Shriners' Bal Masque to Bring Out Fancy Costumes.

Announcement was made this morning by the committee in charge of the bal masque to be given by Arab patrol, Mystic Order of Shrine, on the roof garden of the Young hotel next Saturday evening, that the grand march will take place at 8:30 o'clock, in order that the judges may have plenty of time in making the awards. The judges include Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. C. W. C. Deering and Mrs. M. W. Gunn. These ladies will choose the fifth member of the committee, probably on the evening of the masque ride.

Members of the Arab patrol are making costumes all night to make of this the premier social event of the season. A large number of the members of this body are in a mystic cabal and will be seen at the bal masque but probably not recognized until time for unmasking is announced. They have been working in secret on their costumes for this occasion for some time past and promise to startle their brother members by the originality of their costumes. Society, also, will be out in full force at this event, the masquerade lending itself admirably to their plans for many pleasant surprises.

In order that the eleventh hour decisions to be among those present at the bal masque may be assured of costumes Arab patrol has secured a number of elaborate "Yama Yama" and dominoes which have been placed on sale at the Clarion, while they have also made arrangements with the Carnival directorate for the use of the elaborate costumes imported from Germany, the latter having been placed in the care of Miss Ella Winterstein at her shop in Union street. The management of the Young hotel is making plans for an elaborate scheme of decoration on the roof garden for this event, while the Royal Hawaiian band, which will give a concert in advance of the opening of the dance, is planning a big surprise for the friends of the band, Aloha Temple, Mystic Order of Shrine.

"The Amazons" to Be Presented by the Footlights.

Under the name of "The Footlights," a group of Honolulu's young society maids and matrons interested in the study and production of drama will produce the play "The Amazons" next week at the Opera house. Directing the play, Mrs. Francis R. Day and Mr. W. Levers declare it rapidly getting into shape. The cast is composed only of women and the men taking part are guests of the club.

April 27 is the date of the first performance and on the evening before, a dress rehearsal will be held, each member and guest having one complimentary ticket for the rehearsal. The front doors will be closed, but the side doors will be open for this performance. Mrs. Walter Dillingham is appearing for the first time and plays the lead as Lady Noeline opposite James J. C. Haynes as Lord Litterly. This also is Mr. Haynes' first appearance and a better man for the part could not be secured. Tickets, which are on sale at the Territorial Messenger service, are going like the proverbial hot-cake. Members of this dramatic club include:

Greek Story of Narcissus Given This Afternoon.

The Greek story of Narcissus is being presented by the College Club this afternoon on the beautiful grounds of the Sam Baldwin residence, Nuuanu. The idea is a very pretty one and a great deal of time and care have been given to the affair by those who have been in charge. The dancing has been in the entire charge of Miss Nora Swanzy, who originated a number of the dances which will be given by the graceful maids this afternoon. Miss Swanzy herself will take the part of Echo and the maidens who will dance with her are Miss Mildred Bromwell, Mrs. Robert Mott, Miss Henrietta Smith, Miss Ruth McClesney and Miss Helen Spalding. Diana and her maidens are Miss Beth Woods, who makes a very pretty Diana, and Mrs. A. P. Driver, Miss Mae Frazier, Miss Betty Case and Miss Marion Chapin and the water nymphs will be Miss Doris Noble, Mrs. Norma Adams, Miss Fanny Hoogs and Miss Laura Wurts. Mr. L. Young Corrothers takes the part of Narcissus, who is playing around the creek with the maidens and suddenly discovers his own image in the water. Seeing this beautiful thing and not being able to reach out and touch it, Narcissus is enraptured and fascinated. He reaches down and the figure recedes and again he makes vain attempts to capture the reflection in the water. Paying attention to nothing else he finally dies. This is the most beautiful scene and it is here particularly that Miss Swanzy deserves a great deal of credit. Mrs. Alfred Castle has had in charge the directing of the stage setting and Mrs. David Olson prepared all the costumes. Mrs. Johnson will accompany the dancers on the piano. A very large attendance is expected and in case of rain the affair will be postponed until Saturday at 1 o'clock.

Comes From Scotland to Wed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sutherland left in the steamer Mauna Kea this morning for Papeete, Hawaii, where the former has been employed in plantation work for the past two years. Mr. Sutherland and his wife, who was formerly Miss G. K. C. Lorimer of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, were married in Honolulu Monday evening at St. Andrew's cathedral, Bishop Henry B. Restarick performing the ceremony. Miss Agnes Clark was bridesmaid and David Donald of Kaula best man. The wedding was the culmination of a youthful romance which had its beginning in Scotland.

