GERMANS DRIVE THROUGH SERBIA, INVADE MONTENEGRO

SPRIT OF REVOLT STILL ACTIVE AT WAIALEE SCHOOL

Principal Tucker, Bitter, Overworked and Out of Sympathy With Task, Admits Situation Beyond Him

MUCH WORK AND LITTLE PLAY FOR 130 YOUNGSTERS

In Five Years, Facilities For Wholesome Recreation Have Steadily Decreased, Though School "Plant" is More "Efficient"

What's the matter with the Boys Industrial School?
That is the question widely asked since the outbreak of 54 boys at the Waialeale institution on the afternoon of November 21 and the subsequent strikes appearing in Honolulu papers showing a deep-seated spirit of rebellion at the reform school. The attempted escape of these 54, the actual escape of three and the fact that the principal is lodging these he considers the ringleaders in the city jail have led to much inquiry whether the school administration is at fault or whether these boys are a band of young criminals who cannot be controlled except by constant threats and actual imprisonment.

CONDITIONS FOUND AT BOYS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL AFTER "MUTINY"

Juvenile incorrigibles ready for further outbreaks at any time opportunity offers.
Principal who admits situation is beyond him, and that he cannot explain cause of rebellion. School "plant" apparently run with efficiency and progress, but attention to boys' needs just as apparently neglected or not recognized.
Too much routine of work for youngsters; too few facilities for promoting wholesome recreation under strict discipline.
No effort to enlist aid of parents or friends to encourage boys to better lives.

The fact that the Great Northern, in spite of very bad weather, arrived practically on time at Hilo, was the subject of favorable comment today, and in Honolulu there was much relief at knowing that the vessel will be here tomorrow morning promptly on schedule.

RUMANIA'S KING IS BETWEEN TWO FIRES

With the Teutons offering concessions for Rumania to remain neutral, and the Allies bidding to get Rumania's aid in war, these are difficult times for King Ferdinand I of Rumania.
