

Fresh Fish
Salmon and Halibut
 SMOKED
Salmon and Halibut

If you have not tried these,
 Now is a good time to begin.

Beef, Mutton, Pork
 RARE GOOD QUALITY AND ISLAND RAISED.

Metropolitan Meat Market
 Phone 3445.

Bathing Caps
 FOR
Women, Men and Children

We have just received a new
 ASSORTMENT OF LATEST STYLES
 Priced from 50c to $1.25.

Bathing Shoes, High or Low, in Many Colors,
 From 35c to $3.50.

Rubber Lined Bags for carrying the Bathing Suit to and from the beach, 75c to $1.25
 Cork Surf-Balls, 15c, 25c and 30c.

Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd.
 The Rexall Store
 Fort and Hotel Sts. Phone 1297
 OPEN UNTIL 11:15 P. M.

At last you can make properly-timed flashlight photographs with hand or tripod
 camera—indoors or outdoors,
 in darkness, dimlight, artificial light or broad daylight.

Use the new
IMP FLASHLIGHT GUN

which ignites the flash and operates the shutter simultaneously. See this at Honolulu Photo Supply Co.

 "Everything Photographic" Fort Street

You Can Have the Best
ICE CREAM
 AND GENERAL DAIRY PRODUCTS
 Get them at RAWLEY'S
 "Where the Price is Right."
 Phone 4225 Fort and Beretania

KETTLES
 AND POTS

Thoroughly
 Cleaned
 With Little Labor by

Large Sifter Can,
 with Full Directions.

SOCIETY

Dance at Haleiwa Saturday Night.
 A most enjoyable dance took place at the Haleiwa hotel last Saturday night for the guests of the hotel and visitors from neighboring towns and elsewhere. As the fall now is for motorists making the trip around the island to spend the night at Haleiwa and return to town the next day, the hotel guests were many. There were a number of dinner parties before the dance, among them being one at which Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter were hosts. At Mr. and Mrs. Carter's table were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Miss "Bud" Carter, Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Catherine von Holt, Hermann von Holt, Mr. Strons, Ronald von Holt and others.

Another charming dinner party was one whose members motored from Fort Shafter. At this table covers were laid for Capt. and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson, Miss Maggie Mae Richardson, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Lucy Webb, Lieut. L. McD. Silvester, Lieut. Charles Lyman and Lieut. W. G. Jones. After the dance, for which music was furnished by the 4th Cavalry band, the guests all went for a moonlight swim.

Among some noticed were Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Anderson Sloan, Captain and Mrs. C. S. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. von Holt, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Carter, Miss "Bud" Carter, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieut. and Mrs. Richards, Lieut. and Mrs. L. O. Mathews, Miss Mix, Lieut. and Mrs. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Sattler, Miss Lucy Webb, Miss Maggie Mae Richardson, Miss Miriam Stacker, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Catherine von Holt, Miss Ethel Glade, Miss Lightfoot, Miss Louise Churchill, Miss Electa Williams, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Lieut. L. McD. Silvester, Lieut. Howard P. Milligan, Lieut. S. H. Wheeler, Lieut. E. G. McCleave, Capt. Samuel S. Creighton, Lieut. Carl Spatz, Lieut. Charles Havercamp and many others.

Matsonia Takes Away Young Folks.
 Already members of the summer set who have made the summer social season in Honolulu such a successful one are leaving for the mainland. This morning the Matsonia carried away a full passenger list and many of those who left the islands are on their way to Eastern colleges. Mrs. E. A. Jones left with her three daughters, Helen, Margaret and Catherine, who will go East for another two years. During their summer in the islands the Jones girls have been the motive for a number of entertainments and as the steamer pulled away from the dock this morning there was a large gathering at the wharf to bid them bon voyage.

Miss Emily Cooke, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooke, and her brother, J. P., Jr., were also among the departing young folks. The Cookes have been entertained extensively this summer and their friends are delighted that they will return again next summer.

Stanley Mott-Smith, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, was another of the collegians going East. Mr. Mott-Smith graduated from Punahou Academy this spring and he is on his way to Cornell, where he will take up a four years' course.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Beckley at Del Monte.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Beckley, who left here early in the spring to spend a year on the mainland, have been heard from recently in Del Monte, where they are spending a few weeks. The San Francisco Chronicle says of them:

"Mr. and Mrs. George C. Beckley of Honolulu arrived at Del Monte in their motor from San Francisco Sunday. Monday morning early, at five o'clock, they went out on Monterey bay to fish for salmon, returning with a big catch. Both Mr. and Mrs. Beckley are enthusiasts on natural sports. Early Tuesday morning they motored out to Del Monte Rancho for a deer hunt, accompanied by Mr. Charles Ingles, who is an expert guide in this part of the woods. The Beckleys regret that they did not plan for more time at Del Monte and less in the mountain region, where they spent most of their time, but say the next time they will plan accordingly. Mr. Beckley also states that Del Monte may expect an exodus from Hawaii in the summers to come. Mrs. Beckley was formerly Miss Campbell of Honolulu and of royal blood."

