

YUAN WILL QUIT FOR YEARLY SUM OF $10,000,000

Chinese President Offers to Retire to Private Life if He is Given Bonus

(Special Cable to Nippu Jiji.) TOKIO, March 25.—That Yuan Shih-kai is also interested in his own welfare as well as in the welfare of his country was evidenced today when Yuan sent a proposal to the leaders of the Republican movement stating that he would agree to resign as president provided he was given $10,000,000 a year for the remainder of his life.

In his proposal he states that the revolutionists will not have to pay the amount at the present, but must make the first payment within a year. He asks that the revolutionists make an absolute guarantee that the money will be paid to him each year.

For this sum Yuan announces that he will give up the presidency and will also retire to private life. He further states that he will make no effort to renew the monarchy, and will take no part in the political affairs of the nation.

This proposal was received in a despatch from Peking, but to date no reply has been received from the revolutionists. Those in Japan who have made a study of the Chinese situation state that they expect that the revolutionists will refuse the proposal.

The following advices have been received from Wellington Koo, the Chinese minister at Washington, by Tzang-Woo-huan, Chinese consul here:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24.—The mandate of the 22nd cancels the official acceptance of the throne made on December 11. It also returns the designation petitions to the senate for destruction, and orders all preparations therewith to cease.

Hsuehshchang is appointed secretary of state, and Lou remains foreign minister. Another mandate cancels the reigning title of Hsuehshchang and restores the fifth year of the republic.

VETERAN P. O. MAN IS LET OUT; NO REASON TOLD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 25.—Edward McGrath, after 28 years' service as superintendent of the eighth railway mail division, was dismissed on orders from Washington, without a reason being given. McGrath says that it is because he will not "kowtow" to Postmaster Fay, which Fay denies.
