

J. A. RICHARDS WINS HONORS AT EASTERN COLLEGE

Honolulu Boy Makes Fine Record in Athletics, Social Life and Scholarship

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 4.—Joseph Atherton Richards of Honolulu, who will graduate from Wesleyan University June 21, has been a leader in college and class activities throughout his course. He has been a member of the varsity tennis team four years, captain of the quartet in his senior year, and has represented the college in the New England Intercollegiate Tournament four times, and two years ago was one of the team that brought the doubles championship to Wesleyan. As a result of his brilliant showing he was twice elected president of the New England Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis Association.

Richards has also been active in the social functions of the college, being president this year of the German Club, a dancing society. He was chairman of the Junior Promenade Committee last year, served on the Sophomore Hop Committee two years ago, and this year was a member of the Senior Ball Committee. "Fiji" was vice-president of his class last year, and two years ago qualified as one of the three candidates for assistant manager of the varsity football team. In addition to being a member of the Deutscher Verein, which includes men taking advanced German courses, he sings in the college choir, and has been elected class choragus to lead the singing on class day.

Richards is a member of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity, of Corps and Conflic, the Honorary Junior, and of Mystical Seven, the honorary senior societies.

POLICEMAN SHOT BY FILIPINO IS OUT OF DANGER

Two Prisoners Who Escaped Still at Large—Joe Matsugoro Lies in Hospital

Joe Matsugoro, police officer at Wahiawa, received three bullets from the gun of one of two Filipinos whom he was bringing to Wahiawa late Saturday night. Matsugoro was taken to Schofield Barracks hospital and today it was given out that he will recover. A robbery occurred Friday night at a Chinese store near Mokuiaea, and Matsugoro, who is part Hawaiian and part Japanese, started to trail two suspects. He arrested two Filipinos whom he had trailed to Wahiawa, but as there is no jail at this latter place, the officer started to walk his prisoners to Wahiawa.

At Waikakalau gulch one of his prisoners, who was walking in advance, turned about and fired at Matsugoro, the bullet entering the right side. The leader then fired two more bullets into Matsugoro and both prisoners made good their escape. At a late hour today they had not been captured.

'CHUCK HOO GOT ME THIS TIME,' SAID DYING BOY

Last Statement of Nine-Year-Old Boy to His Mother Allowed in Murder Trial

The alleged dying statement of V. Ken Yuen, the nine-year-old Chinese boy who died at the Queen's hospital April 13 from wounds said to have been caused by a heavy stool thrown by Chuck Hoo, now on trial for first degree murder, was allowed as testimony in Circuit Judge Ashford's court this morning.

"Mamma, mamma, I am surely going to die. Chuck Hoo got me this time." The mother of the dead boy testified that her son made the foregoing statement to her just before he died. Her mother testified that she and her father, the family of Chuck Hoo, were on fairly good terms prior to the alleged murder. She testified that one occasion Chuck Hoo kicked the defendant's store to reconstruction.

NO WORK, NO PAY HOLLINGER SAYS WILL BE MOT

Employees of City Engineer Department Cannot Neglect Their Jobs for Charter

Supervisor Hollinger wants an understanding, and says he is going to get it or die in the attempt. Certain of City Engineer Whitehouse's department employees are filing as nominees for the charter election to be held July 6, and if elected may have to serve 60 days without special compensation at the convention in September and October.

Hollinger wants to know whether these employees, if elected, intend to resign from their positions with the city, or if they anticipate drawing salaries as employees of the engineer's department while spending their time at the charter convention. Hollinger says that if the latter is their anticipation, then anticipation and realization will be found to be very different things.

"They may anticipate getting money from the city for nothing, but they will realize that they are very much mistaken," says Supervisor Ben.

FORTY-ONE HAVE NOW REGISTERED AS CANDIDATES

In addition to the 24 men who had already filed petitions with City and County Clerk Kalaanokalani up to Saturday as candidates for the charter convention, there were 17 others to file today. Among the latter are Supervisor Arnold, Chairman Lorrin Andrews of the civil service commission and A. K. Vierra.

The following are the 17 nominees to file today: Jesse Ujui, A. B. Peters, L. Andrews, L. M. Sarau, C. L. Crabbe, E. P. Fogarty, J. E. Jarrett, J. A. Baker, A. K. Vierra, J. N. Keola, J. K. Kupau, R. Aluma, M. Kawalupu, J. G. Pratt, C. N. Arnold, E. N. Scoville and S. Kellison.

federal grand jury might be contemplating looking into some phases of brewery affairs. This arose from the subpoenaing of A. A. Aalberg, former secretary and director of the brewery corporation, and H. Gooding Field. While it was a matter of record at the federal court building that these two had been subpoenaed, nothing could be learned from federal officials as to whether the men were called to appear before the grand jury, which held a lengthy session this morning.

