MRS. CREIGHTON, WIFE OF CABINET MINISTER, DIES

Lived Here in Monarchy Days; Her Son Was Later Attorney-General Under Queen

Mrs. Robert J. Creighton, who first came to Honolulu in 1885, died early Sunday morning at the Beretania Sanitarium, from severe injuries received last Friday, when she was stunned by a bad fall. Mrs. Creighton was nearly 80 years of age. Funeral arrangements are being held in absence until the arrival of her daughter, Miss Agnes Creighton, who is expected on the next Matsonia, August 17.

The late Mrs. Creighton was, at different times, the wife and the mother of a cabinet minister under the monarchy. Robert J. Creighton, her husband, who died some years ago in San Francisco, came here in 1885 to edit the Advertiser, then owned by Claus Spreckels. The following year he was appointed by King Kalakaua as minister of foreign affairs, holding the position a few months until the king of Hawaii broke with the sugar king, the Spreckels members of the cabinet being dismissed.

Mr. Creighton continued to conduct the Advertiser until its owner, in cutting loose from Hawaiian affairs, placed the paper in the market. Returning to the coast as confidential secretary to Col. Spreckels, Mr. Creighton remained there for the rest of his life. He contributed letters from San Francisco to the Daily Bulletin here, in which the sugar trust was roared to a tirade, its members being dubbed "the forty thieves." This, of course, was before Spreckels sold out to the trust.

After Mr. Creighton's death his wife and family made their home in Honolulu. Charles Creighton, the son, was attorney general in the shortest-lived cabinet of Liliuokalani, during the story legislative session of 1892, which ended in the events that speedily culminated in the overthrow of the monarchy early in 1893. This particular ministry lasted, counting from the appearance of the paper in which it was gazetted until a vote of want of confidence in it was passed by the legislature, about five hours. Mr. Creighton continued the practice of law here until his death a few years ago, being considered one of the ablest criminal law practitioners of his time.

ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT GIFT OF FOUNTAIN TO CITY DUE TOMORROW

Tomorrow will be Japanese Day at the Pan-Pacific luncheon, and representatives of each of the Pacific nationalities in Hawaii will be present to hear S. Sheba and other Japanese tell what their countrymen have done and will do to make Hawaii a better place because they have lived here.

It is expected that the formal announcement will be made at this Tuesday's luncheon concerning the $10,000 fountain which the Japanese of Honolulu are giving to the city. When plans progress further there will be a "Fountain" Tuesday.

The attendants at the Pan-Pacific luncheons are becoming better acquainted and arrangements are being made to use the gymnasium at the Y. M. C. A. in place of Cooke Hall, as the big room will hold more tables and there will be less noise from the street to interrupt the speakers.

Those of any race who are interested in the getting together of the races to give Hawaii the best that they have in them are invited to these luncheons, which are held each Tuesday at noon at Cooke hall.

WANTS TO SHIP HAWAII FERNS TO MAINLAND

San Francisco Importer Will Take Plants From Here if Quarantine Allows It

Provided the embargo on exportation of Hawaiian fruits and plants because of the Mediterranean fruit fly does not prevent, this city may become the shipping point for consignments of large quantities of transparent fern, sea moss, begonia and similar ferns.

M. Linken, a San Francisco wholesale importer of the above plants, has written the Hawaii Promotion Committee to ask whether it will be possible to obtain them in the Territory of Hawaii.

"I have been getting the plants in Australia," he writes to the committee, "but I should prefer to obtain them here, if possible." Acting Director A. P. Taylor is making an investigation to see if it will be possible to ship the plants to San Francisco without violating the regulations of the plant quarantine act.

DIABETES

We announce this new FACT IN PHYSICS—influence the renal tract with an agent that opposes Renal and Hepatic degeneration and urinalysis will, in many cases, within twenty days begin to show diminishing sugar in Diabetes in people of 50 and over.

