AN ACT.

TO AMEND SECTION 1552 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII, 1915, CONCERNING THE REMOVAL OF OFFICERS.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 1552 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, 1915, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1552. Procedure. Any elected county officer, or any county officer appointed to a vacancy in any elective office, including a supervisor, may be removed for malfeasance, misfeasance, nonfeasance or maladministration in office. Any circuit court within the county shall be a court of impeachment for the trial of any such elected or appointed officer who may be so charged, and such circuit court shall sit without a jury and shall proceed according to the form required for the trial of all civil cases at common law as modified by statute. A verified petition, setting forth in detail the charges preferred against such officer and praying for his removal, may be filed in such circuit court by not less than twenty-five persons who are citizens and voters of the county, and thereupon the court shall fix the time within which the officer charged shall answer the charges, but in no case less than twenty days from date of service, and, a certified copy of such charges, together with a proper summons, shall be served upon the officer so charged as in any civil case. If such officer shall fail to appear and answer on or before the return day, he may be defaulted, and the court may, after default, hear the petitioners upon their proof and, if the charges are sustained, may remove the officer and his office shall thereupon become vacant; but if the officer shall, on or before the return day, appear and file a written reply to the charges, either in the form of a demurrer or traverse, the issues formed by the reply shall, after notice, be set down and heard by the court and the cause shall proceed to final termination as in other civil law causes. If it shall be finally adjudged that the charges are unfounded in law or in fact, the respondent may recover his costs; but if the charges are adjudged to be founded upon both law and fact, the court shall adjudge the office to be vacant and award the costs against the respondent. Any such judgment or order vacating any office shall be subject to appeal to, and review on both questions of law and fact, by the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii. The board of supervisors, unless provision is otherwise made by law, shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of some other person to the office, unless the removed officer shall be a supervisor, when the office shall be filled by the Governor."