Dance at the Country Club.

A most successful dance took place at the Oahu Country Club for the members and their guests last evening. A number of people motored in for a dance after the Melba concert. Col. and Mrs. Charles Bromwell's large dinner party for Mrs. Carter Harrison, her sister, Mrs. Heaton Owsley, Miss Edith Harrison and Mrs. McCarthy, motored in for dancing after the delightful party at the Bromwell residence in College Hills.

Luncheon at Haleiwa.
 Mr. John McCandless was host at a delightfully informal luncheon at Haleiwa hotel on Sunday, his guests being Col. and Mrs. Francis M. French, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and Miss Freeman. The guests went swimming in the afternoon and motored back to town at dusk.

Dance at the Meana Hotel.

There was a pleasant dance at the Meana hotel last Monday evening for the guests at the hotel and members of Honolulu society. Madame Melba graced the occasion with her presence.

John Goodman, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Goodman, who has been in Honolulu with his parents and his brother for the past fortnight, sailed for San Francisco in the Matsonia this morning. Mr. Goodman is the coxswain of the Stanford "elekt" which has done such splendid work in the regattas in California and in the East this year, and for the past two years has been assistant yell leader. With the opening of the fall semester at Stanford, however, Mr. Goodman will take his place in the student body as the first yell leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and their son George expect to remain in Honolulu until August 31, when they will leave for the Korea.

Miss Olive Lindsay, of Maui, who has been visiting Miss Dorothy Guild on College street, will return to her home on the Valley Island tomorrow. Miss Lindsay came to Honolulu to hear Madame Melba in her two concerts and during her short stay here has been entertained at a number of informal affairs.

The Misses Orme Sawyer and Louise Sawyer, who have spent the summer in Honolulu, left for their home in San Jose this morning. During their visit to the islands the Sawyer girls have been entertained extensively, and so pleasant was their stay in Honolulu that they plan to return again next year.

Miss Corinda Low, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eben P. Low, will return to the East on September 8. Miss Low has spent two years at Smith's College and she intends to remain there for the completion of her course.

Mr. William W. Webber, who has been visiting in Honolulu for the past month, was a departing passenger in the Matsonia this morning. Mr. Webber expects to camp for two weeks in the Rockies before returning to his home in Boston, Mass., and to resume his studies at Harvard.

Madame Melba and her party motored around the island on Sunday, stopping at Haleiwa for luncheon. The famous prima donna remained in the afternoon to listen to the 4th Cavalry band, which furnished music on the terrace of the hotel grounds.

Frederick Withington, who has spent the summer here, will return to the East in September. Mr. Withington is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Withington. Just when he will return to the islands again has not been decided.

Miss Dorothy Hawk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. S. Hawk, was a returning passenger in the Lurline. Miss Hawk has been visiting a sister in Berkeley, Cal., for a number of months.

Mrs. Buckland and Miss Vivien Buckland were among the outgoing passengers in the Matsonia this morning. They are planning a trip to New York and will return to the islands in three months.

Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Anderson Sloan have spent a number of days at the Haleiwa hotel, and returned this week to their quarters at Fort Shafter.

Judge and Mrs. E. M. Watson and their two charming little daughters, Virginia and Lilly Moore, are spending some time at the Haleiwa hotel.

Miss Irma Wodehouse leaves for Maui on Thursday. She will be gone for a number of months.

Lieut. and Mrs. "Tod" Sloan and their two daughters spent the weekend at Haleiwa.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13. — Cmdr. Reginald R. Belknap of the San Francisco gave a luncheon at Newport in honor of the former ambassador to Berlin, Mr. David Jayne Hill of Washington, and Mrs. Hill. Cmdr. Belknap was Mr. Hill's naval attaché in Berlin. The guests were Rear Admiral and Mrs. French E. Chadwick, Rear Admiral Cameron (McR.) Winslow, Rear Admiral Aust, M. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Basil King, Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Abney, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Colt Josephs, Capt. and Mrs. Roger Welles, Martin Welles, Mrs. Arthur MacArthur, Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott and Lieuts. Isaac C. Bogart and Conrad Ridgley.

The Spanish ambassador and Mme de Riano, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gerry, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mr. Preston Gibson were among the 60 guests entertained by Mrs. Richard Stevens at a dinner and dance at Hilltop Inn, Newport.

The guests were seated at the outer edges of a large square table. In the center was a depressed landscape radiating from a villa which suggested Castle Point, the historic home of the Stevens family in Hoboken, N. J. The villa, the windows of which glowed with light, stood upon an eminence overlooking a miniature Hudson river, upon the surface of which were various river craft in proportionate size. Small evergreen trees softened the inner edges where the landscape joined the table.

