SOCIETY

Footlights' Dance.

The Footlights Dramatic Club has sent return postals to every member, asking if they will attend a dinner-dance in honor of Mr. William Lewers, who has worked so faithfully and with such consideration for all as director in the rehearsals of 'The Taming of the Shrew,' which, by the way, is going famously. Much interest has been taken in this Shakespearean production and a splendid series is promised everyone who attends. It promises to be a great society event as many before-the-performance dinners have been arranged. Box parties, loge parties as well as a large general audience will greet the actors and actresses.

Mrs. Mitchell Visits Parents.

Mrs. Manton C. Mitchell and son are in this city from Honolulu, where Lieut. Mitchell has been stationed for the past three years. Mrs. Mitchell (formerly Kathleen Carroll), is staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Carroll. She expects to stay about two months before going to Providence, R. I., to visit Lieut. Mitchell's people. Lieut. Mitchell is at present on the Mexican border with his regiment.—Portland, Ore. Telegram.

Girls' Boat Club Dance.

The Kona Boat Club is very busy arranging for a dance that is planned on Saturday, the 29th of this month. The money realized from the dance will be used to repair their boat house. Several important improvements are planned and the girls hope for enough patronage to do the necessary work on the boat house.

Cherry Blossom Fete.

The cherry blossom fete is going along splendidly. Every one is at work to make it a huge success, not only financially but artistically as well. Mrs. John E. Baird, who is chairman of the entire fete, is meeting with great help and enthusiasm on every hand. Each committee reports great progress.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ashe will leave soon for Honolulu for a several weeks' visit. Mr. and Mrs. John Rounsfell entertained a number of friends at bridge Saturday evening as a good-bye to Mr. and Mrs. Ashe. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fickert, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph V. Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. George Bos, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gillespie.—San Francisco Bulletin.

To the regret of their many friends in this city Lieut. Joseph Leroy Nielson and Mrs. Nielson will leave shortly for Honolulu. Lieut. Nielson's orders having assigned him to that post. They expect to be away for only a few months, however, and will consequently not take with them their infant son, who will remain with Mrs. Nielson's mother, Mrs. Frank D. Nicol, at her home on Van Ness avenue.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Colonel and Mrs. Lloyd S. McCormick will arrive tomorrow in San Francisco from Portland, where they have been living for some time. They have decided to make their home here permanently, and until it is ready for occupancy, they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Bell. Col. and Mrs. McCormick have many friends in San Francisco, where they were stationed a few years ago.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Ashton Potter and her daughter, Miss Marie Louise Potter, will return to San Francisco next week after an enjoyable winter in New York. They will again take possession of their home on Washington street, which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George Page and Miss Leslie Page, who will reopen their own handsome home in San Rafael.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Harold Eugene Snow (Anita Fishman), the attractive bride of Lieut. Harold Eugene Snow, U. S. N., was the complimented guest at a tea over which Mrs. Charles P. Haft presided recently. The affair was held at the home of Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Haft on Webster street.

Mrs. Willis Clark entertained at tea Wednesday for Mrs. Snow.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Dr. Edward B. Perrin came up from Williams, Ariz., and has joined Mrs. Perrin and their son, Milo Perrin, at the St. Francis. Mrs. Perrin and her son have been the guests for a fortnight of the former's mother, Mrs. John L. McMullin, who makes her home at the St. Francis.—San Francisco Examiner.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society has solicited contributions and is ready for the delicatessen sale to be held on the 29th of April. The very best of everything will be on sale and as the sale is on a Saturday, it gives housewives the opportunity for the Sunday dinner without bother.

A gold basket filled with spring flowers and veiled in pink tulle ornamented the table at the luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. H. D. Johnson of Washington, D. C. Covers were arranged for eight in the private dining room of the Clift Hotel.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The social set in Honolulu is observing Lent in a very strict manner this week. All social affairs have been put over until Easter week. All of the churches have Holy Week services and to these society has turned. After Easter no end of things are planned.

Mrs. Charles Krauthoff, wife of Col. Krauthoff, U. S. A., was the guest of honor at a luncheon at which Mrs. Marvin Higgin was the hostess, Thursday. It was given at the Francis Club.
