

$ DOLLAR DAY $

The Big Selling Event of the Month.

Begins on MONDAY, March 13th, and continues until the 18th

Special Values for $1.00 in each Department

No. 60 Berkeley Cambrie, 8 yards.....	$1.00
No. 150 Berkeley Cambrie, 5 yards.....	1.00
81x90 Hemstitched Sheets, each.....	1.00
Fine Cotton Blankets, per pair.....	1.00
Double Bed Spreads, each.....	1.00
Single Bed Spreads, each.....	1.00
25c Cretannes, 6 yards for.....	1.00
20c Cretannes, 8 yards for.....	1.00
33-inch Indian Head, 8 yards for.....	1.00
Colored Border Serims, 8 yards for.....	1.00

Extraordinary Values in Dress Goods

36-inch Pereaie, double-fold.....	8 yards.....	$1.00
Gingham, new patterns.....	12 yards.....	1.00
Romper Cloth.....	6 yards.....	1.00
Ripplette.....	8 yards.....	1.00
Underwear Checks.....	8 yards.....	1.00
Flannelette.....	9 yards.....	1.00
White Crepe Skirting.....	5 yards.....	1.00
38-inch White Voile.....	5 yards.....	1.00

Children's Ribbed Hosiery

Black, White and Tan, 4 pairs.....	$1.00
Ladies' Silk Hose, white and black, 2 prs.	1.00

ECONOMIC UNDERWEAR VALUES

Knit Combinations, Muslin and Nainsook
Nightgowns, Skirts, Chemise, Corset
Covers, etc., at.....	$1.00
Infants' Blankets.....	1.00
Infants' Bonnets.....	1.00
Ladies' Kimonos.....	1.00
Washable Suits, ages 1 to 6.....	1.00

LACES AND EMBROIDERIES

Embroidery Flouncing, 45-inch.....	$1.00
Chiffon Veils.....	1.00
Val. Laces and Insertions, piece.....	1.00
Normandy Laces, 10 yards for.....	1.00
Bulgarian Trimming, 10 yards for.....	1.00

Lingerie Waists in Plain and Fancy Voile,

Lace and embroidery trimmed.....	$1.00
Middy Blouses at.....	1.00
Children's Sweaters.....	1.00
Gingham House Dresses, new cut.....	1.00

New Millinery Shapes, Flowers, Wreaths and Ornaments at.....	$1.00
Taffeta Silk Hair Ribbon, in all the leading colors, 3 yards for.....	1.00
Moire Ribbon, for sashes, per yard.....	1.00
Dresden Ribbons, 2 yards for.....	1.00

Plain and Fancy Silk Mull, 4 yards for.....	$1.00
33-inch Pongee Silk, per yard.....	1.00
40-inch Silk Poplin, per yard.....	1.00
40-inch French Serge, cream and navy.....	1.00
Bathing Suit Alpaca, red, navy, brown and grey, per yard.....	1.00

Cretonne Lunch Sets for.....	$1.00
Bungalow Pillows for.....	1.00
Stamped Petticoats.....	1.00
Stamped Combinations.....	1.00
H. S. Scarfs and Squares, 4 for.....	1.00

Hotel Street, near Fort

SACHS'

Hotel Street, near Fort

SOCIETY

SOCIETY CALENDAR.

Governor Pinkham's Reception for ex-Gov. Walsh.

Mrs. Edward Tenney's Luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck's Musical.

Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisser's Dinner.

Daughters of the American Revolution Plan Colonial Event.

Mr. Douglas Damon's Poi Supper.

A Call on Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani.

Mrs. Robert Miel's Luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Frazier's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowrey's Dinner Party.

Mrs. James B. Houston's Luncheon.

Miss Geraldine Berg's Tea.

Mrs. Mason F. Prosser's Tea.

Miss Edith Williams' Dance.

Mrs. Edward Dekum's Card Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Judd's Dinner.

Mrs. Dora Ahlborn's Poi Lunch.

Mrs. Hermann H. Zornig's Bridge.

Mrs. Arthur G. Hodgins' Lunch.

Mrs. Robert Lewers' Luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane's Dinner.

Mrs. A. Falke's Poi Luncheon.

Mr. Arthur Wilder's Luncheon.

Mrs. Thomas J. King's Luncheon.

Mrs. A. M. Newell's Luncheon.

