TROLLEYS CARRY 374,385 DURING CARNIVAL WEEK

Biggest Day Was Tuesday, With 72,471; King Street Line Carried 181,301

More than a third of a million people—374,385, to be exact—were carried by the lines of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company in Carnival week, figures compiled by Manager C. G. Ballentyne and the office force of the company show today. By days the number transported was as follows: Sunday, February 20, 44,302; Monday, 56,560; Tuesday, 72,471; Wednesday, 49,608; Thursday, 46,480; Friday, 44,552; Saturday, 60,411. Total, 374,385.

The total number carried in the week by each line was as follows: King street, 181,301; Hotel, 62,379; Punahou, 52,857; Liliha-Emma, 42,696; Nuuanu, 30,556; Maunaloa, 10,499; Fort Ruger, motor bus, 2058; Fort Shafter motor bus, 1990.

"And we carried them all without any mishaps to passengers," says Manager Ballentyne. "Barring a few minor accidents, mostly automobiles dodging across the tracks, resulting in broken fenders on our cars, there was no damage to speak of, and no passengers hurt."

According to President L. Tenney Peck of the company, receipts for the first five days of the week, Sunday to Thursday, inclusive, were $13,224, against $10,449 for the same period of time last year.

PUNCHBOWL IS THEME OF POEM BY COAST MAN

Charles D. Merrill of Los Angeles, one of the Carnival week visitors to Honolulu, has written a poem to Punchbowl, which he hopes to have set to music. Mr. Merrill, who left for the coast Saturday in the Great Northern, read his composition Friday at the big Pan-Pacific luau. The verses are as follows:

I.
On the way to Honolulu
As the vessel nears the land,
Every skipper's on the lookout
And his glass is in his hand,
And he searches all the city,
As the steamer nears the goal,
For the loved and longed-for vision
Of the old Punchbowl.
Oh, the old Punchbowl,
Oh, the brown Punchbowl,
Fill full the skipper's glass up
With the nectar of the soul.
As he holds it out a-searching,
For the old Punchbowl.

II.
'Tis the boast of Honolulu;
As you stroll about the place,
That their Punchbowl is the biggest
Of all the human race.
That it holds a million gallons
And then a million more,
Filled full up for the navy
And the big army on the shore.
Oh, the big Punchbowl,
Oh, the brown Punchbowl,
Fill up the army canteen—
Call up the navy roll—
As the soldier and the sailor toast
The big Punchbowl.

III.
All the tribes of Honolulu
Gathered from the Seven Seas,
Have their optics on the Punchbowl,
(And the contents, if you please),
And they say it is most ancient,
And in age it is so old,
That no native of the island
Its longevity has told.
Oh, the old Punchbowl,
Oh, the brown Punchbowl,
All the tribes upon the island,
All the people on their roll,
Are a-watching for the tilting
Of the old Punchbowl.

IV.
The tourists all are looking
For the craters, dark and deep,
As they scamper o'er the islands
Like a flock of silly sheep;
And eagerly they're asking
In their innocence of soul,
"Is there really any 'Crayther'
In the old Punchbowl?"
Oh, the old Punchbowl,
Oh, the brown Punchbowl,
The skipper and the tourists
And the tribesmen, as a whole,
With the army and the navy,
Love the old Punchbowl.

V.
And now I tell you, hearties,
Why the world is on the way
To find the old brown Punchbowl
On Honolulu bay.
They long to taste its contents—
Good for body and for soul—
The world's most pleasing nectar,
In the old Punchbowl.
Oh, the old Punchbowl,
Oh, the brown Punchbowl,
This "Climate and Contentment"
That make the charming goal—
And these in glorious measure
Fill the old Punchbowl.

NOTED DEMOCRAT WHO WILL COME TOMORROW

Ex-Governor David I. Walsh of Massachusetts.

Former Governor David I. Walsh of Massachusetts will arrive in Honolulu on the Matsonia tomorrow morning, according to wireless messages received Saturday night and early today. He is coming on a vacation trip. He was expected several weeks ago, but his visit was delayed.

A. A. Wilder, who is going to meet Mr. Walsh off port tomorrow morning, today issued invitations to a stag dinner tomorrow night at the Country Club, at which the distinguished Massachusetts man will be guest of honor. With the exception of newspapermen, said Judge Wilder today, the event will be strictly Democratic. He has not, however, invited Governor Pinkham, for the reason, he said today, that he does not consider the governor a Democrat.

Among the invited guests are Associate Justice E. M. Watson, Circuit Judge Clarence W. Ashford, L. L. McCandless, M. C. Pacheco, chairman of the Democratic territorial central committee; High Sheriff Jarrett, Sheriff C. H. Rose and Palmer P. Woods.

Shining and speedy, the postoffice's third automobile is in commission this week, making regular collections of mail from all parts of the city. A. J. Lopes is the driver. The car has been in service since last Thursday. Postmaster William F. Young says it is being used for parcel post and letter collections.

DECIDE SOLDIER WAS DROWNED BY ACCIDENT

"Accidental drowning" was the verdict of the coroner's jury which this morning at Wai'alua investigated the death of Frank Jackson, an enlisted man in Company G, 25th infantry. Jackson's body was found floating in a pond above a dam near Wai'alua about 10 days ago. The man, who was 32 years of age, is thought to have fallen into the water while intoxicated. Deputy Sheriff H. H. Piener handled the case.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If Tongue is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

CLARK HOWELL CALLS BRYAN "HOUSE NUISANCE"

ST. LOUIS, Miss.—William Jennings Bryan will not work in double harness.

With these words Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution and oldest member in point of service of the Democratic national committee, fell in line with Tom Taggart and Norman E. Mack in giving out inter views harpooning Bryan.

"The Democratic campaign is a single horse affair and consequently Mr. Bryan will not be in the running," continued Howell. "He is a house nuisance. He will attempt to stir up all the trouble he can between now and the June convention in St. Louis. However, Mr. Bryan's influence will not prevent the renomination of Mr. Wilson."

CITY'S ROCK QUARRY READY FOR CLOSING

City Engineer George M. Collins has ordered the municipal quarry closed March 1. Portable tools and materials are being stored away today. He will submit a report to the road committee this afternoon showing the cost of operation of the quarry from February 1 to 20, and the quantity and cost of the rock extracted.

"Operation of the quarry is not economical when the city is using so little rock," he said this morning. "Later, when there is more road work going on, it may be advisable to reopen it."
