BRYANISMS.

Progressive may be defined as a Re-cession in favor of any progressive policy of France as well as of the Democratic party.

Col. L. C. Dyer—it's really Leonidas Carstaphen Dyer—who has just been elected commander-in-chief of the Spanish War Veterans at their encampment in Scranton, visited Honolulu last spring with the congressional party.

Not all of those in the crowds that watch the salvaging and search of the F-4 are moved by morbid interest. Some appear to be moved by sympathy; others by casual curiosity to see what a submarine looks like out of water, particularly one that has been badly battered; but for the most part the interest is anything but normal.

AT THE DARDANELLES.

Nowhere in all the arenas of war is the cloak of censorship drawn more tightly over the Allies' operations than at the Dardanelles.

MAKING MOST OF FEW DAYS LEFT AT "Y" CAMP

Registrations for the entire week-end are limited. Those who are planning to come down for the holiday on Monday would do well to call at the office of the Y. W. C. A., second floor of the Castle & Cooke building, and inquire about rates on the auto truck which will go down in the morning and return in the afternoon if there are a sufficient number who would prefer an auto ride.

Many Leaders Line Up For Sugar Duty

By C. S. ALBERT. (Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, August 18.—Legislation looking to the restoration of a protective duty on refined sugar is daily being discussed by public men with growing interest and seriousness. The only material difference from the old system appears to be that the word "protective" will be swatted and "revenue" substituted for that obnoxious idea.

As the weeks pass the necessity for imposing such taxes as will produce adequate funds for maintaining the government becomes more self-evident. This is privately admitted by officials of the treasury department and members of congress generally.

The sale of Panama canal bonds would afford but temporary relief. The continuation of war taxes is considered essential from every viewpoint, without reference to other contingencies. Any increase in the number of articles taxed, or the sum levied, would create ill feeling and storm of criticism. This would prove detrimental in the campaign of next year.

It is conceded on all sides that some method must be devised to bring more money into the Treasury and this cannot be accomplished by economy. In addition, some leeway must be allowed for increases in the army and navy. Popular sentiment throughout the country is becoming such as to indicate that the expenses for these establishments must be materially augmented.

Sugar affords the easiest plan for bringing in from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 a year and this would be a welcome item at the present time. It would not be a sufficient amount to prevent a deficit, while the European war continues at least, but it would be a great help. The number of senators and representatives who advocate a restoration of the duty on sugar, with the qualification that it is for "revenue" purposes only, is daily increasing. Many of these are outspoken in their sentiments, while others prefer to await developments until congress actually assembles.

BILLS OCTOROONS ON ZONE AS OF ROYAL FAMILY OF HAWAII

A. P. Taylor Sends Withering Letter to Manager of Alleged Hawaiian Show at Frisco

In the belief of A. P. Taylor, acting secretary of the Promotion Committee, the alleged Hawaiian show at the exposition is really not a Hawaiian show at all, and so firm is Mr. Taylor in this opinion that he is putting forth every effort to rid the exposition grounds of the "attraction."

Comments from Honolulu people who have visited at the fair, and who have witnessed the Hawaiian show in the amusement zone, have led Mr. Taylor to an investigation of the conditions that exist there, and his investigations have led him to feel that the sooner the show is removed, the better it will be for Hawaii and common decency.

In reply to a letter that Mr. Taylor sent to H. L. Leavitt, manager of the Hawaiian show, the latter has stated his view of the matter in no uncertain terms, and tries to put the Promotion Committee man "right" on the question.

"For your information," says Mr. Leavitt, "we wish to state that we are staging a dance known as the Hula-Hula dance. We have endeavored at all times to make this dance as faithful a reproduction of the original as possible, except that we have adopted certain modifications out of deference to the prejudices of a few individuals, and in order that there might be no possible grounds for complaint or criticism."

"We were forced to discontinue the services of some of the original members of the company," continues Mr. Leavitt, "and it may be that several performances were given which were not up to the standard we wish to maintain, but everything is now working smoothly and satisfactorily. Several members of one of the most intelligent audiences we have had, approached us last Sunday, August 15, and voluntarily stated that they were pleased with the performance and had no criticism to offer except that they thought in yielding to possible prejudice we had gone a little too far in the matter of propriety."

