FOUR GRASSES FOR DRY LANDS IN BLOOM NOW

Experiment Station Has Plots of Drought Resistant Plants For Hawaiian Soils

The grass plots of the agronomy division of the United States experiment station show a number of grasses which are proving to be valuable additions to the list of dry land forage crops for Hawaiian conditions.
It so happens that four of these grasses are just now in full bloom and in excellent condition for comparative observations to be made concerning their relative value for different purposes. An invitation is extended to ranchers, homesteaders and all other interested parties to inspect these grasses. The plots will be held open until Thursday, March 9, to give as many as possible the opportunity of seeing for themselves just what these grasses are doing.

The different species have been under test at the station and elsewhere on the islands for from two to four years and some remarkable yields have been recorded. The annual yields of green forage per acre for these grasses on the station plots without irrigation over a series of years is as follows: Giant Bermuda grass 85.5 tons, Wilder grass 77.95 tons, Natal red top 62.3 tons, Australian blue grass 47.35 tons and Fuzzypop (Andropogon saccharoides) 54.75 tons.

The Giant Bermuda and Australian blue grass give cuttings about every 90 days, while the rest require only about 70 days to reach maturity under normal conditions. The station is prepared to furnish seeds or cuttings for a start of any of these grasses to interested parties who will agree to make a fair test with them and report the results to the United States experiment station at Honolulu.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brown Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse said for me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W.
C. Brown, 1109 Auburn Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

URGES REVIVAL OF NATIVE ARTS OF OLDEN DAYS

That the secrets of the handwork of Hawaiians of the olden days should by all manner of means be preserved and handed down, will be urged this evening by Mary J. Coulter, who will speak to the girls of Kamehameha school.

Mrs. Coulter will urge a revival of the making of pottery, tapa cloth, basket weaving and other distinctly Hawa-ian arts. Last evening a delegation of teachers from the College of Hawaii visited the Hill Tolerton Print Shop on Union street, which Mrs. Coulter manages, and were given a gallery tour.

A shipment of 18 fine monotypes in color by Clark Hobart have been added to the collection, as well as some rare etchings and dry points. The monotypes are painted in oil on copper plates and then transferred to paper by a run through the press. The process allows of the making of only one print from each painting, and requires great rapidity on the part of the artist, for the run must be made before the paint begins to dry.

E. W. CHRISTMAS PUTS CANVASES ON EXHIBITION

At 2:30 this afternoon a notable exhibition of paintings opened in the rooms above Castle & Cooke's, on Fort street. The collection has been brought to Honolulu by Mr. E. W.
Christmas, R. B. A., a painter of international note, member of several honor societies, traveler and lecturer.
Admission is free and the exhibition will continue for two weeks. It is expected that a large number of Honolulians and visitors will take advantage of the opportunity to see the paintings, many of which are by men of world renown. At the rooms catalogues are available giving detailed information as to the canvases.

BISHOP LEWIS SAILS FOR SAN FRANCISCO ON FORMER P. M. BOAT

Taking four stop-over passengers from Honolulu, Bishop and Mrs. Wilson S. Lewis of the Methodist Episcopal church; Dr. J. W. McGuire and N. Kamura, the T. K. K. liner Persia Maru, formerly the Pacific Mail liner Persia, resumed her voyage to San Francisco from the Orient, leaving here at 9 o'clock this morning. Bishop Lewis is going to the mainland to attend the Methodist general conference, starting in May at Saratoga, New York.

Docking about 5:30 last evening, the steamer brought to Honolulu eight first-cabin and 172 steerage passengers, also 826 tons of freight. Through passengers are only 21 first-cabin and 60 steerage.

Rough weather from Yokohama was reported. The Persia Maru is two days late, having been delayed at Yokohama because of the week required to install new radio apparatus, Japanese government standard.

Through freight on the Persia is 2451 tons. Number of packages comprising the Honolulu freight was 1947.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look back at your childhood days Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics.
How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different.
Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.
