AVERY HINTS HE THINKS P. M. BLUFFS

William Avery, general manager of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha Steamship Co. who passed through here en route to the mainland from his Yokohama offices, says the T. K. K. line is ready for any emergency when the Seaman's act goes into effect in November.

"We are prepared to meet any emergency," was Avery's answer, when asked whether or not the new Seaman's Act would mean the complete manning of the T. K. K. steamers by Japanese.

"As yet we are in the dark. We don't know what construction is to be placed on the various provisions of the law, or what regulations are to be made to enforce them.

"However, if it is necessary to man the vessels of our line entirely with Japanese we are prepared to do it. Congress has made the law, and we must live up to its provisions."

Avery refused to discuss the report that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company would go out of business as soon as the Seaman's Act became effective, but intimated that he hardly believed the prophecy true.

HARBOR NOTES

The inter-island steamer Kinau arrived from Kaula today with a light freight and no passengers.

The Chilean schooner Llanquihue, with nitrates from Chili for H. Hackfeld & Company, arrived Saturday. Captain Rumbit is master.

With a full cabin of 75 passengers, the Matson steamer Manoa will leave the railroad wharf at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for San Francisco.

With 180 first cabin passengers and a heavy mail, the Matsonia is due at Pier 15 at 7:30 tomorrow morning. A radio advice from the ship today informed Castle & Cooke that the steamer is running on schedule.

The first of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha fleet to make Honolulu a calling port for supplies arrived today. She is the Tokushima Maru, bound for China ports via the canal. She carries kerosene oil and took on 300 tons of bunker coal at the inter-island. She will depart late today.

Castle & Cooke have received a wireless from the Matsonia stating the steamer will dock at Pier 15 early Tuesday morning with 180 cabin passengers, 16 steerage passengers, 357 bags of mail, 53 packages of Wells-Fargo express matter, 31 automobiles and 3588 tons of cargo for Honolulu. In addition the ship carries 27 tons, 1104 tons of cargo for Hilo, 522 tons of cargo for Port Allen and 117 tons for Kaaanapali.

TENYO SMASHES INTO PIER NO. SEVEN

After having arrived off port at 7:30 o'clock this morning and cutting "circles" at the harbor entrance for about 45 minutes, the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Tenyo Maru came into the harbor this morning, and after smashing into the piling of Pier 7 on three different occasions, the gangplank was lowered at 10 o'clock.

The Tenyo was so heavily loaded, drawing 28 feet at the bow, that she stirred up all the mud on the harbor bottom, and it was feared that she would be unable to reach the dock because of low water. The ship brought 14 passengers to Honolulu and 2270 tons of general Oriental freight. Nothing unusual was marked on the trip from Yokohama, and the ship will leave on schedule time tomorrow morning, either at 9 o'clock or at 10 o'clock. She will carry mail for the mainland.

IRON CROSS AND TOY DOG SENT TO CAPTAIN RELY

Capt. Henry L. Rely, wharf superintendent at Pier 7, is still wondering where it came from.

It was a great big packing box. A dray conveyed it down to Pier 7 this morning. At first the captain feared to open it. He was afraid it might contain a bomb or a bunch of che-fa tickets. But finally he screwed up his courage and opened it with a hatchet.

A tiny Japanese "toy" dog stood in the bottom gleefully wagging its tail. The dog was standing on a large facsimile of the "Iron Cross" such as German soldiers receive for unusual proficiency in service or bravery.

The captain thought a moment. He scratched his head. He asked a few questions. Then he remembered—

It was the captain who chased out to the Seaside hotel in a taxicab last Friday morning and "arrested" a tiny lap dog belonging to Mrs. Edith H. Spreckels of San Francisco, known as Mrs. "Jack" Spreckels, who had arrived that day in the Siberia. Mrs. Spreckels had smuggled the diminutive canine ashore in a handbag. Captain Rely seized the dog and placed it in quarantine.

The captain is still wondering who played the joke.

WANTS TO RAISE EMDEN

Tokuo Shimizu, the veteran diver of Kobe, has applied to the British consul at that port for permission to refloat the German cruiser Emden, which destroyed 18 vessels of the allied countries, and which was at last battered and driven ashore by the British cruiser Sydney near Cocos island, not far from Java, on November 9, last year. His skilled colleagues in Kobe and vicinity supported him by signing the application. Mr. Shimizu, through the introduction of retired Vice-Admiral of Naval Engineering Jiro Miyahara, now the president of the Technical Improvement Association, applied to the British embassy in Tokio, which transferred the application to the British Admiralty after careful inquiries on this side of the world.

She—No, Mr. Simpson, I'm sorry; but I wouldn't marry the best man living. He—No? Well, at any rate, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that he offered himself.

NEW PARISIAN DRIVERS OF AUTOS ARE RECKLESS

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS.—There are less than half as many motor vehicles circulating in Paris as before the war, but there are more street accidents. The pedestrian was more secure during the first few months, before the lack of skill of new conductors, replacing mobilized men, began to show and before they acquired the reckless speed habit. The taxi-drivers claim that the military chauffeurs are the cause of the trouble. The statistics of prosecutions for violation of the regulations indicate that the taxi is the principal culprit.

KILLED PERCENTAGE IS LOWER THAN CRIMEAN WAR

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Eng.—A compilation of all the British casualty lists issued to date shows that the proportion of killed to injured is 23.5 per cent. This is slightly in excess of the percentage in the Crimean and South African campaigns. In the Russo-Turkish war, however, the proportion was nearly 46 per cent.

The proportion of killed officers is much higher than among men, reaching in the present war a percentage of 43.6.

"What was the matter with the fourth ward?" inquired the precinct captain. "The district leader's wife wore a last-year hat," glumly replied the central committeeman.

SOLDIERS HELP FARMERS.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON.—Soldiers are to be sent from the training camps to help British farmers with their harvests wherever there is a shortage of labor. The farmers must house and feed the soldiers, and pay them 65 cents a day which will be used to defray traveling expenses.

DANGER!

Night firing will be held with the sea-coast guns at Fort Ruger (Diamond Head), Fort De Russy (Waikiki), Fort Armstrong (Kakako), and Fort Kamehameha (Pearl Harbor), beginning at 7:15 p. m., July 29, and continuing to July 29, 1915, inclusive.

The sea area for eight miles off shore between a line running due south of Black Point (Kupikipiki) and a line running due south of Barber's Point will be unsafe for shipping on the nights above mentioned so long as the searchlights are in operation. When all searchlights are out the firing is completed.

W. C. RAFFERTY,
Colonel, Coast Artillery Corps,
Commanding.
