

SINGING

MRS. E. M. WATSON entertained for eight at the University Club on Friday at luncheon. Covers were placed for Mrs. J. A. Balch, Mrs. W. A. Purdy, Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Mrs. George Beckley, Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Miss Alice Macfarlane and Miss Harriet Lucas. During the luncheon hour the final arrangements for the "June Fantasy" were very thoroughly gone into. Mrs. Watson is chairman of the Organ Fund Benefit for Father Stephen's little Catholic chapel at Punaohu. The first performance is to be held the first Thursday in June. On Friday afternoon a matinee is scheduled and on Saturday evening the final performance will be held. It is to be a very delightful evening opening with living pictures, seven in number, a musical number or two and then a ballet called "Zarastura," a wild and weird Turkish dance which should be fascinating. Two pictures that will amaze a deal of interest are those in which Mrs. Templeton Crocker will appear as the Lotus Queen and one in which Mrs. Jay Gould (Anna Graham) will be seen.

Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. Harold Dillingham have the pictures in charge; Mrs. J. A. Balch, the music; Miss Alice Macfarlane and Miss Harriet Lucas, the ushers; Mrs. Beckley and Mrs. Macfarlane, the candy; Mrs. John Lucas, the fruit punch; Mrs. W. Williamson and Mrs. Purdy, the tickets; Mrs. A. E. Murphy and Mrs. E. M. Watson, the publicity.

Mrs. Bolton is training the young ladies who are taking part in the "Zarastura" ballet. The young girls in the dance are Mrs. Howard Bode, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Doris Noble, Miss Rhoda Ballentine, Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Miss Sibyl Robertson, Miss Helen Center, Miss Henrietta Smith, Miss Katherine Lenihan, Miss Helen McLean, Mrs. Arthur Gilman, Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Mrs. Clarence Olson, Miss Irma Wood, Miss Rachael Wood, Miss Margaret Hawk and Miss Helen Church.

A splendid male quartet will do a number.

Professor Joaquin Wanrell is going to sing a solo.

The Evanses are down for an act and several other very promising things are to be offered.

Father Stephen purchased an organ for the chapel while on the mainland, and it is very earnestly hoped that enough will be made to more than half pay for the instrument.

Mr. W. D. Adams has kindly consented to act as stage manager.

The following young ladies will act as ushers: Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Marie Ballentine, Mrs. Geraldine Ber, and Miss Laura Atherton.

The young girls who are to sell the candy have as yet not been selected.

Rehearsals for the dance are held three times a week at the home of Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson. The women have all entered into this affair with much interest and vim, and it promises to be an event really worth while.

Central Union Social.
Well attended and delightfully carried out in all its details, the social given by the Women's Society of Central Union Church Thursday afternoon at the parish house was a great success and marked a fitting close for the afternoon social affairs of the season, the next afternoon social not taking place until September, when the annual reception for the new teachers of the city is to be given.

The affair took the form of an informal farewell reception for the former president of the Women's Society, Mrs. Arthur L. Andrews, who after three years of devoted service as president, is leaving the last of May for eight months' stay in the East, for Mrs. Arthur F. Griffiths, who is one of the councillors and also general chairman of the 16 neighborhood sewing groups, who is leaving in July for a year's absence in the East; and for Mrs. E. C. Webster, secretary of the society, who expects to leave some time during the summer for a visit to her girlhood home in New Haven, Conn. Receiving with the guests of compliment were Mrs. William C. Furrer, chairman of the committee for the day, and the president of the Women's Society, Mrs. John Trenholm Warren.

Goodbyes were also said to Mrs. Willard Brown and Miss Hopper, who, with their sister, Mrs. Wells Peterson, and their families leave early in May for several months' stay in the East.

At 4 o'clock a most enjoyable program was rendered. Mrs. Harry H. Blodgett, the charming wife of Dr. Blodgett of Fort Shafter, appeared twice on the program, singing for her first number, most appropriately, "A Song of Easter" by Eduard Marvo, and as a second number, later in the program, a delightful Scotch song, "My Ain Folk" (Mary G. Lemon), Mrs. Mrs. W. H. Ketchum acting as her accompanist. Mrs. Blodgett's mezzo-soprano voice shows much cultivation and she sings with an ease and charm that delight her listeners.

Miss Elizabeth Hobdy, the young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Hobdy, and a pupil of Miss Maud Hastings of Oahu College, read two numbers, a bit of humor, "How Tom Sawyer White-washed the Fence," by Mark Twain, and James Whitcomb Riley's ever beautiful, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine." Miss Hobdy shows unusual talent for so young a girl, and read her numbers with appreciation and excellent expression.

Mrs. Riley H. Allen, whose fine soprano voice has been heard here with much pleasure on several occasions, sang two numbers, the first, the English words of a charming little French song, "I've Seen the Swallows Pass" (Del'Acqua), and the second, "A Song of May," by Margaret Ruthven Lang. Mrs. W. C. Furrer playing her accompaniments.

Following the program ice cream and cake were served by the young girls composing Miss Annetta Dieckman's class. The rooms were most attractively decorated in three shades of pink, the flowers ranging from the palest shell pink of the single oleander to peach blow and deep rose colored hibiscus. Brown baskets of begonias and maidenhair ferns were used upon the tables, while great jars and bowls of the hibiscus and oleander were placed about the room, relieved by potted palms and ferns.

