THE VOLCANO-TRIP

Intending visitors to the Volcano of Kilauea should stop at the Crater Hotel, where you see more and are properly looked after. The rates are lower and the service and food the best. The difference in rates goes a long way to defraying expenses on other auto trips you may want to take. The Crater Hotel is nearest to the Volcano, Kilauea-ike (extinct crater, 800 feet deep), Twin Craters, Caves, etc.

Matsonia passengers can visit the Volcano for the following:

- Auto to and from Volcano..... $ 7.00
- Hotel, per day (American plan)..... 3.50
- Steamer fare (return)..... 20.00

held on the color of the wall light-foot. This disclosed the secret and many congratulations and good wishes were heaped upon the hostess. Little hand-painted pink parasols tied with dainty little bows of blue marked the cover of the guests who were: Miss Abby Lucas, Miss Edith McCarrison, Miss Aine Carden, Miss Psyche Berry, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Florence Davis, Mrs. A. T. Longley, Miss Louise Lightfoot, Miss Margaret McArthur, Miss Pearl McArthur, Miss Carrie Ackerman.

Commencement Fall of Punahou Academy.

The graduating class of Punahou Academy entertained most delightfully at a ball given on Monday evening at the Meana Hotel. The class colors, green and gold, were carried out with quantities of golden shower and the popular hula-light vine. At one end of the room was a large blue and gold pennant—Punahou Academy—and at the other was a green and gold banner—Class 1915. About two hundred guests were present at the last gathering of the outgoing class. Mr. Joseph Farrington, president of the class, and Miss Dorothy Hooops acted as host and hostess at the affair.

McKinley High's Commencement.

The graduating class of McKinley High School holds its commencement tonight in McKinley hall at 8 o'clock. Invitations for the dance which occurs tomorrow night in the same hall have been sent out and read as follows:

The graduating class of McKinley High School request the pleasure of your company at a ball to be given on Thursday evening, June the twenty-fourth at McKinley Hall, eight o'clock.

The Misses Helen, Margaret and Catherine Jones with their mother, Mrs. E. A. Jones, returned to Honolulu yesterday after a year's absence from their island home. Miss Helen Jones has been attending Smith college in Northampton, Massachusetts, and the Misses Kathryn and Margaret have been in Cape school, not far distant. The three sisters have always been most popular in the younger set here.

Upon the arrival of the Misses Eleanor and Ruth Gartley, a pol supper was given yesterday. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley and have been attending school in the East for two years. Their return to Honolulu was welcomed by a host of friends.

Mrs. George Sherman left this morning in the Siberia for San Francisco, where she will join Mr. Sherman, who is returning from a business trip in the East. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman will visit the fair and remain on the mainland for several weeks.

The Misses Phoebe and Elizabeth Carter returned yesterday in the Matsonia after spending some time in the East. Miss Phoebe returns from school and Miss Elizabeth from a visit in the East, where she has been entertained extensively.

Lieut. Howard Douglass Bode, U. S. N., arrived in Honolulu yesterday on the Matsonia with his brother, Arthur H. Bode, Jr., who will act as best man at his marriage to Miss Helen Spalding, which takes place on next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. von Holt with three daughters, Miss von Holt, Miss Hilda and Miss Catherine, were returning passengers in the Matsonia yesterday. Misses Hilda and Catherine also have been attending school in the East.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

FIGHTS TO CORNER WHEAT SUPPLY

A dramatization of "The Pit," Frank Norris' novel of the titan's struggle between Joseph Leiter and the great Armour interests, when the former became obsessed of the idea that he could corner the world's wheat market, is the photo-play which will be shown tonight for the last time at Ye Liberty theater.

Letter made a stubborn but losing fight on the Chicago Board of Trade some 18 years ago, and Curtis J. Adwin—the Leiter of the photo-play—makes an equally stubborn though losing battle. So great is the struggle of Adwin that he almost entirely forgets

DAYS OF GRAFT IN GREAT CITY

In "A Splendid Dishonor," by George C. Haldoun, a drama of the days when the control of a great city was in the hands of an unscrupulous and dishonest band of politicians eager for loot, is cleverly set forth. Francis X. Bushman and Ruth Stonehouse share honors in the leading roles.

It seems almost impossible for the story to come to a happy conclusion, yet the efforts of a well-balanced company has made much of what might be considered an ordinary plot had the drama been presented on the speaking stage instead of it being photo-played. The picture, in two parts, will be a headliner at the Empire theater today. Bryant Washburn, Harry Calvert and Esther Cumao will be seen in the production. They are now recognized favorites on the silent stage.

The Double Error, a powerful drama by Faye Neill, giving opportunity to James Morrison, Dorothy Kelly, George Cooper and Lillian Burns to make their reappearance at the Empire theater, is a story that has to do with a number of perplexing problems which confront husband and wife when living a life of deceit.

Billy Quirk, a favorite comedian, has a pleasing part in the playlet, "Father's Timepiece." "The Borrowed Book" is a closing comedy drama.

Miss Makina, the eldest daughter of Captain and Mrs. Paul Malone of Fort Shafter, has returned for the summer after her second year at Vassar. It is expected that Miss Malone will be extensively entertained during her stay in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit P. Wilder closed the doors of their beautiful home in College Hills yesterday and sailed in the Manoa for the mainland, where they will remain for some months.

Lieut. and Mrs. William H. Munter are residing in the A. Hocking home on Kewalo street during the summer, and absence of Mr. and Mrs. Hocking, who are on the mainland.

Miss Harriet Hatell returned yesterday in the Matsonia with her father, Hon. F. M. Hatch, after an absence of some months.

Mrs. A. H. Waterhouse, wife of Dr. Waterhouse, returned in the Matsonia with her children yesterday.

CAVADORE SINGS SONGS OF NAPLES

"The Dancing Girl," Florence Reed's photo-play premier, will be offered at the Bijou theater for the last time tonight. In this story of Quaker life and that of the gay Bohemian set of London's "white light" center, this charming young American star has proved herself well adapted to the silent drama.

The film version of Henry Arthur Jones' thrilling drama is far more vivid and elaborate than is the stage offering. For the photo-play the author has enlarged upon a number of his scenes, while other scenes, only implied in the book, are disclosed in the pictures.

Madame Sanborn and Signor Cavadore continue to please, the former in old favorites in English and the latter in Neapolitan love songs. This pair of Honolulu favorites will shortly depart for the mainland.

Sir Gilbert Parker's "The Seats of the Mighty" will be the feature for the last half of the week, commencing tomorrow night.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.

In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