The Country Club was the setting for a luncheon given this week in honor of the Misses Carpenter, who have been greatly entertained since coming to Hawaii. The table was arranged with var-colored snapdragons. The hour after lunch was enjoyed on the lanai watching the golfers. Mrs. Nowell's guests were Miss Carpenter, Miss Elizabeth Carpenter, Mrs. John A. Balch, Mrs. Thomas Church, Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. T. H. Petrie, Mrs. John Gull, Mrs. Eugene Steers, Mrs. Charles G. Rooks, Mrs. Byron E. Noble and Mrs. William A. Wall.

Mr. Walter's Quisenberry's Dinner.

Last Saturday evening Mr. Walter Quisenberry gave a very pleasant dinner at Heinie's Tavern in honor of the following guests:

Ex-Governor Walsh of Massachusetts, Hon. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. Justice Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Bristol, Mr. C. S. Hermann, Dr. Creighton, Irene Spear and Mrs. Molly Ward.

The table was beautifully decorated with giant chrysanthemums. The favors were bouquets of violets.

Mrs. Fitzgerald's Dinner.

Mrs. Fitzgerald of San Francisco was hostess at a delightful dinner on Tuesday evening at the Pleasanton. The table was adorned with lavender and purple asters and mums in the same tones. After dinner the party motored to the Country Club and then to the roof garden to watch the dancers. Mrs. Fitzgerald's guests were Miss Thomas, Miss Fitzgerald, Mrs. Palmer, Miss A. Thomas and Miss Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. C. Waterman.

Mrs. Matthew Graham's Card Afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth Barnes was the honor guest at a card party on Friday afternoon. Some splendid bridge was played and a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Mrs. Graham's guests were Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mrs. E. E. Robinson, Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, Miss K. Woodford, Mrs. Antonio Perry, Mrs. Arthur Hodgins and Mrs. Edward Dekum.

Hawaiian Dinner at Heinie's.

A Hawaiian dinner on Monday evening at Heinie's Tavern served to entertain very pleasantly a number of visitors. The dinner was given by Mr. Robinson, whose guests were Mr. Hathaway, Miss Franca, Mr. and Mrs. Cerdis and Miss Emma Franca.

All native dishes were served in characteristic Hawaiian style. The favors were miniature poi bowls, which after being emptied of their poi were treasured by the guests. The place cards were hand-painted, to match the table decorations.

Miss Edith Williams' Dancing Party.

This evening Miss Edith Williams is entertaining about 35 friends at the second of a series of dancing parties that she is giving. The party is at the Bruce Cartwright Jr. home, Mrs. Cartwright and Miss Williams are clever entertainers and make every affair given by them most attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Jewett Lowrey's Dinner.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Jewett Lowrey was the setting for an extremely pretty dinner given by them on Friday evening. The dining table held a tall cylinder-like vase and it was filled with the great, long-stemmed begonias in masses. They were very lovely. Peeping out from under the edge of the lace centerpiece was a circle of these dainty blossoms and fine lace ferns. The name cards were attractive ivory pasteboard and in one corner was a fish tied in ti-spaces.

The large room of the Lowrey home was decorated with clusters masses of the golden Ninko lily and small gold and brown sunflowers.

The dinner was given in honor of Miss Margaret McWhae of Melbourne.

A delightful hour was spent after dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lowrey's guests were Miss Margaret McWhae of Melbourne, Mrs. Allen of Sydney, Mr. Grubb of Tasmania, Dr. and Mrs. Edward D. Kilbourne, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick D. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood M. Lowrey and Mr. Alan Lowrey.

Prof. Joaquin Wanrell Entertained.

Prof. Joaquin Wanrell was the guest of honor at a dinner given on Wednesday night by San Francisco friends, including Mrs. Moineyhen, whose daughters were former pupils of Prof. Wanrell. The hour after dinner was spent at the Country Club.

Mrs. Moineyhen's guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. Hill, Miss M. Moineyhen, Miss Josephine Moineyhen and Prof. Joaquin S. Wanrell.

Mrs. John J. Carden and Miss Mae Carden will soon leave Honolulu for a year's stay on the east coast. Miss Carden to finish her course at Vassar, and Mrs. Carden will reside near the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse will arrive here next week after an absence of two years. Mrs. Waterhouse brings home the children. Dr. Waterhouse will remain for a time and then return East.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren are leaving Honolulu very shortly to go to Lieut. Warren's new post of duty along the Mexican border line. Mrs. Warren will be greatly missed by her very large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham entertained during the week about 50 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, who are just back from Chicago. The Dillinghams had a special car and took their guests to Haleiwa for luncheon and returned to town in time for dinner. A large number were tourists, to whom the outing was doubly attractive.

