

SOCIETY

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Nov. 19.

In honor of her guests, Mrs. Pillow and Mrs. Hetherington, Mrs. Jerome Pillow entertained most charmingly on Tuesday with a 5 o'clock tea, to which were invited a large number of the ladies of the garrison. The Pillows' attractive quarters were decorated for the occasion with a profusion of cut flowers, American Beauty roses predominating. In the dining-room, Mrs. John Wisser served tea and Mrs. Lyman Kennon served chocolate at a table lovely in its decorations of rose pink. Here a large basket of American Beauties graced the center, while at the corners were placed candelabra with rose shades. Mrs. Clarence Day and Mrs. Louis McKinlay presided over the inviting punch table. Among those invited to meet the guests of honor were Mesdames John F. Gullfoyle, W. W. Forsyth, John O'Shea, Guy H. Preston, Walter C. Short, Carey I. Crockett, Lucius R. Holbrook, William D. Chitty, John J. Boniface, John I. Fair, Sherrard Coleman, James B. Fechet, Christian Briand, Gordon N. Kimball, William B. Renzlehausen, William C. Gardenhire, Chalmers Hall, Schering C. Megill, Leonard W. Prunty, Charles J. Naylor, Rawson Warren, Beth W. Cook, Orville N. Tyler, Alexander M. Milton, Robert M. Cheney, Ernest G. Cullum, Robert M. Donaldson, Phillip J. Kieffer, Harry A. Flint, William Nally, Roland L. Gaugier, George R. Callender, D. L. Howell, Howell Clinton, Waldo E. Ayer, Edward C. Carey, Campbell King, Clyde B. Crusan, Staley A. Campbell, Elvid Hunt, Walter E. Pridgeon, Charles H. Bice, John W. Reardon, Wilson, Robert Sears, Miss Elizabeth Sears, Miss Sue Holcomb, Mesdames John Hinemans, Massey, Lewis S. Sorley, George E. Kumpke, Englebert Ovenshine, George H. Bailey, Frank R. Keefe, Albert White, Benjamin J. Edger, Jay Whitman, Arthur F. Cassels, Roger O. Mason, G. O. Ellis, William T. Browning, Pelham D. Glassford, Louis H. McKinlay, William Dobbs, William McCleave, Madame McCleave, George S. Gay, Ethel Richardson, Joseph O. Daly, Henry Lantry, Percy Deshon, Vernon A. Caldwell, Edmund L. Butts, Frank H. Albright, Harris, John E. Hunt, Miss Margaret Church, Charles L. Willard, George Steunenberg, Robert P. Harbois, James E. Chaney, Miss Mary, Howell M. Estes, Robert H. Dunner and Miss Grace Cook.

Mrs. Dlysses Grant, Jr., who with her husband is spending a part of the winter here. Their home is in Louisiana.

On Thursday evening the 25th Infantry vaudeville took place successfully before a crowded house and an appreciative audience which showed by their hearty applause that the efforts of the "artists" on the stage "got over." Too much can not be said in praise of the interest shown by the men of the 25th who, in giving such a creditable performance, evidenced their personal devotion and earnest support of their commanding officer's wishes. And no less is this true of the audience which packed the house, which by their presence contributed toward the success of the undertaking in a financial way. The motive for the affair was the forming of a contribution for a hospital in Bordeaux, where 500 seriously wounded and blind soldiers are cared for, the patients including soldiers of the Allies and also Germans and Austrians. Col. and Mrs. Kennon being personally interested in this most worthy cause made it possible by this means for many members of the garrison to add their contributions toward the care and comfort of the poor war-torn victims. The program of the entertainment included a number of humorous monologues and dialogues, some excellent clog dancing and singing, and wound up with a comical imitation of a prize fight. A charming feature of the affair was a number of whistling solos given by Mrs. George Steunenberg, accompanied by the 25th orchestra, which met with delighted appreciation. The sum realized by the evening's entertainment was a little more than $200.

On Tuesday evening a very attractive hop supper was given by Lieut. and Mrs. Walter E. Pridgeon, their guests later going to the 1st Infantry hop in the pavilion. Small tables prettily decorated in pink were placed about the living rooms at which the delicious supper was served. Among the guests were Maj. and Mrs. Lewis S. Sorley, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Knight, Capt. and Mrs. George E. Kumpke, Capt. and Mrs. John Jordan, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King, Lieut. and Mrs. Byard Sneed, Capt. and Mrs. Chalmers Hall, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan, Capt. and Mrs. Edward C. Carey, Capt. and Mrs. Paul McCook, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, the Misses Edith Patton, Elizabeth Pattison, Ann Carpenter, Welcome Ayer and Myra Harbeson, Capt. George deGrasse Catlin, Maj. Charles Tayan, Capt. and Mrs. Englebert Ovenshine, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles H. Rice, Lieut. and Mrs. Edward Franklin Rice, Mrs. Howell Clinton and Lieut. Robert Show, John Simons, James Uilo, Otis Sattler, Frank Schneider, Edward Rose, Charles Bankhead and Frank Riley.

