OCEANIC VESSELS BOOKED FULL FOR YEAR

Bringing 102 passengers and 337 sacks of mail to this port from San Francisco, the Oceanic steamer Ventura arrived at 7:45 o'clock this morning and docked at Pier 10. She sails for Pago-Pago and Sydney at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Only a handful of first-class passengers, 15, is left to continue the voyage to Australia. The Ventura brought 90 first-class, four second and eight third-class passengers to Honolulu. Through passengers are 15 first-class, 29 second and seven third class.

Among the notables who got off here are Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Grant, Jr. The Grants are one of the most prominent families of San Diego and New York. Mr. Grant is a large stockholder in the U. S. Grant hotel, one of the finest and largest hotels of San Diego, and a grandson of President U. S. Grant.

Freight for this port was 35 tons of cold storage goods, but for Australia the ship has a capacity cargo of 2700 tons. Purser Robert S. Acheson stated that steamers of the Oceanic line are booked full with freight from San Francisco to Australia for a year and a half.

Need More Passengers.
"If a shipper in San Francisco wanted to ship freight by our line," he said, "the best we could do for him would be to promise him that we could take it about a year from this coming Christmas. If passenger business would come to us in the same proportion that freight is, we would have three fine new boats running within the next year."

Most of the through cargo consists of general merchandise, machinery and various articles of manufacture for the states.

All of the six "bridal suites" were filled coming over. The charge for occupancy of these suites is $100 extra fare. Eight theatrical people are also on board, booked for engagements at Australian theaters.

Capt. J. H. Dawson, the ship's commander, reported that the Sierra will resume service December 7, as scheduled. The Ventura is the first ship to reach this port under the Oceanic's 1915-1916 schedule, published some time ago. The Ventura, on her return December 3, will be the first boat to begin carrying mail from the postoffice to the coast, under the new contract.

PACIFIC MAIL HEAD DECLARES M'ADOO IS WRONG ON SUSPENSION

Reiterating his original statement that the Pacific Mail was forced out of transpacific business because of the Seamen's Act, President Julius Kruttschnitt of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, who is also chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific, has issued a statement in reply to criticisms of the Pacific Mail's action made by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo in a recent speech at Indianapolis.

That the Seamen's Act compels the employment of white men at a salary many times as high as that paid for Oriental crews is charged by Mr. Kruttschnitt, who says, as concerns the language clause of the act: "The practical effect of this clause still is to subject American ships, which must have American officers, to the hopeless disadvantage of competing with Japanese ships which employ labor at wages five or six times in excess of those paid Oriental seamen, and at a daily cost of feeding four times in excess of their competitors."

S. Asano, Jr., son of President S. Asano of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, is to return to San Francisco and complete his steamship training under William H. Avery, assistant general manager of the T. K. K.'s affairs. Young Asano is a university graduate.

The Mexican steamer Gen. Y. Pesqueira is due daily from Everett, Wash., for Australia. She takes bunkers here from the Inter-Island.

VENTURA STOWAWAY IN COLD STORAGE 60 HOURS
No trouble about keeping cool was encountered by Robert Brown, a stowaway who hid in a number two ice-house of the Ventura just before the ship left San Francisco. He wanted to go to Sydney, but his voyage ended here this morning, when Special Harbor Officer A. E. Carter escorted him to jail after the ship docked.

When the storekeeper of the Ventura went into the refrigerator Wednesday morning to get some eggs for breakfast, he discovered Brown, chilled through, his teeth clicking like castanets. The man was taken on deck to thaw out.

Brown stowed away in the ice-house at midnight Monday and remained there until discovered Wednesday morning. As the temperature of this cold-storage compartment is always around 40 degrees, he did not have a particularly pleasant experience. Brown claims to be an American, and gave his home as Chicago. He will be sent back to San Francisco on the next Oceanic boat.

October's record is 11 vessels less than September, when 55 ships arrived. In August there were 50, July 58, and June 59. Eight passenger steamers came in from San Francisco and one from Vancouver last month. Eleven ships arrived for bunkers, one less than in September.

