Many changes have been made in the line-up of the major league teams since last year, and the above line-up of players on the opening day will show startling changes on the part of the managers. Some of the team heads have kept their teams intact, but as a rule, due perhaps to the breaking up of the Feds, the batting order is not the same.

The world's champions will miss Speaker, and in his place have secured Walker, formerly of the Browns. Duffy Lewis was not in the line-up and Kie Shorten took his place. Lewis will perhaps work in later on. Scott and Hoblitzel have beaten out Janvrin and Galnor for their jobs.

Coasters Made Place.

Detroit stood pat with the exception of one player, and Harry Hellman, last year with the San Francisco Seals, has taken the first base job away from Burns. It will be noticed that Veach is following Tyus in the batting order. At Chicago Zeb Terry, who played here with Stanford, has been given the place at short and Weaver shifted to the hot corner. This is the one change in the White Sox line-up.

In Gotham there is a big change this year, as the New York Yankees have four new players in the line-up. Malsel's shift has given "Home Run" Baker a chance at third, and Gilhooley and Magee from the International and Feds make up a fast outfield. Joe Gedeon, who used to handle the key-stone position at Salt Lake has evidently made good in the metropolises.

New Men at Capital.

They like Judge very well in the Capital City, as he has been placed fourth in the batting order, and Jamison, another International League player, has won a place in the outfield. Bobby Groom was given a chance to hurt on the first day, making five Federal players. Fielder Jones has evidently decided that Babe Horton will not do, as Sisler is given the place at the initial cushion.

Tris Speaker and Chic Gandil gave the Cleveland team a good balance,

The Waseda manager and captain expect to make a better showing in their tour on the mainland, where they will meet a number of college teams.

DUKE WINS FROM M'GILLIVRAY IN 50-YARD EVENT

World's Champion Defends Title in Championship Race at Chicago Last Night

Associated Press by Federal Wireless

CHICAGO, April 27.—After being defeated in a number of his races on the mainland, Duke Kahanamoku, world's champion swimmer, defended his title in the 50-yard championship race last evening when he defeated Perry McGillivray, his conqueror in the 100-yard event, in the fast time of 23.45 seconds.

Thousands of swimming devotees gathered at the Illinois Athletic Club last evening, Duke Kahanamoku being the big attraction. It was predicted freely in swimming circles here that McGillivray and Rathel would finish ahead of the great Hawaiian swimmer, and unusual interest was taken in this race.

Won in Chicago.

In the first invitation meet here Kahanamoku was in form, and succeeded in winning from McGillivray and Johnson, negotiating the 100 yards in 54 seconds. In the Pittsburg meet he failed to make this time and lost out to McGillivray by a narrow margin.

The 50-yard swim with one turn showed the Hawaiian swimmer in good form, and last evening he got off in good fashion, and McGillivray and Kahanamoku were right together at the turn, but in the race to the finish line the big Hawaiian appeared to cut through the water and left the local natator behind.

Kahanamoku leaves for Minneapolis today, where he is scheduled to meet a number of the leading swimmers in a special race. The race last evening at the Illinois tank was the last of the championship events, and Kahanamoku will only compete in special races during the remainder of his stay on the mainland.

Style Has Changed.

L. de B. Handley, a noted swimming authority of America, in speaking of Duke's recent defeat by Vollmer and Wheatley, says: "Kahanamoku's showing was a keen disappointment. His style has changed since last seen here. He appears to have lost much of his buoyancy, swimming a good deal lower in the water, and his stroke—a straight six-beat crawl—is not nearly so clean. His manner of turning, on the other hand, which we had been led to believe was poor, was well nigh perfect."

Y. M. ANNOUNCES OFFICIAL MARKS MADE IN MEETS

Indoor Track Meet at "Y" Tomorrow Evening Will Bring Out Best Talent

Seven events are on the board for Friday night's indoor track meet at the Y. M. C. A. A study of the existing records for these events makes an interesting study and leads the operators to wondering if any will be changed.

For the 220-yard dash Henry Yap holds the mark at 26.1, made in April, 1914. Methven feels that this one ought to belong to him and expects to prove it Friday night. He already holds the half-mile record at 2:24 and will probably not stretch himself unless he has to defend his mark. It is the plan that the first entry in the meet is the last to run in each event. Methven's entry came in first, which gives him that privilege.

May Lower Mark.

The 60-yard potato race was run at the association for the first time this year at the international hexathlon. Paul Keppeler made high mark at 15.2, which was tied by Methven. Both will be running in this event in Friday night's meet. No doubt one of them will better this mark.

