ITALIAN AND AUSTRIAN REPORTS CONFLICT ON ANCONA SINKING

Rome's Statement Small Boats Were Shelled Denied By Vienna

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—The official Austrian report of the sinking of the Ancona was made yesterday in Vienna, being received here in the press despatches by way of Berlin. This report, officially announced by the Austrian admiralty, states that the Ancona, after a warning shot had been fired across her bows by the Austrian submarine, put on full speed and attempted to escape, disregarding the warning. The submarine opened fire on the liner and sent several shells into her before she was brought to a stop, when the firing ceased. The commander was given 45 minutes during which to take off his passengers and crew and abandon his ship. It was not until the last boatload of persons had pushed away from the liner's side that a torpedo was fired at her. The liner sank three-quarters of an hour after the torpedo had been fired on her side.

Italy has diplomatic relations. The official communication, delivered by the Italian ambassador to Secretary Lansing yesterday, which is the same as sent to the governments of all neutral countries, denies that the Ancona carried arms or contraband, on her last or any other trip, and declares that there were no circumstances whatever justifying the attack upon her. The liner was fired upon repeatedly, with no attempt to give her an opportunity to surrender. The submarine swept her decks with its shells, fired repeatedly at her wireless house and attempted to bring down her wireless antenna, while even the lifeboats were shelled, both when they were being filled with women and children preparatory to lowering them and after they were in the water and were being pulled away from the ship. Small Boats Smashed, Says Rome. Many of the passengers after their small boats had been smashed by the shell fire who swam to the submarine to save their lives were repelled with force. "Thus two hundred died," says the report in conclusion. There were 10 Americans as passengers aboard the Ancona, according to the official figures given out by the Italian emigration bureau yesterday, and of these only one was saved. Altogether the liner carried 507 persons. Of these 208 either were killed by the Austrian shellfire or lost their lives by drowning.

OFFENSIVE BEGUN IN WAR ARENA AGAINST VILLA; NACO EVACUATED

Carranzistas in Force Start Out to Crush Power of Rebel Chief

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] DOUGLAS, Arizona, Nov. 16.—With the arrival of General Obregon at Agua Prieta and the addition to the force under General Calles of the reinforcements coming by way of the United States, the Carranzistas have begun their active campaign for the final elimination of Villa and his dwindling army. The Carranzista cavalry yesterday entered and occupied Naco, Sonora, unopposed, the Villistas falling back and evacuating the town when the advance guard of the Carranza force appeared. A Carranza force of 5000 men, with 16 field pieces, has left Agua Prieta, supposedly to intercept the Villistas, who are falling back upon Cananea.

BULGARS GET SET-BACK IN SOUTHERN SERBIA

PARIS, France, Nov. 14.—While the Serbians, in their mountain positions, have succeeded in bringing the advance and throwing back the assaults in fierce counter attacks, the Anglo-French forces in Southern Serbia and Bulgarian Macedonia have inflicted a series of crushing defeats upon the Bulgarians. Yesterday, in a series of assaults, the Anglo-French drove the Bulgarians from Hill 550, a strong strategic position between Radvovo and Strumitza, and also seized and occupied Hill 516 which dominates the pass through which the Doljan-Strumitza railroad line runs, thus cutting off the Bulgarian retreat over the road. Bulgars Lost Heavily. Equally severe were the Bulgarian losses at Stokovo and Glasovitsa, into which the French first drove the Bulgarians and then practically surrounded them, only a remnant of the regiments escaping.

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 15.—The army transport Logan, en route from Honolulu, reports heavy weather with great head seas sweeping over her. Yesterday a member of the crew, Seaman Ernest Murray, was swept overboard and drowned.

