Last Run of Vampire Tonight

Scene from "A Fool There Was," the spectacular Fox Film Corporation picture now being shown at the Bijou theater and featuring Theda Bara and Edward Jose.

With the performance of this evening at the Bijou theater the initial Fox Film Corporation's offering closes its engagement, having established the fact that this new service is the equal of anything ever shown on the local screens. It also terminates the first appearance of Theda Bara, one of the most talented artists now appearing before the camera and declared by mainland critics to be "the most beautifully wicked woman in filmdom."

It further brings to a satisfactory close the first offering in which Honoluluans have been privileged to see Edward Jose, one of Paris' leading artists and formerly leading man for Sarah Bernhardt. Everything has proved satisfactory to the management of the Bijou and, judging from the comments of the large audiences, everything has been good from that standpoint.

The Fox service, Theda Bara, Edward Jose and the other members of the efficient cast have all combined to supply a big week's entertainment and the Fox service is an assured success in this city, provided the same caliber of offerings follow the sample.

In addition to the feature film the Bijou is showing a number of interesting reels, including a George Agé "Fable in Slang."

Katherine Coughlin, one of the foremost emotional artists of the American stage who has lately come into much prominence in moving pictures, appears on the screen in dramatic photo-production of the part of the adventures in the two-act play, "The Hundred Dollar Bill." This clever adaptation from a story, made popular in a monthly magazine, will be a headline attraction at the Empire theater today.

Miss Coughlin has a difficult role as the woman who, faithful to her trust, detects a plot to ruin the man whom she has promised to wed. The artist is exceedingly clever in the intensity and strength of her portrayal.

The startling effect of a great storm which recently swept a portion of California and the Pacific coast is shown in the late pictorial weekly. The contestants for the Vanderbilt cup race are depicted by the camera. London during war-time makes an interesting picture.

"The Lucky Strike" is a clean type of western comedy. The Empire program will close with "The Undertaker's Uncle." It is a farce guaranteed to produce a laugh a minute.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick,
Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

It is said that an artificial coffee has been invented by a Japanese which has a large percentage of nourishment, the right flavor and low cost.

The order prohibiting shore leave for men aboard the German cruisers Prinz Eitel Friedrich and Kron Prinz Wilhelm, interned at Norfolk, was suspended long enough to let them attend church.

SHOW MAX FIGMAN AS BLACKIE DAW

So completely changed that patrons of the old Popular theater scarcely will recognize it, the little playhouse on Hotel street will reopen Saturday night under new management and with new motion picture and vaudeville features. The Manager, P. J. Byrne, an experienced theatrical man recently from Australia, announces that he intends giving patrons the best quality obtainable, both in vaudeville and films.

Two of the four vaudeville acts which arrived by the Sierra this week from Australia will appear Saturday night. They are to be followed the next Saturday by the other two turns. Within a few weeks Manager Byrne hopes to be able to "speed up" this program, or at least to offer a larger number of acts weekly.

Those appearing tomorrow night are Herbert Winters, an English comedian, who has been playing on the big Rickard circuit of Australia for more than a year, and the Musical Goolmans, a man and woman who have a novelty act with elaborate stage settings and who play on many kinds of instruments. One of their best specialties is a set of alarm clocks from which they elicit real musical strains. The National's first film feature will be the big five reel adaptation of Charles Klein's play, "The District Attorney." Of equally high standard is the new serial, "The New Adventures of Wallingford," which follows closely the stories appearing regularly in the Cosmopolitan magazine. Max Figman, seen here in "The Man on the Box," takes the role of Blackie Daw, the villainous-looking, humorous character of George Randolph Chester's famous stories.

FAST ACTION IN DAVIES FEATURE

At the Hawaii theater Reine Davies, in "Sunday," Esther Barrymore's premier stage offering, comes to a close today and another new World Film Corporation star has appeared on the local horizon, scored a success and will depart leaving a desire with the Hawaii photo-play fans for more of her offerings.

Miss Davies is given a splendid opportunity in this film for a display of her talents, and she leaves nothing to be desired in the handling of her role.

Associated with the star, a George W. Lederer "find" incidentally, are a number of talented artists, the entire cast having been carefully chosen by the producer. Every effort was made to secure actors and actresses qualified to fit the various roles and success in the finished production is the result.

The action of this dramatic offering is fast and furious. There is a shooting and a number of "near" deaths, so that those desiring plenty of thrills cannot fail to be satisfied with a trip to the Hawaii for either of this evening's two performances.

ELSIE JANIS IN NEW ROLE MAKES HIT AT LIBERTY

"Nearly a Lady," or, as it is aptly paraphrased by one of the leading members of the cast, "Really a Lady," is without doubt the best vehicle in which Elsie Janis has ever been seen in Honolulu. Any of the patrons of the Liberty theater, who filled the big house to its capacity last night, will testify to the truth of this assertion. The reason probably is due to the fact that this charming and talented little actress is improving as a scenario writer with each of her succeeding productions. Elsie Janis is the author of each offering in which she stars and the result is that star and vehicle are admirably adapted one to the other. This is particularly true of "Nearly a Lady."

The much heralded "lariat dance" in which Miss Janis appears in this bill is a revelation, especially for such a small and apparently fragile person. It will undoubtedly make a valuable addition to her repertoire for vaudeville in the future.

Associated with Miss Janis are Owen Moore and Frank Elliott, rivals for her hand. The work of both is excellent. Myrtle Stedman, as Mrs. Reginald Brooks, and Roberta Hickman, as a chorus girl, are both well cast.

The current chapter of "The Diamond from the Sky" is as tantalizing as ever, ending with the audience in a fever of anticipation of coming events. Vivian apparently is meeting with success in her pursuit of Arthur, while Blair Stanley is now in possession of Arthur's yacht. Poor little Esther is left floating, unconscious, in the great Pacific ocean, off Santa Barbara.

HULA DANCE CREATES SENSATION ON MAINLAND

A group of chorus girls dancing the hula in the Empress theater of Sacramento, carried the house by storm with their performance. Dressed in the straw skirts and adorned with leis from head to foot the chorus girls made their way on to the stage and were compelled to repeat their act as a result of the encores, according to the Sacramento Union.