There having been no agent on prescription counters to reduce sugar in Diabetes (except opium which is not a specific—see Van Noorden on Diabetes) the importance of an anti-glycosuric is immediately manifest.

That sugar can be reduced and that many of those succumbing to Diabetes can have lives prolonged to other terminations has been established by urinalyses and confirmed by disappearing symptoms in many cases.

The presence of sugar being a PHYSICAL FACT, and its disappearance a FACT IN PHYSICS there is no uncertainty as to the results that have been obtained.

The agent to reduce sugar (Fulton's Diabetic Compound) can be had at Honolulu Drug Co. Ask for pamphlet. Current bulletin of recoveries and rationale mailed on application. John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco, Cal.—adv.

MAGAZINE WILL BOOST SHOOTING OF FLYING FISH

"Shooting Flying Fish in Hawaii" will be the captivating caption to an article which will appear in the "Illustrated World," formerly known as the Technical World Magazine, in its issue for September.

Handsome photographs illustrating this sport, obtainable at its finest only in Honolulu, will adorn the article, which is from the trusty typewriter of A. P. Taylor. The author received a letter from the magazine today, stating that his article will appear in either the September number or the following month.

Several other handsome views of the islands will adorn the magazine, which has a world-wide circulation. "We are also rather glad we made that error about Hawaii's roads being poor," the letter from Editor W. T. Walsh concludes, "as it gives us an opportunity to try before our readers some of the charms of the islands." The error referred to depicted Hawaii's roads as so bad that cane was taken to mills by donkeys over rough trails.

SEATTLE MADE HIT WITH SHRINE HOSTS

SEATTLE, Wash.—Seattle made a big hit with visiting nobles, and Nile Temple achieved a historic success in the entertainment of the Shriners, if a resume of the comments made by leading members of the fraternity is expressive of the general attitude of the host that came from every corner of the country to the forty-first annual meeting.

James S. McCandless of Honolulu expressed the general sentiment when he said, "Smiling with Nile has been no half-hearted smirk, but a genial, out-of-the-heart proposition."

FINE MEMORIAL GIVES HISTORY OF FAMOUS 25TH

A memorial to the 25th Infantry (colored), now garrisoned at Lihue, this island, has been compiled and issued by A. R. Fitzgerald. The book is considered a work of art, and contains the complete roster of all the companies composing the regiment, with photo halftones of every company taken in group, and other full-page photos of the present camp.

There is also incorporated an exhaustive historical sketch of the 25th Infantry during its existence, giving an interesting account of life in the different possessions of the United States where the regiment has been quartered. A roster of the colonels of this well organized regiment and a resume of the "actions" the different companies of the 25th has engaged in is given.

The memorial, from cover to cover, was made in its entirety by the Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

L. E. THAYER IMPROVING AFTER STROKE AT HILO

Continued improvement is noted in the condition of L. E. Thayer, who suffered a stroke of paralysis while in Hilo recently, and who was brought back to Honolulu and placed in the Queen's hospital for treatment.

Mr. Thayer has now been removed from the hospital to his home, and is able to be up a considerable part of the time, though doctors in attendance prescribe frequent rests for him throughout the day.

Steamer Northland, with 2,000 Canadian troops on board, has arrived at Plymouth.

Eight wireless operators from the Naval Radio Service have been installed at the Sayville plant.

SLASHES ISHI HOPING TO RUIN HIS GOOD LOOKS

Following an argument with a Filipino at Asia Park, Ishi, a Japanese, is said to have been followed to the rear of the Hawaiian opera house by the Filipino and there slashed across the face with a knife. Ishi was found by home-comers about midnight Saturday night and was taken to Queen's hospital for treatment.

Ishi was able to give a description of his assailant and the police are now searching for him. It was reported that Ishi and his assailant are rivals in a love affair and that the man who did the cutting did so to vindicate Ishi's somewhat handsome face and thus painstate himself in favor again with the fair one.
