Arrival of Maryland Revives Social Activities.

The return of the cruiser Maryland to this port will revive the social activities which for a time threatened to lag. The heat of the summer has been conducive to siestas rather than dances and other interesting entertainments, but it is quite certain, now that Uncle Sam's cruiser is in port that the afternoon dances will be revived.

While the Maryland was in Honolulu a few months ago there were many delightful informal parties given by the junior officers aboard her and already the young ensigns and lieutenants are planning dinner dances for the time the cruiser will be in the islands.

Outrigger Club Entertainment Postponed.

The Outrigger Club chowder and dance which was dated for the 21st of this month, has been postponed to Saturday, August 28, on account of the appearance of Madame Melba in concert at the Hawaiian Opera House. The affair is to be the opening of the new dancing pavilion, which has just been completed.

The chowder and dance has been a thing looked forward to for some time and it is expected will be one of the largest social functions of the summer. A number of parties have already been made up by the younger people.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings Howland Entertained.

Senator and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth entertained this week most informally in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Hastings Howland, who left Honolulu in the Ventura on Thursday. The table was artistically decorated with yellow and green, the effect being carried out with coriopsis and maidenhair fern. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Howland delighted the guests by singing several duets. Mr. and Mrs. Chillingworth's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hastings Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Howland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray. Mr. Howland was for years in the department of public works here.

Mrs. Harvey Murray Entertains.

Mrs. Harvey Murray entertained at a brightly appointed dinner on Thursday evening at her home at Waikiki. A graceful arrangement of sweet peas and forget-me-nots ornamented the center of the table and daintily decorated cards marked the place of each guest. Some among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. C. Maynes, Mrs. Cecil Garney, Mr. John Wolcott, Mr. Withers, Mr. "Toots" Ouna and others.

To Study on Coast.

Mrs. L. M. Smith, Miss Bernice Smith and Miss Margaret Smith were among the outgoing passengers in the Ventura Thursday. Miss Bernice Smith is on her way to the University of California, where she will take up a four years' course there, having been awarded the scholarship of the University of California Club in Honolulu. Mrs. Smith and her younger daughter are to spend a few weeks at the exposition and will return to Honolulu some time in September or October.

Mrs. Franklin Howland Entertains.

Mrs. Franklin Howland entertained delightfully on Monday in honor of Mrs. Hastings Howland, the affair being an informal tea. Bright flowers and ferns decorated the reception and drawing rooms. Some among the guests who called during the afternoon were Mrs. Jack Lucas, Miss Sara Lucas, Mrs. A. G. Hodgins, Mrs. A. D. Larnach and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth.

Professor George H. Barton Honored.

Professor George H. Barton of Massachusetts Institute of Technology is being honored this evening at the University at a dinner to which all men of "Boston Tech" are invited.

New Club to Be Formed.

A woman's movement which for some time has attracted attention all over the country is now forming branch organizations in almost every state in the union and it is a movement in which society women all over America are deeply interested. It is the Navy League Auxiliary which is now organizing in California. It is the first woman's national defense or-

Mrs. Frank C. Henderson, a recent visitor to the islands, who has written its charms.

St. Mary's Academy in the class of 1912. Mr. Smolik met Miss Southard three years ago during the Rose Festival in Portland while he was on a furlough. Some years before he had lived in Portland, and after he met Miss Southard his interest in the city increased. During his frequent visits to Portland, but more frequent correspondence, their acquaintance developed into an engagement.

Mr. Smolik by late is chief gunner's mate of the submarine F-3, sister ship of the ill-fated F-4, which went to the bottom in Honolulu harbor with all hands aboard. He is 24 years old, and the son of Mrs. Joseph Smolik-Novak of New York City.

Mr. Smolik has attended two naval schools in the United States and one in Europe to perfect himself for the submarine duties. He is a torpedo specialist. His last instruction was at the government naval torpedo station at Newport, R. I.

At present Gunner Smolik is on a two-month furlough from Honolulu, which port he left 25 days ago. After the ceremony today he and his bride will take a short trip before proceeding to Honolulu, where they will make their home during the intermission period Mr. Smolik is stationed there.

Spend Honeymoon in Hawaii.

Of the wedding of one of the many honeymoon couples who this summer decided to take a bridal tour to Hawaii a Spokane paper says: "Spokane society turned out en masse last evening for the wedding of Miss Mabel A. Porter and Kenneth D. Hauser of St. Paul. As early as 7:30 o'clock motors began to draw up at the Porter residence and until the hour announced for the wedding, guests filed into the spacious grounds and home in an almost continuous line. The grounds of the Porter home were brilliant with myriads of electric lights and Japanese lanterns. Rugs and chairs and great vases of sweet peas and roses were placed about the lawn. On the lower terrace was the dancing pavilion, the mecca of the guests until an early hour this morning.

"Mr. and Mrs. Hauser left over the Milwaukee railroad for an extended honeymoon on the coast. They will stop at Portland and Gearhart, and proceed leisurely to San Francisco and Los Angeles. They will visit the fair. A trip to Honolulu and thence to Chicago and St. Paul will occupy the remainder of their honeymoon. The Hausers will reside in St. Paul. Sixty or more of the guests flocking to the train to see the couple safely off. The Dutch band, composed of friends of the bridal pair, serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Hauser at the union station before the arrival of their train."

Mr. and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke entertain in honor of their house-guests, Dr. and Mrs. Zabriske and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. LePorte. Mr. and Mrs. C. Montague Cooke entertained at a prettily appointed dinner on Tuesday evening at Heinie's Tavern. An attractive arrangement of flowers and ferns ornamented the table at which covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. Zabriske, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. LePorte, Mr. and Mrs. Rainey Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Mrs. Beatrice Walbridge, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mr. Richard Cooke and the host and hostess.

During the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Cooke and their house-guests are on the other side of the island at the Cooke summer home. Mr. and Mrs. LePorte will be in Honolulu until September and when they leave for the mainland Mrs. Cooke will accompany them. After visiting the exposition and spending some months in the East, they will return to the islands. At present Mrs. Cooke plans to be away until December.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper to entertain. Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Cooper are entertaining informally at dinner tomorrow evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gerould (Katherine Foltz) Gerould and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Warren Thayer.

Miss Ida Gove of Honolulu will arrive in Los Angeles the first of the week to spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends—Lodi (Cal.) Sentinel.
