GROWN-UPS WILL FIND INTEREST IN CHILD PLAYS

Wholesome Amusement for Young and Old in "Christmas Gold" and "Snowed In"

Though the two playlets, "Christmas Gold" and "Snowed In," to be presented at the Opera House tomorrow afternoon and Wednesday night by the Children Players are designed especially for the amusement of youngsters, it is believed that there will be much of interest in them for grown-ups as well.

Besides the two playlets there will be some clever dance specialties. The first playlet, "Snowed In," shows a little boy who awakes on a snowbound train to find about him a large number of sour and older fellow passengers.
He arouses them one by one and in-ally brings happiness into their hearts.
"Christmas Gold" presents the story of how tinsel decorations may have been started on Christmas trees. It represents an old Dutch farmhouse with a fairy who brings bugs, beetles, crickets and other creatures on the scene.

Several grown persons take part in the playlets along with the children in order to give them a start in what, it is hoped, will be but the beginning of many other performances. It is planned later to have only children for all the parts.

Mrs. F. R. Day has done the work of coaching the players. Mrs. Arthur G. Smith takes the part of the housewife in "Christmas Gold;" Miss Evelyn Cunningham is the fairy, and Helen Hitchcock is Lisbeth, the little Dutch girl. The part of the small boy who awakes in the "snowed in" train is taken by Miss Katherine Kilbourne.

TO RETURN RUGS
AFTER HOLIDAYS

Right after the holidays the consignments of Oriental rugs that have been on display at the store of Lew-ers & Cooke, Ltd., will be returned.
Such a unique collection does not often appear in this city. Every one of the rugs is on sale at a very reasonable price considering the recent rise in price due to the war.

As Christmas gifts these Oriental rugs are particularly appropriate, and the home that boasts of a genuine Turkish or Persian rug, such as may be seen now at the Lewers & Cooke exhibit, has something to be proud of.

'SAFETY FIRST'
FOR YOUR TREE

Don't light your tree with old-fashioned, messy, dangerous candles. We can furnish those pretty incandescent lamps, all different colors and some in fanciful shapes, Santa Claus heads, canary birds, fruits and flowers. These help to adorn your tree and at the same time eliminate the danger of fire. The Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd.

ATTRACTIVE PAPER PUT OUT OF M'KINLEY HIGH

The "Black and Gold," a publication by the students of the McKinley High school, which has been dormant for more than a year, has been revived in the form of an attractive Christmas edition containing school notes, snappy short stories, jokes and matter pertaining to the dramatic club, athletics and alumni. The editorial staff is as follows:

Editor, Joseph Blodgett Stickney; assistants, Mary Kathryn Jensen and Jack Lee; athletics, D. K. Bent; jokes, Frederick C. Carter and J. E. Riedell; senior notes, Lillian Fennell; junior notes, Gladys Auerbach; sophomore notes, Edwin Chillingworth; freshman notes, E. Ludloff; staff artist, Kim Chau Goo; exchanges, Madeline G. K.
Smith.

FOREFATHERS' DAY TO BE CELEBRATED
TOMORROW EVENING

Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate Forefathers' Day tomorrow night with a reception and dinner at the University Club. The reception will begin at 6 o'clock, lasting an hour, and will be followed immediately by the dinner.
Speakers for the occasion are as follows: W. A. Bryan, "The Colonial War;" Capt. Paul B. Malone, "Beginnings of the Present United States Army;" James A. Wilder, "Applied Patriotism;" Judge Sanford B. Dole, "Forefathers in Hawaii." Judge Dole's address will be a continuation of the subject on which he spoke last year.

At the request of counsel for the defense, sentence of John Vivichaves, twice convicted on charges of usury, has been deferred pending an appeal of the cases to the supreme court on bills of exception. The trial of Vivichaves on the second of 14 charges of usury Friday resulted in a conviction, making the second verdict of guilty to be found against him.

Madame Paderewski's Dolls Will Be Sold Tomorrow

A number of these appealing little Polish dolls, sent to Hawaii by Madame Helene Paderewski, wife of the famous Polish pianist, will be sold at auction tomorrow at the Opera House, during the afternoon with the Children Players. They are on display at Gurrey's, Fort street.

BOARD TO MEET
AND DETERMINE
FINAL POLICIES

To more definitely determine the policy under which the boys' industrial school at Waialeale and the girls' industrial school in Moiliili will be managed, the new industrial schools board, of which Pres. A. F. Griffiths is chairman and Mrs. A. L. Andrews is secretary, will hold a meeting probably the first week in January. The authority of law will be officially invested in the members on January 1, 1916.
As reported in the Star-Bulletin last Saturday, the board has not yet reached a definite conclusion regarding a change of management at the school at Waialeale, it being reported that Hugh Tucker, the present superintendent, may be let out the first of the year. F. W. Carter, J. C. Anderson and F. S. Hafford of Honolulu, and Major Thompson of Idaho, have sent in written applications for the position, while it is understood that Capt.
J. M. Camara of Honolulu and W. S.
Terry of Hilo have been recommended. The members of the board are planning to attend the Christmas celebration at the Waialeale school next Wednesday.

The annual and final report of the territorial grand jury will be presented to Circuit Judge Ashford early in January. Steps toward completing the report will be taken when the tribunal meets in the judiciary building next Thursday afternoon.

THREE RAIDS TO SAME PLACE NET
POLICE BIG HAUL

In three raids, one Saturday night and two Sunday, detectives gathered in at the same spot near the Oahu Ice & Electric Company's plant, Kakaako, Hustace and Cooke streets, 27 players of 7-11, of mixed nationalities.
Saturday night nine men were in the game, and when four detectives appeared they began to scatter. Two of them were chased half a mile and caught and one, a Japanese, was nabbed after he punched a detective and in return was knocked down.
Four of the bunch, John Alvarado, Frank Gomez, Portuguese; Nagota, Japanese, and W. S. Lee, Korean, were arrested, and all but Lee were fined $10 and costs this mornning.

Daniel Albert, Peter Kala and Daniel Kahapa, taken Sunday, pleaded guilty and were fined $10 each. E.
Kallikane, S. Lani, Joe Kalauawa, H.
Kaimi, Charles Akana and George Ka-halelelo were acquitted for lack of evidence.
Pak Wu, Chong Shai, Chong Pau, To Hoy, Ah Tong, Ah Fung, Ah Fung
No. 2, Yip Sing, Cheong Fong, Ah Yong, Ah Ping, Chin Pau, Ah You and Tun Sing were in one of the bunches taken in a raid, and all but one pleaded guilty and paid fines of $5 and costs.

Argument on a demurrer to the indictment charging Chim Ying Sing will be held in Circuit Judge Ash-ford's court at 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon.
