At the meeting of the board of supervisors tonight a successor to Capt. Henri Berger, retired leader of the Hawaiian band, may be named. At present no other candidate than the assistant director, Peter Kalani, is in prospect.

Conductor Roccia of the Bevan Grand Opera Company's orchestra had been proposed, but Assistant City Attorney Lymer has given an opinion to the effect that Roccia's short residence in the city will prove a legal bar to his appointment. It is possible, however, that individual members of the board may have candidates to propose whose names have not been made public.

CHIEF JUSTICE DOES NOT KNOW WHETHER HE WILL BE REAPPOINTED

There were no new developments—or rumors—today regarding the purported change in personnel of the supreme court upon the expiration of the term of Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson Saturday. A report which has been heard is that Circuit Judge Stuart will be accorded a seat on the supreme bench and that Attorney Joseph Lightfoot will be appointed third judge of the local circuit court.

Chief Justice Robertson said today that regarding the expiration of his term, he does not know what the future will bring.

"I have had no information from Washington," he said. "I do not know whether I am going to be reappointed or not."

SERBIA APPEALS FOR WAR RELIEF TO FAR HAWAII

mute and uncomplaining, just as they have been dropped down from the incoming oxen transports. Their wounds—three, four, or five day's old, have yet received no attention, save the primitive first aid of the battlefield. Blood poisoning is setting in—limbs that prompt dressing would have saved, are fast becoming victims for the surgeon's knife. It is a heart-rending sight to look upon this helpless mass, and to realize that many of them have been sentenced to painful death owing to mere lack of primitive medical attention.

"For reasons which you will perfectly understand, it was not considered advisable in the early stages of the war to make known the stricken condition of the people, the absolute lack of aid that was needed for the relief of their sick and wounded, but the constant drain upon our resources makes this further appeal imperative.

"Serbia is surrounded by hostile or impoverished countries, and her people have not been able—as the Belgians have done—to take refuge in neighboring friendly states. Relief can only be given by sending supplies and material help, and this work can only be continued by your and other donations. The admiralty takes out our goods free of charge. Last week chloroform, morphine, bandages and other medical requisites were shipped, and we have still to send arrowroot, meat extracts, quinine and many other absolute necessities.

"Our people are fighting not only for their own freedom but as your allies. Is it to be wondered at that I appeal for sympathy? But I know I do not ask in vain.

"Please make all checks payable to Mabel S. Grouitch or Lady Boyle, Hon. Treasurer, and crossed Union of London & Smiths Bank."
"MABEL S. GROUITCH."

MAKINO FILES LENGTHY ANSWER TO HENRY'S PLEA

Latest Document in Resurrection of Labor Strike Troubles Is Made Public

More ancient history is dug up, "arranged with numerous allegations dealing with the Japanese labor strike of 1909, in a document filed in the circuit court late yesterday in the case of F. K. Makino against the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association.

This is the case in which Makino, who engineered the labor strike and was credited with being its chief promoter from start to finish, is suing the planters for damages in the sum of $50,000. The document filed today is the "traverse to the answer and special plea of Defendant William Henry," Henry being named in the suit because he was high sheriff at the time of the strike, and Makino alleges he exceeded his authority. The "traverse" document is filed in somewhat unusual form, having been printed. It covers a dozen long pages and recites in great detail numerous complaints against Henry, Chester Doyle, the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, Attorney W. Kinney, chief counsel for the planters during the strike, and other persons. Makino claims that Henry and Doyle, who held a deputy sheriff's commission during the strike, were acting not as officials, but as agents and tools of the planters. The arrest and detention in Oahu prison of Makino is instanced as a cause of complaint and Makino enters a general denial of the various charges against him and the Higher Wage Association contained in Henry's plea filed a few days ago. He says the Higher Wage Association was formed to secure better pay and better conditions for the Japanese laborers and that even during the height of the strike the strikers performed no acts of violence. Makino claims that the laborers were unable to get redress by peaceable means.

Part of the document is taken up with what purports to be a letter from H. Tsurushima, president of the Hawaiian-Japanese Daily Chronicle, to the late W. Potenhauer, then president of the planters' association, in which the Japanese newspaperman says that S. Sheba, another Japanese newspaperman, had made arrangements with him by which the Chronicle was to support the planters and he was to get paid for whatever losses he might suffer as a result of this attitude. He complains that after the strike was settled he was unable to get any satisfaction from Sheba. He appends a list of special income and expenses, the special income account bearing the memorandum, "received from Mr. Kinney." In his letter, however, Tsurushima says he received this money "from Mr. Sheba," and also says that he had to sign receipts for double the amount he received, Sheba telling him it was for the purpose of "evading grand jury investigation."

Much more is recited in the document concerning the strike six years ago and the events of that time, many of which have been long ago forgotten by the public. In closing Makino claims that Henry, as high sheriff, acted with malice and wantonness. Henry's statement of his actions during the strike were contained in his answer filed a few days ago and he has frequently made public utterances on the subject. During the last county campaign, when he was a candidate for county sheriff, he was attacked on this issue and at once replied vigorously. He said and has since reiterated that he took all responsibility for breaking open Makino's safe and for other acts, knowing that the safe contained highly important evidence to justify drastic measures by the high sheriff's department.

Cooney was arrested several days ago charged with vagrancy and using threats in asking alms from pedestrians. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIS WATERS, 630 Mechanic Street, Camden, N.J.
