

STRANGE MAKES BIG SUCCESS OF DAY FOR HAWAII

Delegates to Gas Convention Given Idea of What Islands Really Look Like

Hawaii afternoon, given to the members of the International Gas Congress of more than 600 delegates Friday, October 1, at the Hawaii building in the exposition, was a great success, according to letters which arrived on the Matsonia this morning.

"Harry Strange, manager of the Honolulu Gas Company, who managed the affair, was enthusiastic in his work and made it a big thing for everyone present," says H. P. Wood in a letter.

The big afternoon was preceded by a banquet at the inside lun on Thursday, where hundreds of the delegates were present.

Harry Strange had arranged with the Marconi Company to erect antennae over the building and send a receiver down to the head of the big banquet table.

During the banquet a huge calabash marked with a great coat of arms was presented in the name of Hawaii and the Honolulu Gas Company to the Pacific Coast Gas Association. It was received with great applause and was given into the keeping of Mrs. E. C. Jones, wife of the president of the association. Hardly had the excitement concluded after the presentation when the wireless burst out.

Extra headpieces to listen to the "overseas" message were distributed to several of the guests and the message from Governor Pinkham extending the hospitality of Hawaii to the delegates was received with continuous and loud applause.

The result of the Hawaiian features of the big banquet was that the Hawaiian afternoon the following day was attended by practically everyone. Strange endeavored to give them a taste of Hawaii as it is. There was real Hawaiian music and dancing and the building was decorated profusely in the native fashion with paper leis and flowers.

It was the first time that many of the eastern delegates had seen anything of this nature and their enthusiasm was boundless. The leis were carefully treasured by all the guests. In the middle of the afternoon a pineapple lunch was served with Kona coffee.

Such was the success of the occasion that all the delegates were enthusiastic over Strange's proposal to bring the gas congress to Hawaii in 1917.

"I could have brought them here for 1914," writes Strange, "were it not that since the withdrawal of the Pacific Mail many of the members felt that communication with Hawaii would be uncertain until other lines were built up. It is very opportune that the Great Northern is about to be put on the run as I am perfectly confident that if there were a sure and steady means of travel to and from Honolulu vast crowds of tourists would leave the coast for the islands every year. The trip is so long, however, that tourists do not like to take the journey if they feel any uncertainty about the lines of travel."

GIRLS! BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR AND STOP DANDRUFF

Hair Becomes Charming, Wavy Lustrous and Thick in Few Moments

Every Bit of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

For 25 cents you can save your hair. In less than ten minutes you can double its beauty. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and charming as a young girl's after applying some Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knewlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—Adv.

"I had no thought of leaving Petaluma until three weeks ago," said Rev. Mr. Loofbourow, when interviewed by a Star-Bulletin reporter off quarantine before the ship docked, "but now I am certainly glad I have come, and am eager to begin my new duties as a minister the minute I get ashore."

CITY PLANNING BOARD APPROVED BY SUPERVISORS

Honolulu's new city planning commission was announced to the board of supervisors last night, and received votes of all the members except William Larsen, who voted against the approval. The commission is as follows: Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Arthur F. Wall, Walter F. Dillingham and Delegate J. K. Kalamannoe. The appointment of the two women members of the commission was made public several days ago by the mayor.

According to the city planning ordinance, which is known as Ordinance 90, the officers of the commission are to be elected by the commission itself. The ordinance says that "immediately upon their appointment, the members shall organize the commission and shall elect a president and secretary."

As Mrs. Dowsett is the first named on the commission, it is likely that she will call the commission together for the purpose of organization. In naming the commission to the board last night, Mayor Lane sent along a letter concerning the need of beautifying the city along artistic lines.

THOUSANDS BARE HEADS TO HONOR VICTIMS OF F-4

High Officials of Army and Navy Attend Funeral Services at Arlington

"Full military honors today were accorded fourteen unidentified victims who lost their lives when the United States submarine F-4 mysteriously sank at the entrance to Honolulu harbor some months ago," says the Washington Star of September 23, copies of which reached Honolulu today.

Their dismembered bodies, in four coffins, were buried in the Arlington national cemetery this morning, the services being attended by high officials of the navy and others. As the flag-draped caissons were drawn along Pennsylvania avenue from the Washington navy yard to Arlington thousands of civil war veterans and others attending the Grand Army of the Republic encampment lined the street and uncovered their heads in reverence.

"The funeral escort was composed of all the regular troops and blue-jackets in this vicinity. Commander W. D. Leahy, U. S. N., was in command. Religious services at the cemetery were conducted by Chaplains M. C. Gleason, attached to the Newport training station, and J. B. Frazier, at-