The Jack Londons are going to entertain on Sunday evening at one of their delightful informal dinners. Mr. and Mrs. London have the happy faculty of entertaining without any effort, and their gatherings though your guests are invited.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was hostess at a luncheon given at the Country

Club on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Jessie Davis of Oakland, Cal. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. James McKenzie, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, left for his home on today's steamer, after a delightful three-weeks' visit in Honolulu.

Mr. Withers, who has taken up his residence at Kaimuki, is an interesting man. He entertains generously and is a great favorite with all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mrs. John J. Carden and Miss Mae Carden will soon leave Honolulu for a year's stay on the east coast. Miss Carden to finish her course at Vassar, and Mrs. Carden will reside near the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse will arrive here next week after an absence of two years. Mrs. Waterhouse brings home the children. Dr. Waterhouse will remain for a time and then return East.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren are leaving Honolulu very shortly to go to Lieut. Warren's new post of duty along the Mexican border line. Mrs. Warren will be greatly missed by her very large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham entertained during the week about 50 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, who are just back from Chicago. The Dillinghams had a special car and took their guests to Haleiwa for luncheon and returned to town in time for dinner. A large number were tourists, to whom the outing was doubly attractive.

The Jack Londons are going to entertain on Sunday evening at one of their delightful informal dinners. Mr. and Mrs. London have the happy faculty of entertaining without any effort, and their gatherings though your guests are invited.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was hostess at a luncheon given at the Country

Club on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Jessie Davis of Oakland, Cal. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. James McKenzie, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, left for his home on today's steamer, after a delightful three-weeks' visit in Honolulu.

Mr. Withers, who has taken up his residence at Kaimuki, is an interesting man. He entertains generously and is a great favorite with all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mrs. John J. Carden and Miss Mae Carden will soon leave Honolulu for a year's stay on the east coast. Miss Carden to finish her course at Vassar, and Mrs. Carden will reside near the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse will arrive here next week after an absence of two years. Mrs. Waterhouse brings home the children. Dr. Waterhouse will remain for a time and then return East.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren are leaving Honolulu very shortly to go to Lieut. Warren's new post of duty along the Mexican border line. Mrs. Warren will be greatly missed by her very large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham entertained during the week about 50 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, who are just back from Chicago. The Dillinghams had a special car and took their guests to Haleiwa for luncheon and returned to town in time for dinner. A large number were tourists, to whom the outing was doubly attractive.

The Jack Londons are going to entertain on Sunday evening at one of their delightful informal dinners. Mr. and Mrs. London have the happy faculty of entertaining without any effort, and their gatherings though your guests are invited.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was hostess at a luncheon given at the Country

Club on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Jessie Davis of Oakland, Cal. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. James McKenzie, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, left for his home on today's steamer, after a delightful three-weeks' visit in Honolulu.

Mr. Withers, who has taken up his residence at Kaimuki, is an interesting man. He entertains generously and is a great favorite with all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mrs. John J. Carden and Miss Mae Carden will soon leave Honolulu for a year's stay on the east coast. Miss Carden to finish her course at Vassar, and Mrs. Carden will reside near the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse will arrive here next week after an absence of two years. Mrs. Waterhouse brings home the children. Dr. Waterhouse will remain for a time and then return East.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren are leaving Honolulu very shortly to go to Lieut. Warren's new post of duty along the Mexican border line. Mrs. Warren will be greatly missed by her very large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham entertained during the week about 50 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, who are just back from Chicago. The Dillinghams had a special car and took their guests to Haleiwa for luncheon and returned to town in time for dinner. A large number were tourists, to whom the outing was doubly attractive.

The Jack Londons are going to entertain on Sunday evening at one of their delightful informal dinners. Mr. and Mrs. London have the happy faculty of entertaining without any effort, and their gatherings though your guests are invited.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was hostess at a luncheon given at the Country

Club on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Jessie Davis of Oakland, Cal. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. James McKenzie, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, left for his home on today's steamer, after a delightful three-weeks' visit in Honolulu.

Mr. Withers, who has taken up his residence at Kaimuki, is an interesting man. He entertains generously and is a great favorite with all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mrs. John J. Carden and Miss Mae Carden will soon leave Honolulu for a year's stay on the east coast. Miss Carden to finish her course at Vassar, and Mrs. Carden will reside near the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse will arrive here next week after an absence of two years. Mrs. Waterhouse brings home the children. Dr. Waterhouse will remain for a time and then return East.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren are leaving Honolulu very shortly to go to Lieut. Warren's new post of duty along the Mexican border line. Mrs. Warren will be greatly missed by her very large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham entertained during the week about 50 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, who are just back from Chicago. The Dillinghams had a special car and took their guests to Haleiwa for luncheon and returned to town in time for dinner. A large number were tourists, to whom the outing was doubly attractive.