Brother of Dog at Seamen's Home Is In Trenches

Letter to H. Davies Tells of Scrap With Invading Canine From German Lines

While "Mickey," the little fuzzy-haired Scotch-Irish terrier belonging to H. Davies, cook of the schooner J. M. Weatherwax, is taking life easy at the Seamen's Home, the dog's brother, "Dooley," is helping his master fight for the Allies in the trenches of the European war zone.

Word reached Davies a few days ago that "Dooley" recently climbed over the trenches, sought out a dog from the German lines, and fought him to a standstill. For this, the plucky terrier was cheered frantically by the regiment, and presented with a little wooden medal as a reward of valor.

When informed of his brother's prowess, "Mickey" became so swelled up with pride that he proceeded to sink his teeth into a gigantic dog of Teutonic appearance living next door to the institute. He came off second best, but the thought that "Dooley" had so distinguished himself, helped to ease his wounds. "Mickey" has been here since the Weatherwax put into port a few weeks ago in a leaking condition.

"Mickey" is the pet of all the sailors at the Seamen's Home, but particularly of the Weatherwax's cook, Davies says the little terrier and himself will never part company.

HARBOR NOTES

Charles Kurst, first mate of the schooner Defender, fell overboard and was drowned October 18, one day after the boat had left San Francisco for Papeete.

The U. S. army transport Logan is expected to arrive Thursday from the Orient. It will sail in the afternoon for San Francisco.

While the Great Northern is on the Honolulu run, her sister ship, the Northern Pacific, will maintain a four-day schedule between San Francisco and Flavel.

A good-sized shipment of mail, 337 sacks, arrived this morning on the Oceanic steamer Ventura. The Mauna, due tomorrow morning, will bring 109 bags.

Next mail for San Francisco leaves tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the T. K. K. steamer Shinyo Maru, which arrived this afternoon. Mails close at 7:30 at the postoffice.

After an illness of two years, Allan M. Sutton, traffic manager of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, died October 18 at San Francisco. He was 55 years old.

The American-Hawaiian steamer Floridan was launched October 16 by the Maryland Steel Company. The ship is 428 by 53 by 31 1/2 feet, the largest ever built at that shipyard.

With almost a million feet of lumber on board the schooner Robert Lewers arrived yesterday afternoon from Grays Harbor. She brought 973,550 feet of lumber for Lewers & Cooke, and docked at Pier 2.

Purser Akau of the Inter-Island steamer Kinau, which arrived yesterday morning, reports 1800 bags of Wagsugar awaiting shipment at Kaula, the Kinau brought in a miscellaneous cargo.

Captain Wilson and all the officers of the Rufford Hall except the third officer have been saved, according to mail advices from Tokyo, which state that the ship was wrecked after going ashore near Hakodate, and that only one man, the third officer, was lost.

Advices from the coast state that the Alaska Steamship Company has purchased for $375,000, from the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, the steamer Kansas City, which was reported as under consideration by the Union Line to take the Sierra's run.

SHINYO MARU COMING IN THREE HOURS LATE

Radio advices received this morning by Castle & Cooke, local agents for the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, stated that the T. K. K. liner Shinyo Maru would be off port at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, and would dock at Pier 7 between 4 and 4:30.

Baron Shibuzawa, one of Japan's most wealthy and representative capitalists, is on board, also numerous other men of importance in the Orient. The Shinyo probably will not sail for San Francisco until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning owing to getting in three hours late. She was expected at 1 o'clock this afternoon and was to have sailed at 2 tomorrow morning.

KELLOGG SURVIVORS WILL BE SENT OVER TO COAST WEDNESDAY

On board the Matson steamer Wilhelmina when she sails for San Francisco at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning will be Capt. Charles A. Lunn, Mrs. Lunn and six of the wrecked American schooner O. M. Kellogg's crew.

Acting Collector of Customs Raymer Sharp announced today that he has decided the crew are American seamen within the meaning of the act providing for relief of shipwrecked sailors of American vessels, and as such are entitled to transportation to their home port.

"One of the crew wants to stay here," said Mr. Sharp this morning, "and the first mate, S. G. Treator, has already left. This leaves only eight persons to be given transportation to the coast by the government. They will sail on the Wilhelmina Wednesday morning." The O. M. Kellogg was wrecked September 25 on Maro Reef.