A novel feature of the social was the Easter offering in the form of a jelly shower, many of the guests attending bringing one or more glasses of jelly or preserves for the use of the calling and courtesy committees. Eighty-three glasses were piled upon the fern-strewn table, and several more are to be sent later, bringing the number to more than a hundred, much to the gratification of the women in charge.

Mrs. W. C. Furrer was chairman of the committee for the day, her assistants being Mrs. Louis J. Warren, Mrs. W. H. Ketchum, Mrs. Irving J. Hurd, Mrs. F. C. Lyser, Mrs. C. P. Morse and Mrs. John Fleming, and to them is due the credit for the very successful afternoon.

Musical Plans for Territorial Hotels.

The entertainment in the Rathskeller of the Alexander Young Hotel will be discontinued during Holy Week, the musicians and entertainers appearing for the last time prior to Easter on next Sunday evening. There will also be no music at the Moana Hotel during Holy Week. On Easter Sunday evening there will be Hawaiian music during the dinner hour at both the Rathskeller and the Moana. On Monday evening the summer season will open with an entertainment entirely new in every detail. Musicians not heard before in Honolulu will furnish the instrumental music. Piano and drum will be used for dance music, and new entertainers will make their first appearance.

The guests at the Pleasanton Hotel are anticipating a jolly picnic tomorrow, all going into the country for a picnic luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Munter are the guests of Mrs. Munter's mother, Mrs. Hocking. Mr. Munter sails shortly on the Thos.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth entertained very informally at a family dinner in their new home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. F. A. Sloan of Fort Shafter is slightly indisposed. After a week at the post hospital her friends hope to have her at home again.

Mrs. Arthur Rice has invitations out for a tea this afternoon in honor of Mrs. L. L. Sexton of Hilo, who is in Honolulu for a short visit.

Mrs. Ray Allen was hostess at a small sewing tea at Waipio on Friday afternoon. About a dozen friends enjoyed Mrs. Allen's hospitality.

Mr. Charles Bunham, who has been on the mainland for the past year, returned home on the Wilhelmina and expects to go into business here.

Mrs. Samuel M. Johnson of Butte, Montana, is visiting in Honolulu as the guest of Judge and Mrs. Charles F. Clemens at their Nuanuu home.

Mrs. Dyer, who is Col. J. B. Houston's sister, left on the last steamer for her home in Massachusetts, much pleased with her visit in Honolulu.

Mrs. Ford, who has been a guest at the Pleasanton for the past month, leaves on the Wilhelmina. Mrs. Ford leaves here a great booster for the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry von Holt and Miss Mary von Holt leave shortly for the East to be present at the graduation of Herman von Holt, who is a student at Yale.

Mrs. C. L. Bodrero has come home from the mainland greatly to the pleasure of her large circle of friends. Mrs. Bodrero is occupying the Kinney house in Manoa Valley.

Mrs. Ferdinand Hedemann was hostess this week at a delightful tennis tea complimentary to the Misses White, who are the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle.

Mr. Gerrit Wilder kept open house on Monday afternoon and the usual number of friends came in for a cup of tea. The Wilder Mondays are always a pleasure to their friends.

Mrs. J. M. Dowsett was hostess at a very informal and jolly picnic on Thursday at the Dowsett's Waianae beach home. The day was a charming one and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Miss Brita Bills and Miss Mary Agnew of Lincoln, Nebraska, are guests at the Pleasanton and are having an enjoyable time here, as both have a large number of friends in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth have moved into their new home on Lunaliho street and will be at home to their friends after the first of May, on the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

Mr. James Wilder leaves next week for a long stay on the mainland. He expects to be away two years and will join Mrs. Wilder in New York, where they expect to live while their children attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Eakew returned on the last trip of the Great Northern. They will be at their home, 1918 Punaohu street, after April 19, and will have as their house-guests the Misses Wilson of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. E. A. R. Ross was hostess this week at a small informal sewing tea in honor of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Kopke, who is here on a visit from Kauai. Mrs. Kopke is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kopke at Waialae.

The moonlight dance at the Country Club last night was a great success. A very large party was present, and many small dinner parties and several larger ones made the dining-room very gay. It was a perfect night.

Miss Anor Hall is at present the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A.

Reynolds. Miss Hall has been in Honolulu for the past six months and grows ever more fascinated with the island life. Miss Hall is a very charming girl.

Miss Ruth Scper has gone to Haleiwa for the week-end to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball.

Mrs. Truxton Strain and her daughter Sylvia are the house-guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum, at their Nuanuu home. Mrs. Strain comes from Portland, Oregon, and expects to spend several weeks here.

All plans are about perfected for the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society's delicatessen sale that is to be held at the end of this month. Every committee is hard at work doing all in their power to help swell the fund so as to be able to help the poor and very needy in our midst.

A small dancing club has been started, and when its members are sufficiently up in the art much is expected from this party of friends. They can be seen any evening struggling through the intricate steps—minus their coats—and trying very earnestly to be Vernon Castles.

Mrs. Henry E. Cooper left this week for Boston, where she will visit Mrs. George Bailey (nee Alice Cooper), then on to Mrs. Olaf Hustvedt (Irene Cooper), at Jamestown, Va., then to her other daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Pine (Yvonne Cooper). Mrs. Cooper plans to be away the best part of a year.

Mrs. Fred L. Perry, widow of Capt. Perry of the Coast Artillery, arrived in Friday's transport. Mrs. Perry ac-