The two records in the high jump and broad jump are held by John Watt and there is no likelihood of their being broken in the Friday night meet. For the high jump he cleared 5 feet 5 inches and for the standing broad 9 feet 2 inches. The best made in the hexathlon this year was 9 feet 1 inch, by Dreier, and although he will try for the mark, he promises nothing over Watt's high marks.

Good Practice for Bill Collectors.

The fence vault was rejuvenated this year after many years' absence. It is not known what high mark may have been made in the old building. Old-timers think there were some good marks made in the elusive fence vault. Be that as it may, the best record at hand is the mark of 6 feet 6 inches, made by Alex Harrison in the hexathlon this year, and it will probably be many a day before the mark is changed.

There is one event in Friday night's meet in which no existing record is found, the 16-pound shotput. So the winner of the meet will have his name and record go up on the new record board now being made for the gymnasium walls. It is said that Sgt. Ludlam, who made such a splendid showing in the A. A. U. meet under Triple A colors, will come in to handle the big pill. He holds the A. A. U. record and should hang up a handsome mark for later athletes to shove at.

The meet is dated for 7:45 and competent officials are being secured to handle the events.

ROTHSCHILD AND GIBB IN TENNIS FINALS BATTLE

Girls and Boys Show Interest in Punahou Tournament; Many Entries for Matches

The singles tennis tournaments for both boys and girls are being run off at Punahou academy this week.

Yesterday afternoon in the boys' singles Jimmy Rothschild, winner of last season's championship, met Gordon Gibb in the semi-finals. The match was full of thrilling tennis and it is still unsettled for the sets are two all, Rothschild winning the second and fourth 4-6, 7-5, 7-9 and 11-9. The last and deciding set will be played at 4 o'clock tomorrow, the match had to be discontinued on account of darkness.

Abe Gurney played Donald Hayselden, which match Gurney won, 6-2, 6-1. Today Gurney will play Rodgen Lindsay in semi-finals, and the winner of the Gurney-Lindsay match will meet the winner of the Gibb-Rothschild match in finals Friday.

The girls' singles brought out three good matches yesterday. Dora Lidgate won from Gladys Halstead, Irene Ahrens won from Berinda Murray, and Esther Gibb by playing fast tennis throughout her close match won from Edna Murray.

This tennis tournament is in keeping with the Punahou policy of having all students in some sport or other, and, in general, of encouraging the more healthful minor sports, such as tennis, aquatic, etc., in preference to the specialized team sports of football, baseball, etc., which give so few students any benefit.

The girls have shown a surprising interest in the tournament this year. Twenty-two have signed up for the race for the singles championship. Neither of the girls—Edith Carter and Myrred Bromwell—who played in the finals of last year is in school at present. There are many good players entered this year, however, and the matches will be of much interest.

The following is a list of entries for the girls' singles:

Dora Lidgate vs. Gladys Halstead.
Margaret Fincke vs. Madeline Chapin.
Margaret Austin vs. Agnes Chalmers.
Irene Ahrens vs. Berinda Murray.
Edna Murray vs. Esther Gibb.
Florence Davis vs. Blanche Wisard.
Anna Chung vs. May Gay.
Marjan Paris vs. Elizabeth Rosenbaum.
Dorothy Walker vs. Florence White.
Mary Smith vs. Victoria Pick.
Frances Clark vs. Louise Chillingworth.

YAMASHIRO AND LAI TIN AHEAD IN BUSTING 'EM

Travelers Win Number of Games on Tour; Five Hit Over 300 For First Games

By WILLIAM LAI TIN.

(Star-Bulletin Correspondent on Tour)

The Chinese Travelers have won a number of games since the beginning of the tour, and the players as a rule have hit well, five of them leading with an average of over 300. Lai Tin leads, with Yamashiro second of the regulars, although Yamashiro has played in more games than Lai Tin. The following games will give you an idea of our play up to April 14:

April 4.—Met the Hillsboro Boosters at the city park and before a large crowd were defeated 11 to 10. It was a slug fest and loosely played game and was played in a brisk wind.

The game was clinched in the third, when the score was 6 to 2 in our favor, but the boys began to loaf and we were finally defeated, much to our surprise.

Apau started and pitched a fine game, and was then relieved by Inman, who was hit hard and often. In the last inning, with two on and one to tie, Ako replaced Inman and was touched for a single, which gave them the game.

Chinese, hits...0 2 4 1 1 2 3 3 1—17
Runs...0 2 4 0 0 2 1 1 0—10
Hillsboro, hits...3 0 1 0 2 4 2 2—14
Runs...2 0 0 0 0 2 4 3—11
Batteries: Chinese—Apau, Inman, Ako and Chin. Hillsboro, Bounds and Black.

April 10.—Traveled to Stephenville, where we played the John Tarleton College team, and in a fast game beat them, 8-3. It was a fast game and was full of fast fielding.