The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo arrived at Cornish, N. H., to spend a few days with the President and Miss Wilson. They made the trip by automobile from their summer home at North Haven, Me., in 22 hours.

Dr. Grayson, who has been visiting in Boston, has returned to Harliakenden House, and Miss Claire Batten of New York has arrived on a visit to Miss Margaret Wilson.

The engagement of Miss Olga Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Wiborg of New York and Cincinnati, and well known in this city, where the family has resided, and Mr. Sidney Webster Fish, son of Stuyvesant Fish of New York, whose wife recently died, was announced. Mrs. Wiborg was Miss Adeline Moulton Sherman, daughter of Maj. Hoyt Sherman. No date has been set for the wedding, but it is expected to be an important event of the early winter in New York.

An engagement recently announced in New York of Mr. Herman S. Murray and Miss Susanne Warren, both of that city, is of particular interest in Washington, Mr. Murray being the grandson of the late Mrs. Le Roy, wife of Admiral Le Roy, who was considered one of the most beautiful women of her day and was the daughter of the late Mr. John Bartram North of this city.

Mrs. Joseph H. Moore announces the marriage of her daughter, Gladys Blanchard and Lieut. Channing E. DeLaplaine, 11th United States Infantry.

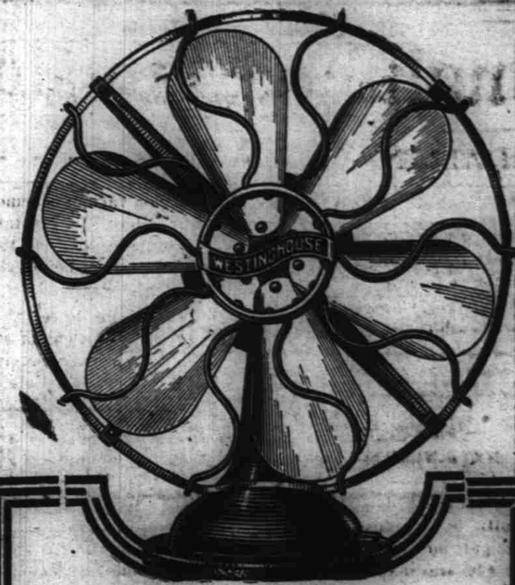

The ceremony took place yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Moore's residence, 1916 G street, the Rev. Robert Talbot, rector of St. Paul's church, officiating. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, Dr. Moore, the ceremony was very quiet and was witnessed by a small family party. The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore a beautiful gown of ivory-tinted satin, adorned with rose point lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The engagement of Miss Louise Wood, daughter of the late Cyrus G. Wood of Worcester, Mass., and Federal Judge Walter Evans of Louisville, Ky., was announced at Pittsfield, Mass. Judge Evans was a former United States commissioner of internal revenue, and was a member of the 54th and 56th congresses. He was appointed to the federal bench by President McKinley in 1899.

NEW FROCKS AT JEFFS' PARLORS

The Jeffs Fashion Co., Inc., has just received new afternoon and evening frocks, also stunning models in tailored suits—just the thing for those expecting to visit the San Francisco fair. Rooms 302-303 Hawaiian Trust Bldg., 116 King st.—Adv.

Regular commercial communication by wireless between Honolulu and Japan, to open on October 1, is promised in a cable message from the Japanese department of the Marconi system to the Hawaii Shipco. The distance over which the messages will travel is 3400 miles.

The Way to Buy Breeze

In the stores and offices, the use of electric fans is now considered as important as proper lighting and heating.

It is a recognized fact that breeze, when needed, makes customers shop easier, and employees work better.

Electric fans for business uses should meet every demand of economy, efficiency and long life.

The Westinghouse Fan is up-to-date in every detail.

There are twelve different styles of Westinghouse Fans to choose from. Each comes complete with cord and connection.

Hawaiian Electric Co.,
 Phone 3431

Crater Hotel, Volcano, Hawaii

Special ten-day excursion by Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., leaving Honolulu every Saturday afternoon and returning Monday afternoon. Eight days at Hotel. All expenses paid for $48, including steamer transportation, automobile from Hilo to Hotel and return, and Hotel expenses.

The Crater House is situated in the heart of all interesting walks, etc. For information see our Honolulu agents, the Wells-Fargo & Co. Express.

Oriental Goods

Silk and Cotton Crepe Kimonos

Hotel St., near Nuuanu.

YOU CAN TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS!

We furnish tables, chairs and every equipment for social gatherings of all kinds, as well as the necessary ICE CREAM, CONFECTIONS, ETC. For select parties we have special ice cream moulds of many designs, initial moulds, card characters, etc., for distinctive service. These moulds are serving as place cards at many social functions. Our products are the best and the prices are lower. Bear us in mind when preparing for that next entertainment. We also maintain an excellent cafe. Try it for your meals.

THE PALACE OF SWEETS

"The Oasis Beautiful"
 King and Maunakea Streets A good place to stop to and from market or depot. Phone 1486