Ladies' Day at the Ad Club.

Today was Ladies' Day at the Ad Club luncheon at the Young hotel and a large crowd was present. Two popular members of the Hevani Grand Opera Company gave some very pretty selections. Madame Sanborne, the coloratura soprano, and Signer Sachet, tenor, rendered a good program.

Going Abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwood Maud are planning to go to England in June. Mr. Maud has a number of relatives fighting at the front with the Allies and has been greatly worried over their welfare and whereabouts.

Mrs. Clara Beatrice Boring, mother of Mrs. Maud, is leaving before long to go to Monterey to occupy the Maud home there. Incidentally, Mrs. Boring will give a luncheon on the 22nd in honor of Miss Helen Butterworth—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Maude and party spent a part of the season in Honolulu, where they were staying at Hotel Lelele. While here the party was extensively entertained.

May Day Etc.

Tickets for the May Day set are being rapidly disposed of and the committee in charge of the various features have good reason to feel encouraged.

Choice home-made jams, jellies, pies, and cakes, made, cold roasted ducks and chickens, boiled ham and saratoga chips are among the dainties that will be found at the delicious booth. Fancy work of all description, hanging baskets, garlands of real flowers, May baskets, home-made candy, ice cream, lemonades and tea—all these are to be suitably set forth and the booths of artistic design will present a picture too attractive for words.

All Honolulu loves the Boy Scouts and they are to be out in force and will render valuable service in keeping a clear right of way for the diminutive paraders when they arrive in full costume from their various kindercartens—sailors, pun riders, menhunes, butterflies, Japanese maids and the wonderful section of floats and autos.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hisey of New York, who have been spending a few weeks at the Mauna, left this morning for the coast in the Wilhelmina. During their short stay in the islands Mr. and Mrs. Hisey have entertained and been entertained extensively. Many affairs were given in their honor, among them being the elaborate dinner at the University Club last Wednesday by Col. and Mrs. Charles Brewster and several affairs at Schofield Barracks. Mr. and Mrs. Hisey are expected to return every season.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Bowen left in the Matsuen liner Wilhelmina this morning for the mainland to be gone about ten days. During their absence Mr. Bowen will take a course in the New York school of philanthropy. He has been manager of the Associated Charities and has tendered his resignation, which has been accepted, though when Mr. Bowen returns it is understood that he will be asked to take up the work again. Miss Margaret Bergen, who has been working for some time with the local organization, will take Mr. Bowen's place until October, when she will have the staff ordered so that they may carry on the work until Mr. Bowen's return.

Rather original ways of securing money to help the suffering community have come to us lately and one particularly pleasing demand our attention. It is that of Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Woodrow Wilson, singing "The Star Spangled Banner" for a year record. The income Miss Wilson receives for this will relieve several hundred destitute families. This will probably start the bid of "making your own record for charity" as it is a very good idea.

Miss Felice Lyne and party departed on the Wilhelmina for the mainland this morning. Miss Lyne, during her short visit, has been most popular and general affairs have been given in her honor. The pretty singer tried very hard to make arrangements to stay over until the 27th so that she could have more time to visit with her friends, but previous engagements called her back to the coast.

J. Lewis, S. Lewis and Miss Lewis sailed for the mainland in the Wilhelmina this morning after a short stay in Honolulu. The party was staying at the Alona hotel and during their sojourn were entertained extensively. Miss Marie Ballentine entertained in their honor as did Judge and Mrs. E. M. Watson, who gave a brilliant affair at the University Club last Saturday night. A host of friends were at the dock this morning as the big liner pulled away from its moorings to wish the popular group bon voyage.

Miss Myrtle Schuman is booked to arrive on the Matsuen liner Matania next Tuesday. Miss Schuman was for some time after the war broke out in Berlin with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Schuman and they had great difficulty in reaching America. For the past few months she has been studying music in Oakland. Miss Schuman is a former student of Punahoa academy and is one of the most popular girls in Honolulu. Her best of friends will welcome her return.

The Honolulu Choral Society has given up its plan for an entertainment, which was to be held within the next few weeks, and has postponed the affair until some time in December. The reason given by members of the society is that being a musical organization they wanted to give their support to the Hevani Grand Opera Company and did not want to do anything to interfere with their having a very successful season.

Mrs. Theodore Richards, who has been visiting on the mainland, is booked to return next Tuesday on the Matsuen. Mrs. Richards gave up her work in the Women's Board of Missions for one year, having served long and faithfully and needing a rest. Mrs. Richards will be welcomed back by a host of friends.