HOLIDAY ON JULY 5 WILL BRING THREE IN ONE WEEK

Acting Governor Thayer Issues Proclamation Naming Monday as Day for Observance

Monday, July 5, will be proclaimed a holiday for the observance of their concern regarding the entire Pacific ocean," said Governor Mann. "The islands for our outposts and lend themselves to fortification," said Senator. "The social question is one and promises to become complicated. The Japanese are," said Senator Overman.

Senator Warren intimated that matter of somewhat revising the administration of the army considered at the next session of the legislature. For the last he said, Congress had deferred certain needed aid to the army of divergent opinions among officers of the infantry, signal cavalry and coast artillery of tactical questions and impatient congressmen were impatient sort of thing and had refused so long as it existed.

NO 'FINANCIAL SUICIDE' SEEMS LIKELY FOR P. M.

The threatened retirement of the Pacific Mail liners from the trans-Pacific trade was characterized as "financial suicide" on the Pacific Coast when the Japanese liner Nippon Maru left for Honolulu and the Orient. Japanese officers in this vessel, which visited this port a few days ago, confirm earlier rumors that Japanese capital may eventually become interested in the operation of the fleet of passenger and freight steamers now flying the Pacific Mail flag. That they may change their flag and registry seemed a certainty to the Japanese officers.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS NAME NEW OFFICERS

The Military Order of the Serpent, which is the secret society of the United Spanish War Veterans, held its annual convention in Honolulu Saturday afternoon and evening, and yesterday morning the United Spanish War Veterans met and elected and installed officers for the ensuing year. The two-day convention was an unqualified success and served to bring together in pleasant companionship the men who followed the flag 17 years ago.

The Snax, as the devotees of the Serpent style themselves, held high carnival in the streets Saturday night with a parade in which a huge paper serpent was escorted by bolo men, head hunters and other illustrious gags.

Sunday morning the veterans got down to the real business of their convention and elected officers for the ensuing year. The next convention will be held at Schofield Barracks.

The Snax elected Companion Crellius of the 1st Infantry Encampment, grand guru grandissimo of the Grand Lair of Hawaii.

The veterans elected and installed the following officers: Sergt. J. T. Macdonald, Q. M. C., Schofield Barracks, department commander; W. Doty, 1st Infantry, senior vice department commander; Louis Broadus, 25th Infantry, junior vice department commander; Frank Murray, C. A. C., department chaplain; Dr. Schwallie, department surgeon.

tions, both primary and general." Act 91, providing for the special charter election, states that the general election laws shall prevail, which means that July 6 also is to be a legal holiday.

This is what Maul wants, or at least should want. Many Honoluluans journey to the sister island to attend the horse racing which is always associated with July 4 on Maui, but many others are prevented from making the trip owing to the shortness of the "vacation." This year the migrators to the Maui races should be many, as the steamer can carry them to Maui leaving Honolulu Saturday afternoon and return them on Tuesday or Wednesday morning.

The advance announcement of Acting Governor Thayer will cause immediate preparation of tentative plans by the various organizations which take part in Fourth of July celebrations. In making the decision, the acting governor was influenced by the fact that only five states celebrate holidays falling on Sundays on the preceding day, while three other states and territories are listed as "uncertain." Among these three the name of Hawaii appears.

NO 'FINANCIAL SUICIDE' SEEMS LIKELY FOR P. M.

The threatened retirement of the Pacific Mail liners from the trans-Pacific trade was characterized as "financial suicide" on the Pacific Coast when the Japanese liner Nippon Maru left for Honolulu and the Orient.

Japanese officers in this vessel, which visited this port a few days ago, confirm earlier rumors that Japanese capital may eventually become interested in the operation of the fleet of passenger and freight steamers now flying the Pacific Mail flag. That they may change their flag and registry seemed a certainty to the Japanese officers.

Captain A. E. Sato, master of the N. Y. K. Seattle Maru, is reported to have said at Seattle last week that Japanese capital is being interested with a view of obtaining control of the Pacific Mail shares. He added that the Japanese flag would probably soon fly over these vessels.

Commenting on the reported elimination of the Pacific Mail, the San Francisco Journal of Commerce says: "It has not been long since the Pacific Mail Steamship Company was again reported to be about to go out of business because of the passage of the seaman's bill. It was stated by officials here that the directors were having a meeting in New York at which the question of retiring from the shipping business for all time was under discussion. But nothing was ever heard as to what conclusion this meeting reached. General Manager R. P. Schwerin was reported to have gone to New York to attend this conference on the contemplated suicide of the company, but so far as known he sent out no announcement as to its result.