In reply to Mr. Leavitt's letter, and warmed by a letter he had just received from H. P. Wood, who is at the exposition and who had taken occasion to describe some of the "disgraceful features of the Hawaiian show," Mr. Taylor made reply in part, as follows:

"I will call your attention to some other facts. Your Barker or ballyhoo artist announces to the passing crowds that the real hula dance will be given in the lower theater, because it is in what he calls, its original state. You also parade on a platform alongside the Barker, several performers whom you call Hawaiians. I understand that the majority of these people at least are not Hawaiians, but Octoroons, and even Filipinos. Your Barker misrepresents facts in a very glaring manner when he says that this and that performer is a descendant of members of the royal family of Hawaii, that one is Prince So-and-so, and the other Princess So-and-so, and that they are compelled to give their national dance because they have been reduced to poverty."

Referring to the audience mentioned by Mr. Leavitt, Mr. Taylor remarks that he does not know who was in the audience, but that such persons could not have been from the Hawaiian Islands.

"It is certainly quite odd," continued Mr. Taylor, "that every islander who has gone to your place comes away disgusted, and returns here with statements that it is a vulgar exhibit, and in no wise Hawaiian at all."

"At the other end of the exposition grounds," concludes the letter, "we have a $100,000 Hawaiian building showing Hawaii as it is."

LITTLE INTEL NEWS

—J. D. LEVENSON: Every member of the Honolulu Ad Club is expected to be present at the Liberty theater tonight. "The Ad Club film," "Mr. Noad's Address Day," will be on the screen and is well worth seeing. Come one, come all.

—REV. DAVID C. PETERS: The Star-Bulletin is certainly a well-known paper on the mainland. At Atlantic City I ran across one of those chaps who sells you your "home paper" no matter where you're from. I asked him "Have you any Honolulu papers?" and he immediately said "The Star-Bulletin? Sure!" and I got it right away.

—MISS LUCY K. WARD, secretary of the Humane Society: I want to pay a tribute to the Pa'ama nurse for the splendid work which they are doing on all sides. They have given me help in innumerable cases where children are hurt or sick. The nurses do not receive enough attention from the public; it is a case of good work rewarding itself, I suppose.

—ROBERT HORNER: I intend to vote with the rest of the supervisors on the matter of smoking in the assembly hall at board meetings. I happen to be the only one of the seven who does not smoke, but I do not want to seem selfish enough to vote against the others when it comes to striking out the clause which says there shall be no smoking. If a man enjoys a cigar, why, I say, let him have it there.

—JOHN MARTIN: While all this agitation concerning the purchase of playgrounds is going on, it would be well for the city officials to recall the statement made by Raymond Robbins several years ago, that the city of Chicago had had to pay four or five times as much for its playgrounds as it would have had to pay had the purchase been made a few years sooner. Honolulu ought to buy now before the price goes any higher.

HOLLAND BOTHERED BY MANY DANGEROUS MINES ALONG SHORE

THE HAGUE, Netherlands.—The secretary of the Dutch navy has issued a special proclamation expressing his appreciation of the work done thus far by the Dutch naval mine layers, whose duty since the European war began has largely been the removal of the mines of other nations which are blown into Dutch territorial waters. More than a dozen of the men have been killed in performing the risky operation of blowing up these mines or taking them apart.

Altogether 234 mines of foreign origin have been washed upon Dutch ground and put out of harm's way.

TAKE TWO DAYS TO PROBE FATAL OIL EXPLOSION

As the result of a two-day investigation, a coroner's jury summoned by Deputy Sheriff Julius Asch has returned verdicts in the cases of Carl Erlich, Anto Schieber and Ralph Harrub, who lost their lives as the result of an explosion and fire in a distillate tank at Iwilei, owned by the Standard Oil Company, last Thursday morning.

In each case, the coroner's jury reports that the cause of the accident is unknown to it.

The verdicts follow:

"Ralph Harrub, a native of Santa Clara County, Cal., aged 21 years, died August 27 at the Queen's hospital. Cause of death—extreme burns of the body received through the explosion of a distillate tank . . . the cause of the explosion is to this jury unknown."

"Carl Erlich, a native of Munich, Germany, aged 32 years, died August 26 at the Queen's hospital. Cause—extreme burns of the body received through the explosion of a distillate tank . . . the cause of the explosion is to this jury unknown."

"Anton Schieber, a native of Verdun, Hanover, Germany, aged 35 years, died August 26 at the Queen's hospital. Cause—rupture of the liver caused by a fall from the top of a distillate tank . . . after an explosion in the said tank, the fall caused by the said explosion."

The verdicts were signed by Deputy Sheriff Asch and Horace N. Crabbe, Henry Cook, J. T. Copeland, J. D. Elson, J. C. Cluney and D. M. Dushalsky, members of the jury.

"Of course, no attempt was made by the jury to fix the blame," said the deputy sheriff today.