No scoring was done until the third inning, when we started things. One down; Dot was safe on an error and Ako, J. Chin, Ayau singled and Yen Chin doubled. Four runs were scored. We scored one in the sixth, two in the seventh and one in the ninth.

Ako was on the firing line and pitched a splendid game, allowing seven scattered hits and three runs. His team-mates in the meantime had touched the opposing pitcher for nine hits and eight runs.

The game was witnessed by a large crowd.

Chinese, hits...0 0 4 0 0 1 1 1 2—9
Runs...0 0 4 0 0 1 1 1 1—8
Tarleton, hits...1 0 1 1 0 1 1 2—7
Runs...0 0 1 0 1 1 0 0—1
Batteries: Chinese—Ako and J. Chin. John Tarleton College—Finney and Turnbow.

April 12.—Met the same team again on the same grounds and played rings around them, winning handily, 14 to 1. It was an easy game and was quite one-sided.

Apau started and pitched until the fifth, when Swan, our perfect pitcher, relieved him. Apau allowed five hits and one run, while one hit was gathered off the delivery of Swan.

It was easy picking, for we scored when we felt like it. They scored their only run in the first inning on three consecutive singles.

Chinese, hits...0 0 3 0 3 2 0 2—15
Runs...0 0 3 0 3 2 0 3—14
Tarleton, hits...3 0 1 1 0 0 1 0—6
Runs...1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Batteries: Chinese—Apau, Swan and J. Chin. Tarleton—Hall, Segrest and Turnbow.

April 12.—Our next game was at Commerce, where we crossed bats with the East Texas Normal School and beat them, 5-1.

A parade was held prior to the game and the city turned out in full force to see the game.

Bill Inman, on the mound, pitched his best game to date, allowing five hits and one run and passing no one to first. A couple of the hits were of the scorchiest nature.

Dot and J. Chin featured with the bat, each hitting the pill for a homer over left field fence. Owens of the local team saved them from a shutout when he found Bill for the circuit in the ninth frame.

Chinese, hits...0 1 1 0 3 0 1 2—10
Runs...0 0 1 2 0 0 1 1—5
Normal, hits...0 0 1 0 2 0 1 0—5
Runs...0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1
Batteries: Chinese—Inman and J. Chin. Normal—Henderson and Johnson.

April 14.—Our next game was against the Austin College team at Sherman, Texas, and for the first time in three years were defeated by them 5 to 2.

Bo tried to do the comeback stunt and for five innings allowed three hits but weakened and was relieved by Ayau in the sixth. Ayau pitched a good game and allowed three hits and

Last night's match—Service 3, Honolulu 1.

Tonight's match—Oahu vs. Cheechakos.

P. B. C. vs. Dormitory Club.

Capt. Norris Stayton made the effort of his bowling career last night and knocked down 577 pins for an average of 192 1/3 in the Y. M. C. A. senior league. Stayton was high man for the evening and assisted materially in giving his Service team the victory over the Honolulu.

The Service won its first game with the fine score of 915. In the second Wmms and Gear cut loose, the former for 213, which was high score for the evening, and the Honolulu won the game 882 to 852.

In the rubber game the Hoas slumped, while the Army improved, and the result was never in doubt. Reed, bowling with a sore thumb, did splendidly, while Southpaw McCutchen continued the stellar work he has displayed of late. Winne was the Honolulu star performer.

Tonight the Oahu will show their form against the Cheechakos. Captain Emman's team is going well now and is determined to climb out of the cellar. The Oahu have the championship clinched by winning three games tonight and they will endeavor to salt it away. Tomorrow's match between the Dormitory Club and P. B. C. will probably settle the championship of the Club League and both clubs are out strictly to win. Last night's scores:

Covaleskie Did Not Oppose Kid Brother in Game

For the first time in 20 years two brothers were scheduled to meet each other on the mound in a big league game. This was in Cleveland on April 17, but one of the brothers balked. Harry Covaleskie is the star southpaw of the Detroit Tigers. Stanley Covaleskie broke into the big league with Cleveland this year, coming from Portland in the East League.

Stanley was billed to pitch for Cleveland, and Jennings asked Harry to oppose him. The Tiger portlander refused, stating that he did not want to try to defeat his kid brother in his first big league experience. Jennings had opposed the kid and in the first time at bat the younger Covaleskie fanned Ty Cobb, and was congratulated by his brother. The younger Covaleskie lost the game after a battle of 12 innings.

Up to March 25, the net increase of the British merchant marine was 344,000 tons over that before the war.

Two runs, while three were made off Bo.

We were held scoreless until the eighth inning, when Ako singled, J. Chin walked and on an error and a two-bagger by Yim we tallied twice.

The game was witnessed by a small crowd, as it threatened to rain.