The Jack Londons are going to entertain on Sunday evening at one of their delightful informal dinners. Mr. and Mrs. London have the happy faculty of entertaining without any effort, and their gatherings though your guests are invited.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was hostess at a luncheon given at the Country

Club on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Jessie Davis of Oakland, Cal. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. James McKenzie, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, left for his home on today's steamer, after a delightful three-weeks' visit in Honolulu.

Mr. Withers, who has taken up his residence at Kaimuki, is an interesting man. He entertains generously and is a great favorite with all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mrs. John J. Carden and Miss Mae Carden will soon leave Honolulu for a year's stay on the east coast. Miss Carden to finish her course at Vassar, and Mrs. Carden will reside near the college.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse will arrive here next week after an absence of two years. Mrs. Waterhouse brings home the children. Dr. Waterhouse will remain for a time and then return East.

Lieut. and Mrs. Rawson Warren are leaving Honolulu very shortly to go to Lieut. Warren's new post of duty along the Mexican border line. Mrs. Warren will be greatly missed by her very large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham entertained during the week about 50 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, who are just back from Chicago. The Dillinghams had a special car and took their guests to Haleiwa for luncheon and returned to town in time for dinner. A large number were tourists, to whom the outing was doubly attractive.

The Jack Londons are going to entertain on Sunday evening at one of their delightful informal dinners. Mr. and Mrs. London have the happy faculty of entertaining without any effort, and their gatherings though your guests are invited.

Miss Jessie Kennedy was hostess at a luncheon given at the Country

Club on Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Jessie Davis of Oakland, Cal. Covers were laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. James McKenzie, who has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, left for his home on today's steamer, after a delightful three-weeks' visit in Honolulu.

Mr. Withers, who has taken up his residence at Kaimuki, is an interesting man. He entertains generously and is a great favorite with all who have had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mrs. Mason F. Prosser's Tea.

house was daintily decorated with lilies and other spring blossoms. A vegetable game was played, the first prize being won by Mrs. Howard Bode and the second by Miss Letitia Morgan. Each received a corsage of spring flowers.

Mrs. Fitzgerald's Dinner.

Mrs. Fitzgerald of San Francisco was hostess at a delightful dinner on Tuesday evening at the Pleasanton. The table was adorned with lavender and purple asters and mums in the same tones. After dinner the party motored to the Country Club and then to the roof garden to watch the dancers. Mrs. Fitzgerald's guests were Miss Thomas, Miss Fitzgerald, Mrs. Palmer, Miss A. Thomas and Miss Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Mr. Bartlett and Mr. C. Waterman.

Mrs. Matthew Graham's Card Afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth Barnes was the honor guest at a card party on Friday afternoon. Some splendid bridge was played and a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Mrs. Graham's guests were Mrs. Kenneth Barnes, Mrs. E. E. Robinson, Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, Miss K. Woodford, Mrs. Antonio Perry, Mrs. Arthur Hodgins and Mrs. Edward Dekum.

Hawaiian Dinner at Heinie's.

A Hawaiian dinner on Monday evening at Heinie's Tavern served to entertain very pleasantly a number of visitors. The dinner was given by Mr. Robinson, whose guests were Mr. Hathaway, Miss Franca, Mr. and Mrs. Cerdis and Miss Emma Franca.

All native dishes were served in characteristic Hawaiian style. The favors were miniature poi bowls, which after being emptied of their poi were treasured by the guests. The place cards were hand-painted, to match the table decorations.

Miss Edith Williams' Dancing Party.

This evening Miss Edith Williams is entertaining about 35 friends at the second of a series of dancing parties that she is giving. The party is at the Bruce Cartwright Jr. home, Mrs. Cartwright and Miss Williams are clever entertainers and make every affair given by them most attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Jewett Lowrey's Dinner.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Jewett Lowrey was the setting for an extremely pretty dinner given by them on Friday evening. The dining table held a tall cylinder-like vase and it was filled with the great, long-stemmed begonias in masses. They were very lovely. Peeping out from under the edge of the lace centerpiece was a circle of these dainty blossoms and fine lace ferns. The name cards were attractive ivory pasteboard and in one corner was a fish tied in ti-spaces.

The large room of the Lowrey home was decorated with clusters masses of the golden Ninko lily and small gold and brown sunflowers.

The dinner was given in honor of Miss Margaret McWhae of Melbourne.

A delightful hour was spent after dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lowrey's guests were Miss Margaret McWhae of Melbourne