On Wednesday night, Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave were dinner hosts for 30, the party later attending the Mounted Service Club hop. A graceful and brilliant scheme of decoration was used in the shape of long branches of purple bougainvillea, which was festooned about the rooms in which the affair took place and decked the tables where the dinner was served. The list of guests included Col. and Mrs. L. W. V. Kennon, Maj. and Mrs. Edmund L. Butts, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur F. Cassels, Capt. and Mrs. William D. Chitty, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Madame McCleave, Lieut. Edward McCleave, Lieut. and Mrs. Swift Martin, Col. S. D. Sturgis, Maj. T. Horn, Mrs. Benjamin Edger, Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph O. Daly, Mrs. Henry E. Lantry, Lieut. and Mrs. John Haysler, Col. Carl Reichman, Lieut. and Mrs. Ernest G. Cullum, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde B. Crusan and Lieut. Eugene Owen.

On Wednesday Mrs. Richard Kimball gave a dainty luncheon at her home in Manoa valley in honor of her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Montague, who have recently arrived for a visit, from Chattanooga, Tenn. A lovely scheme of decoration was used on the table which was laid for nine, consisting of eight small vases of violets grouped about a centerpiece, a low bowl filled with Killarney roses and maidenhair fern. The dainty effect was enhanced by the use of filmy lace doilies on the bare polished table. Present were Mesdames Montague, Arthur Cassels, Louis H. McKinlay, Charles Lloyd, Walter Dillingham, Charles Deering, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Kimball.

Col. and Mrs. William W. Forsyth entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening in honor of Col. and Mrs. John P. Gullfoyle, who have recently arrived at Castner, Col. Gullfoyle having been sent to take command of the 4th Cavalry. Yellow was used effectively for the table's color scheme and was carried out in the flowers of the centerpiece and the dainty candle shades. Covers were placed for eight, Col. and Mrs. Gullfoyle, Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisser, Maj. and Mrs. Edmund Butts and Col. and Mrs. Forsyth.

In honor of Mrs. Ethel Richardson, house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. George S. Gay, Lieut. Harold W. Huntley will entertain at dinner at the Halewa hotel on Saturday evening, preceding the moonlight dance which is to be given on that night. Other guests will be Capt. George deGrasse Catlin and Lieut. and Mrs. Gay.

Another Wednesday dinner was that given by Lieut. and Mrs. Truby Martin, who entertained for Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Pheil, who are newcomers to the 1st Field Artillery, Lieut. and Mrs. Percy Deshon and Capt. Ned Rehkopf.

Capt. Lucius Holbrook's many friends are glad to learn of his favorable condition and rapid improvement since his recent operation for appendicitis in the department hospital.

Capt. George deGrasse Catlin gave a delightful dinner on Wednesday evening for the Misses Carrie and Esther McMahon, Lieut. Edward Rose and Capt. and Mrs. Pelham D. Glassford.

Rally at Punahou.

"Oahu, Oahu, Punahou, our Punahou, Umauma, umauma, Punahou, our Punahou, For seventy years we've shown our light."

We glory in Oahu's night, The Buff and Blue's a glorious sight, Punahou, our Punahou.

The big rally, the first night rally Punahou has ever held on the campus, was the event of the week to the members of the academy set, and last night there were hundreds of students and grads who gathered on Alexander field to sing the old songs and give the yell for the team Punahou expects to carry off the 1915 football championship.

The students were very enthusiastic in their support of the team, but none of them was more interested than Johnny O'Dowda, Gordon Brown and "Stair" Austin, former gridiron stars, who were on hand last night to encourage the "blucky little team," as they called it.

There were songs, cheers and speeches and the gathering was in-

Do It Before Next Saturday

The coming week will be the last week of

OUR XMAS SALE

It isn't too early to start your Xmas shopping. Why not do it while our sale is going on?

You can save 10% to 50% on your Xmas Gifts

JAPANESE BAZAAR

Fort Street

Opposite Catholic Church

deed a lively one. Following the custom of the colleges on the mainland the evening's program wound up with the snake dance across the field, in which the fair students as well as the boys participated, singing "On Oahu." This afternoon there will be a large number of Punahou rooters out on the field, for no supporter of the old school would consider a mere social engagement on the day of the big game.

SALE of Winter Hats

Amazing price-cutting on stylish winter millinery. Prices are so low that they are for cash only.

$10 Hats of all kinds-- turbans and wide brim hats --all reduced to . . $5.00

$15 Hats reduced to $7 and $10

$12 Hats for $6

Every hat in the shop reduced and the bargains will astonish you. Sale starts Monday morning

Miss Power

Boston Bldg. Second Floor Fort Street

Rawley's Pure Ice Cream

No gelatine used to smooth it; no adulterants of any description used in its manufacture.

Our Sunday Specials will be Orange and Caramel

In Bricks or Bulk.

Delivered Any Time

Neapolitan Bricks and five flavors daily.

PHONE 4225

