Theatrical & Amusements

FITCH PLAY AND ELAINE SERIAL

Clyde Fitch's forestal drama, "The Moth and the Flame," which established the name of that playwright among the leaders in the United States, is offered in picturized form as the early week feature at the Liberty theater. Last night it was witnessed by the usual Sunday night crowd, which packed the big Nuuanu street house to the doors. In addition was shown the 24th episode of "The Exploits of Elaine," which serial is rapidly drawing to a close and which is, incidentally, becoming more exciting as the end nears.

'PEACHES' IS NEW TEAL OFFERING

"If you want to get in the running just go to the races tonight at the Bijou theater," says the advance man for the Teal Ducklings. Peaches is the name of the horse to play. It is also the name of a clever and interesting musical comedy.

The Raymond Teal company will present it at popular prices, and Hazel Lake, the clever little soubrette with the "pep," will play the leading role, also entitled "Peaches." Miss Lake, besides playing this part with a vivacity hard to rival, also does a number of song numbers that are said to be far ahead of those yet presented. Novelty is the keynote of the new Teal offering. Every member of the company has something exceptional to do.

BLAMES MODERN DRESS AS CAUSE OF NEW ILLS OF JAPANESE WOMEN

Noted surgeon pleads with them to adhere to kimonos, and avoid Western styles. TOKIO, Japan.—Dr. Baron K. Takagi, surgeon of the Japanese navy and member of the House of Peers, does not agree with Mrs. Akiko Yosano, the noted writer, that the women of Japan should adopt the foreign style of dress in order that the race may become stronger both physically and intellectually. He advises the women to stay in their kimono, believing it more healthful and incidentally more beautiful. He is instinctively the enemy of the present day craze in Japan to take over the manners and customs of the West.

This scientific-detective series of pictures, is winning fresh glory for himself in his newly chosen field, as is demonstrated by the story which preceded the film in each Saturday's edition of the Star-Bulletin. The film proves much more enjoyable when witnessed after reading the fascinating story.

THREE KINDS OF MUSIC HEARD AT CLUB'S CONCERT

Three varieties of music, Oriental, Occidental and Hawaiian, filled the opera house with melody Saturday night, when the Japanese Glee Club gave a concert which was enjoyed by a large number of Japanese and numerous Americans.

Following the music of Dai Nippon, George Casper, the well-known solo violinist of this city, was heard in several numbers, ably accompanied by Miss Edith Gattfield. Mr. Casper played the Meditation from Thais, and the Pierrot Serenade. Later on the program he gave Smetana's Fantasia Number II. Mr. Casper showed both sympathetic interpretation and great technical ability.

WHITE SLAVE FILM IS GOING TO COAST

For but a limited engagement "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic," the Sociological Research Association's expose of the dealings of the traffic, returned to the Hawaii theater last night and was witnessed by two large and appreciative audiences.

"Margaret Smith" died at her home in Beaver Falls, Pa., of heart disease, caused by fright when a rat jumped on her shoulder from a cupboard.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick. When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

Another popular feature of the evening was the Hawaiian music by George Mossman, who presented several ukulele specialties, which were heartily enjoyed. The Japanese performers taking part included the Glee Club, geisha girls, Beyu, Komatsu and Ichiko and Almeida.

The club realized a considerable sum. All tickets were sold 24 hours before the concert.

TEUTONS WORRY OVER SCARCITY OF CLERGYMEN

BERLIN.—The perennial subject of the scarcity of clergymen has recently been enlivened by somebody's suggestion that wounded officers who are no longer able to serve at the front take up the study of theology. To this proposal, however, the objection is raised that "the office of a clergyman requires a spiritual endowment seldom to be found in officers, else they would never have yielded to their desire to become officers."

SUNDAY MOVIES GET HARD BLOW ON MAUI

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent) MAUI, Oct. 15.—By refusing to grant the Pioneer Hotel company license to give Sunday night moving picture shows, the Maui county board of supervisors at their last meeting met the issue after side-stepping it for several months.