"In the meantime there come to hand little bits of information which seem to intimate that the Pacific Mail is no more going out of business than it was when it talked so much of disposing of all its steamships because of being inhibited from using the Panama Canal under the law which provides that no ships of railroad companies in competition with the canal can use that waterway. It has never sold the ships."

SUPERVISORS PREPARE TO SKIRMISH TONIGHT

There will be a meeting of the board of supervisors tonight and perhaps there will be some skirmishes, according to the forecast in the city hall. That three of the supervisors have "cards up their sleeves" is believed, but one of them is not expected to expose his "card" until a later meeting.

As the films for the theaters for the latter part of this week are not due until tomorrow, it is not likely that any applications for permits for Sunday shows will be filed with the board tonight.

WIFE OF FORMER COMMANDER OF TSINGTAU HERE

Mrs. Meyer Waldeck, On Way to Germany By Way of U. S., Entertained By Geo. Rodiek

Forced to leave a magnificent palace that crowned the slopes of the Shantung range and afforded a picturesque background to the former German military and naval stronghold at Tsingtau, North China, Mrs. Meyer Waldeck, wife of the former governor-general of Kiaochow, a peninsula upon which the Teutonic energies were bent in an effort to establish a base in the Far East, is a passenger in the Pacific Mail liner Korea to the mainland.

With the fall of Tsingtau, Gov.-gen. Waldeck was taken prisoner by the Japanese. He was sent to Japan to remain there until the close of the European war.

Mrs. Waldeck, her three children, and a maid are now hastening to the fatherland in the Pacific Mail liner Korea by the way of the United States. They were met by Consul Georg Rodiek, representing the German government in the Hawaiian islands. With Mrs. Rodiek, Mrs. Waldeck and a few prominent Germans en route to the mainland in the Korea were entertained during their stay in this city. They were taken to the Country Club for luncheon.

In common with other Germans now in transit to the United States, Mrs. Waldeck had no criticism to offer at the treatment accorded to herself and family by the Japanese.

Tsingtau was practically laid waste when it was finally surrendered by the little handful of German defenders stationed there at the beginning of the war. Many of its principal buildings were wrecked by dynamite. Improvements costing millions of marks were destroyed in a single night rather than let them fall into the hands of the captors.

Previous to its being taken by the Japanese Tsingtau was famous for its beautiful public buildings and splendid thoroughfares.

Mrs. Waldeck hopes to proceed to Germany shortly after landing in the United States. She expects to receive assistance from German consular representatives at San Francisco and New York City.

BRECKONS IS ON IN SCULLY CASE

The defense in the trial of John T. Scully, indicted by the federal grand jury on an optum charge, this morning completed its cross-examination of Ah You, a Chinese, said to have been in the house in Kalihi the night of February 3 where Scully et al are alleged to have held up Chun Chong and robbed him of about $600. After the dismissal of Ah You the prosecution called Attorney R. W. Breckons to the witness stand. The trial has been continued until 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is expected it will come to a close this week.

PUGILISTIC LIGHTS, PAST AND PRESENT, PASSENGERS IN SONOMA

Jack Kearns, veteran fight manager and promoter, passed through Honolulu today bound for the Antipodes with Red Watson, Kid Cramer, Murray and trainers on the Oceanic liner Sonoma. Jimmy Britt, the man who kept the fans in much suspense a while back, also is a passenger on the steamer on a vaudeville tour of Australia and New Zealand.

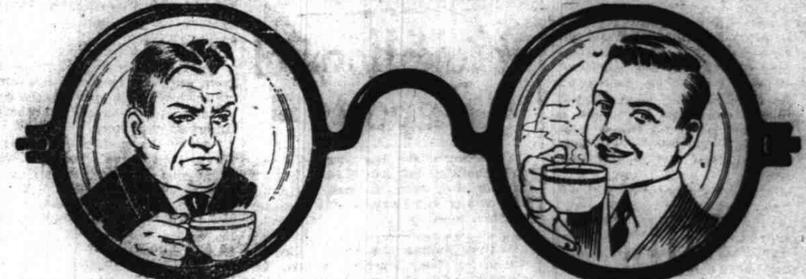

After the Australasia tour Kearns expects to take Murray and Watson on another tour of the eastern states. Red Watson is the man who recently dished out much punishment in a ten-round go with Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion, at Milwaukee. This bout was a no-decision mill. Murray boxed Jim Coffey, the latest aspirant for heavyweight honors, in New York recently and made a good showing.