FORTY-ONE INCHES OF RAINFALL IN ELEVEN DAYS ON BIG ISLAND

Streets Running Rivers, Basements Flooded and Swamps Are Like Real Seas

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) HILO, Nov. 13.—Stories of heavy rainfall come every hour into town and there is no doubt that the storm now raging is the worst for 14 years or so. In 1902 there were tremendous rains along the coast from Hilo—both ways—and in that year roads were washed out and travel was made impossible between the plantations located on opposite sides of the many gulches. Oldtimers declare that the rain of the past week has been heavier than ever before recorded and, judging from the look of things, they must be correct. Eleven inches of rain in 12 hours in Papakou's record for Wednesday last. The water came down in blasts that shook the buildings and there was no keeping it out as it was forced through every crack by the high wind that accompanied the rain. From November 1 to November 11, inclusive, 41.21 inches of rain have fallen at Papakou at the 350 feet elevation. In Hilo the low-lying parts were flooded and many buildings had water covering their lower floors. All cellars and basements were full of water and at the back of the Empire theater there was water four feet deep. The Waiolana Swamp looked like the Mediterranean—minus a submarine or two—and the locality in which the Matano hotel stands was a sea of water. At the One Mile post there was a flood, and at the Four Miles bridge a sea of water was to be seen. All the basements of the city stores along Park street were pretty well flooded and some places looked like the streets of Venice. Hackfeld & Co.'s basement was full of water and had to be pumped out by the fire department. The Waikuku river was higher than for many years past and the highest point of the island in the stream was just washed on Wednesday evening. Rainbow Falls presented a wonderful sight and the spray from the falling water was shot up into the air like a cloud of steam for hundreds of feet. Rain is reported from all the outside districts of East Hawaii and the steamers making the trip from Honolulu are reported to have not been able to see land for most of the voyage. The rain records seem certain to beat every record of years past. In Hilo the rain resembled a cloud, burst on Monday last and the water came down as if a reservoir had burst in the sky. The streets were rushing streams and good old Frank Gulch once more took on the appearance of a sea of muddy water. At the Four Miles post on the Olan road the water soon covered the bridge and its approach to a depth of some feet. At Olan there was very heavy rain and everything got a good soaking. At Honouliuli two and one-half inches fell in 12 hours and Papakou got half an inch more in the same period. At Hoonaha three inches fell in 10 hours and the same amount in the same time was recorded at Kukulanihale. Dr. Shatto of Pau On Ranch came to town on Tuesday and upon being asked if he had been washed out of the ranch replied that it almost amounted to that, as tremendous rain fell on the pasture. The doctor added that the soaking will do a tremendous amount of good and that the grass is springing so fast that one can "hear it grow." Eleven inches of rain fell in 24 hours at the ranch—and it is still raining there.

CATHOLICS DECLARE RECOGNITION OF CARRANZA INSULT TO CHURCH

President Bitterly Scored for Part in Indorsing De Facto Government

NEW ORLEANS, La.—The Morning Star, "the official Catholic journal of the Archdiocese of New Orleans and the Diocese of Savannah" and regarded as the mouthpiece of the Catholic clergy of the entire South, publishes an editorial which reads in part as follows: Venustiano Carranza, the bandit, the cut-throat, the outlaw, the avowed persecutor of the Catholic church, the robber and despoiler of her sanctuaries, schools, convents and hospitals, the murderer of priests, the leader of vandals, whose nameless butragas and indignities to pure, consecrated nuns and defenseless women and children show the vicious darkness of his soul; Venustiano Carranza, whose name must ever stand for all that is blackest and vilest and most degrading in the pages of Mexican history, has been recognized by the President of the United States as ruler of the distracted Mexican republic. Wilson's Choice From the First. We say the President of the United States because this recognition of Carranza is Mr. Wilson's direct work. From the moment of his assumption of the reins of the government of this country it became plainly evident to every close observer of the trend of events that Carranza was Mr. Wilson's choice among the rebel lords. The occupation of Vera Cruz by American forces instead of the port, here insult was offered to the American flag—which occupation facilitated the importation of arms to Carranza. The long drawn out policy of "watchful waiting" and the aid this materially and morally given by the Administration to the vile, and nuns were murdered and outraged, defenseless women and children were violated, Catholic church property confiscated and the very blood hounds of hell let loose against the church, its sons and daughters—all this the Administration at Washington calmly contemplated, "waiting, watching, waiting" without a word of protest or lifting its hand to protect even American citizens thus dishonored and maltreated; and finally the withdrawal of the American troops from Vera Cruz, the giving Carranza and his so-called Constitutionalists a free hand to continue their ruthless persecution of Catholics, makes up the history of the two bitter years in which the 18,000,000 Catholics of this country have patiently waited and pleaded with the Administration for justice for their suffering brethren. "An insult to Catholics." Mr. Wilson's recognition of Carranza, the avowed enemy of the Catholic church, is an insult to the Catholics of this country. It is a direct challenge to them, and we hope that not only Catholics but every true lover of religious freedom, for which the glorious flag of our country stands, will give him such an open answer as the polls as will prove to him that no President of the United States can so flagrantly ignore the lawful and respectful request of 18,000,000 fellow citizens without paying the penalty. This is the only way open to Catholics in which they can take up the gauntlet thrown down by the President of the United States. It is the only way in which all true lovers of religious freedom, irrespective of creed, can show to the Administration at Washington how they revere and are determined to uphold this fundamental principle of the American Constitution.

