had held up to the present.

Rev. Mr. Oleason took a lively interest in contemporary affairs, being a strong advocate of good government movements. In 1888 he was offered the post of minister of foreign affairs in King Kalakaua's cabinet but declined. He was nominated as a member of the school committee of Worcester in 1897 but declined the position.

BUTTE'S BEAUTIES HERE 21 FAIR, AND ALREADY THEY WANT TO STAY

Montana Girls Cable to Arrange to Spend Four More Days in Honolulu

"M-O-N-T-A-N-A, Montana I love you" was the loyal finish to the Treasure state song sung by 21 fair tourists from Montana at the Monolia near the dock this morning. Montana was soon changed to Aloha when Dr. Cooper, Mayor Lane and Ben Hollinger welcomed the traveling guests of the Butte Miner and the girls were whisked away through the tropical scenes of Hawaii by the Paradise Tours.

"Such a place to live," exclaimed the maidens from the cold climes of the North. "To think of swimming in March!"

The charm of Hawaii got into the blood of the travelers after a ride to the Seaside hotel preliminary to the around-the-island trip today and when the party assembled at the cable office to send a message home a strike was declared. Even Montana records for riots were broken.

"We won't go home on the Siberia," declared the sightseers in unison. "We were promised a six weeks' trip and we want to spend most of it in Hawaii to learn how to ride the surf boards."

A vote was taken and another cable will be sent asking the Butte Miner to extend the stay in Honolulu from four to eight days.

A. P. Taylor of the Promotion Committee and a representative from the Star-Bulletin went out to the Monolia as it lay off harbor this morning and pinned buttons bearing the symbol "Cross-roads of the Pacific" upon them. The girls were very happy to be here at last after a rough trip and all expressed regret at the shortness of their stay.

The following clipping from the Butte Miner explains the nature of their trip.

"Twenty-one of Montana's fairest daughters are touring California, the two expositions and Hawaii as guests of the Butte Miner, the Treasure state's morning daily. They are the selections of a popularity contest, conducted last winter and brought to a conclusion on January 20. In this contest the entire state participated and members of the party represent every section of the great commonwealth. Mrs. Charles Wilson, a well-known Butte society woman, accompanies the party as chaperone.

"The party left Butte on the afternoon of March 18 in their own private Pullman car for Salt Lake City."

The party visited the expositions at San Diego and San Francisco but expect to have the best time of the trip in Hawaii.

"Can we have a moonlight swim? Will you show us how to ride a surf board?" and many other enthusiastic questions were literally thrown at Mayor Lane and Dr. Cooper as they attempted to paint in part Hawaii's beauty and hospitality. The girls were the ship cut-ups, say the officers, and managed to keep the Mongolia lively until its arrival.

When asked if the voyage agreed with them they replied that riding the waves was different from riding a Montana cayuse but it was just as much fun.

Mrs. Charles Wilson, chaperone of the party, says she has quite a time trying to curb the enthusiasm of the mountain girls for everything on the trip. Whenever things would get rocky on the ship some lightsome maid would start:

"Who are, who are?"

"Who are we?"

"Don't you see?"

"We don't quarrel."

"We don't fight."

"We're from Montana."

"We're all right."

Today the party is being conducted around the island by the Paradise Tours under L. P. Warner, P. C. Hall, T. W. Taylor and Secretary Taylor of the Promotion Committee. They will lunch at Haleiwa hotel and be back about 5 o'clock this afternoon. A dance will be given for them at the Seaside tonight and tomorrow the boys of the Outrigger Club will take them out surf riding. Monday there will be a tea for them at the home of Dr. Cooper. The extended stay will probably change the program.

Thus far none of the travelers has been homesick. A picture of the girls with the Hawaii building at the fair was one of the features of their stay there.

"People go wild to see Hawaii after a visit to your exhibit," said one girl.

The personnel of the party is as follows: Mrs. Charles Wilson of Butte, chaperone; Butte; Miss Marie Mulholland, Butte; Miss Sallie Pierce, Meaderville; Mrs. Nellie Sullivan, Meaderville; Miss Mae Fagan, Lima; Miss Margaret Mitchell, Deer Lodge; Miss Ethyl Jones, Twin Bridges; Miss Olive Wilkins, Whitehall; Miss Marie Mussler, Three Forks; Miss Edith Cook, Roundup; Miss Mamie Burke, Helena; Miss Rose Shaw, Livingston; Miss Grace Dillon, Big Timber; Mrs. Daisy Sorenson, Thompson Falls; Miss Bonnie Anderson, Billings; Miss Nellie Lavelle, Columbus; Miss Mae Grant, Kalispell; Miss Nellie McCarthy, White Sulphur Springs; Miss Pearl Royce, Lewistown; Miss Bernice Kempton, Glendive; Miss Florence Crane, Fort Benton; Miss Sallie Mellen, Maxville.

COUSINS WILL SOON GATHER IN ANNUAL MEETING

The Cousins' Society will hold its annual meeting on April 24, 1915, at the old mission home. Members and friends are invited to come, for many who are absent in body have sent their photographs and promise to be present in spirit on that occasion.

There are more than a thousand members on the rolls of the Cousins' Society and the annual meeting is al-

NEWTON MAN WHO WILL PICK SITE, SAY WISE ONES

That Byron R. Newton, assistant secretary of the treasury, will have a good deal to say about where the million dollar federal building shall go is the belief of those who were closely in touch with E. C. Ruebsam when the special agent was in Honolulu.

Assistant Secretary Newton will be a member of the congressional party coming here and as the selection of a site has been left entirely in the treasury department's hands it is understood that he will devote a good deal of his time to considering the question. Ruebsam took a lot of data back with him when he sailed this week, but he gave little indication of his sentiments as between the Irwin and the Spreckels sites.

Assistant Secretary Newton is regarded as one of the brainiest men in the departmental affairs of the national capital.

He was born at Wirt, Alleghany county, New York, August 4, 1861; son of Laurens C. and Irene (Scott) Newton; attended Oberlin college, 1882-4; married Winifred Cattle of Seward, Neb., October 3, 1900. He began in newspaper work in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1887; legislative correspondent, Albany, 1892-1900; war correspondent in Cuba for Associated Press, April-September, 1898; political and descriptive writer, New York Herald, 1902-10; appointed private secretary to secretary of the treasury March 5, 1913; assistant secretary of the treasury since October, 1913. He is a member of a number of societies and clubs.

FEEL HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS? CLEAN YOUR LIVER! A DIME A BOX

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lazy liver, delayed, fermenting food in the bowels of a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache.

Cascarets will remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipated poison move on and out of the bowels. One taken tonight straightens you out by morning---a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too.
