AD CLUB PROBE
 MAY CLEAR UP
 DEEP MYSTERY

There's an atmosphere of mystery surrounding the Honolulu Ad Club. J. D. Levenson, a prominent member who seems to hold the strings to the bag, is as mum as a clam and refuses to divulge anything tangible, further than to state that it is a matter of serious moment and intimately concerns the honor and welfare of the organization. That "investigations are going on" is admitted by Mr. Levenson, who says:

"There certainly is something wrong somewhere or we are terribly at fault, and out of justice to those primarily concerned we don't feel that it would be just to 'go off half-cocked.' However, we hope to have the entire matter sufficiently in hand to warrant a complete and comprehensive report very soon.

"If we are mistaken in our surmises we shall then make public our contention and apologetically acknowledge our error. On the other hand, if the parties under surveillance are found to be guilty of the accusations we shall carry the matter to the proper authorities and see that justice is done."

Mr. Levenson hopes to be able to set the minds of the complete roster of Ad Club members at rest, one way or another, at the Ad Club "high jinks" to be held next Friday evening at Heine's Tavern.

This is designed to be a purely social and enjoyable affair, as an honorary farewell to President Farrington, who departs for the mainland on July 20. This business which so deeply concerns Mr. Levenson would seem to be of considerable moment, since he may see fit to interrupt so pleasant a gathering to impart the findings of his committee.

'NEWPORT NIGHT' AND CABARET AT HEINE'S TAVERN

There is going to be a wonderfully brilliant event next Monday night at Heine's Tavern in Walkiki.

It will be "Newport Night" in honor of the officers and cadets of the New York Nautical School Training Ship Newport, and the officers of the army and navy and their ladies and guests.

Manager Heydenreich has determined to make this event the crowning affair of his tavern, and the extraordinary attraction will be Miss Edith Mellor, probably the most popular and talented cabaret singer of the Pacific coast.

She has been brought from San Francisco to appear at the Tavern and will be accompanied by Mr. W. R. Hughes.

The Hawaiian Quintet Glee Club also will be on hand for the dancing, which will follow the dinner.

Besides being "Newport Night," Monday evening will be "Cabaret Night" at the Tavern, and there is going to be the finest entertainment for the guests that Walkiki has ever seen.

There will be the usual delightful dinner and dance at the Tavern this evening.

Saturday evening is always a very enjoyable one at Heine's. Everyone is certain to enjoy themselves. The dinner will be fine and the dance—everyone knows what those dances are—pure joy and bliss.—Adv.

RELATIVE OF DUELLIST BOUGHT GUN, IS CHARGE

Thomas Dickerson, a former soldier, who is said to claim relationship to the noted southern duelist of the same name, was arrested by Marshal J. J. Smiddy Thursday on a charge of buying government property. According to the marshal's office, Dickerson purchased a revolver alleged to have been stolen from Schofield Barracks. Dickerson has been released on his own recognizance and is under orders to appear in court the first day of the October term.

MISS AUSTIN OF KOHALA BRIDE OF EUGENE HORNER

One of the largest and prettiest weddings seen in Kohala for some years took place when Marian C. Austin, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Austin of Hawi, became the wife of Eugene Horner last Thursday evening.

The wedding and reception were held at the Austin home. The color scheme was pink and green. At one corner of the room where the marriage ceremony was performed, there was a white lattice arch almost hidden with green vines and pink roses and crowned with a basket bouquet of pink sweet peas. The doors and windows were draped with the same vine and the lights were all shaded with pink.

As the first strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Henry Hine, were heard by the large crowd in attendance, the maid of honor appeared at the top of the staircase at one end of the room. The bride followed, supported by her father. At the foot of the stairs the procession approached the arch between two long white ribbons held by the ushers, Stafford Austin and Douglas Bond and the bride-maid, Miss Margaret Austin.

The bride was gowned in white embroidered crepe and carried a shower bouquet of beautiful white roses.

The maid of honor wore a very becoming dress of pink crepe meteor, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaid's dress was blue crepe meteor and her bouquet was of sweet peas.

Dr. Cowan of Kohala officiated and Mr. Ashford Austin acted as best man.

After the ceremony and reception, and when the guests had seen the many beautiful gifts received by the young couple, supper was served at the Kohala Clubhouse which was also artistically decorated with pink and green. The supper over, the tables were removed, and the remainder of the evening given up to dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Horner slipped away after the grand march. They are spending their honeymoon at "29 Miles," near the Volcano House.

BOOSTS KILAUEA
 NATIONAL PARK
 AT WASHINGTON

Plans for the establishment of a national park at the volcano of Kilauea are still being boosted by assistant secretary A. F. Taylor of the Promotion Committee. In a recent letter to Secretary of the Interior Lamm, Mr. Taylor calls the attention of the secretary to the magnificence of Kilauea and the beauty of the surrounding country.

"As to public parks," the letter says, "the Promotion Committee feels sure that either lying in the wire basket on your desk, or in the pigeon-hole just in front of you, will be found a sheaf of papers relating to the proposed national park at Kilauea, Island of Hawaii, Hawaiian Islands, U. S. A."

The letter calls attention to the fact that a smooth automobile road runs to the very edge of the crater, and speaks of the journey there as a "sat-in slipper trip."

After a strong argument in favor of the park, it concludes: "We are a part of the 'See America First' movement, and, naturally, want to have a national park, so that we can show off a bit too."

 AGAIN FEATURE
 MME. LESTER AND MR. RANSFORD

The time when the next weekly dance will be given at the Moana Hotel will depend on the arrival of the transport Sherman from San Francisco. Present advices indicate that it will arrive on Wednesday. The dance will be made the occasion for further exhibitions by Mme. M. Lester and Mr. Charles Ransford, who will be seen in several dances not presented by them in Honolulu heretofore.—Adv.

GERMAN STOWAWAYS ARE TURNED LOOSE IN CITY

The seven German stowaways taken from the transport Thomas upon her arrival in Honolulu from Manila Monday morning have been released and are now at large in Honolulu. Inspector of Immigration B. T. Halsey explains that since the stowaways shipped aboard the transport at an American port the immigration officials have nothing to do with the case. The Quartermaster department of the army took charge of the captives and later freed them in Honolulu.

Seven Filipinos also were caught as stowaways. They are still in the custody of the Quartermaster department. The other four stowaways, including G. F. B. Schreiber, said to be a German sea captain, were freed with the German subjects.