Kovaev and Gallwitz, after days of bloody fighting, have thrown the Serbs back along their whole front, taking 1773 prisoners and quantities of supplies in Russia, on the Volhynia front, in the Volhynia, the Germans have pierced the Russian lines, taking 1505 prisoners and compelling the Slavs to fall back.

HINDENBERG RETREATS FROM RIGA LINE

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 14.—Despatches to the Times from its Petrograd correspondent confirm previous despatches concerning the total collapse of von Hindenberg's costly campaign against Dvinsk and Riga. The Germans are now falling back steadily upon the Kovno-Vilna line, with the Russian offensive making the German retreat a bloody one. The Russians are capturing many prisoners, stragglers from the main army, small detachments left to hold certain positions as cover for forces and numbers taken in the general fighting. The Germans are said to be much dispirited, having suffered greatly in the cold of the past few weeks and having fought during the recent assaults upon the Russian lines with out hope of victory.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILD

Mother's can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered. When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

The raider was captured by the U.S. Navy on Nov. 11, and the crew was taken to Mare Island. The raider was captured by the U.S. Navy on Nov. 11, and the crew was taken to Mare Island.

IRELAND HUMS WITH ACTIVITY AT PLANTS FOR MAKING MUNITIONS

One Hundred and Seventy Concerns Turning Out Supplies for Allies' Armies

(By Associated Press.) DUBLIN, Ireland—Ireland is now at work on a large scale in the manufacture of munitions of war. For several years past there has been only one large Irish factory of war material, Kynoch's in County Wicklow. It is an off-shoot of the Birmingham firm of which Arthur Chamberlain, brother of the famous English statesman, was the head. But the necessities of the war have in Ireland, as in England, turned other trades into the munitions business. When the demand was made in Great Britain for a great extension of the manufacture of all sorts of war materials, Mr. Redmond saw to it that Ireland should have a share in the scheme. Representatives of Mr. Lloyd George's new department came over to Ireland and got into touch with leading business men in Dublin and throughout the country. The Dublin chamber of commerce gave active assistance and formed a special munitions committee. The work is now well in hand and no less than one hundred and seventy firms in Ireland are engaged in it. Large orders have been placed in Dublin, and one firm has got an order for twenty thousand pounds, a small figure on the general scale of this war, but a good deal of money for a city where employment is scarce

GERMAN OFFENSIVE WEST IS SEATED

PARIS, France, Nov. 15.—Long range artillery duels and trench fighting of a desultory nature are taking place along the greater part of the western front, the main exception being an attempted German offensive yesterday westerly of Peronne. Here the Germans exploded a mine chamber under the French trenches and attempted to make a gain of territory under cover of the explosion. The German dash gained the French lines and a hand to hand struggle ensued, ending in the repulse of the Germans. The French held all their positions and took a number of prisoners.

SUBSTITUTE FOR OPIUM IN THE TREATMENT OF DIABETES

A number of medical writers agree that Opium (Codein) is their only agent to reduce sugar in Diabetes. But, due to its inhibitions, it cannot be given in large doses or long enough and failure is the rule. We announce to physicians that Fulton's Diabetic Compound is more definite in its action on the sugar of Diabetes than Opium, is without its faults and has this distinct advantage—it does not suppress but assimilates the sugar, and containing no dangerous or habit forming constituents can be given in sufficient doses and for a sufficient time to get physiological results, viz.: absorption of the sugar in many cases. This gives the physician a free hand to aid as his judgment suggests. There is no conflict in people over the disappearance of the sugar is commonly followed by the gradual elimination of the thirst, weakness and painful symptoms, recoveries being reported in many cases as a natural consequence. Substance of formula—surrounds bottle. Thoroughly digested and assimilated. No cumulative or after effects. Honolulu Drug Co., local agents. Literature mailed. John J. Fulton Co., 83 First Street, San Francisco. Some analytical results can usually be looked for in three weeks. The presence of sugar is a PHYSICAL FACT and its disappearance is a FACT IN PHYSICS.—Adv.

A hypothetical question was put to the Grecian premier by the ministers of the Allies, who asked him what stand
