

CONVENTION IN HONOLULU FOR 1919 IS PLAN

Y. M. C. A. Officers and Directors Seek to Secure Semi-Centennial Gathering

A resolution favoring a Pan-Pacific Y. M. C. A. secretaries' conference, to be held in Honolulu during 1918 or 1919, was favorably voted upon at a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directors yesterday afternoon at the association building.

Directors believe that this is the most ambitious attempt that Honolulu has ever made in the convention line, as delegates from Japan, China, Australia, New Zealand and all sections of America bordering on the Pacific will be present.

President Frank C. Atherton was named as a delegate to interview Y. M. C. A. secretaries of the Northwest on the possibilities of bringing the convention here. A. E. Larimer was named as the delegate to interview the Y. M. C. A. officials in California.

Prominent international leaguers will be communicated with in regard to the feasibility of holding the convention here. It was voted that in case the convention is assured the local association raise a fund for the entertainment of visitors.

In 1919 the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the local association will be celebrated and it is thought that the two features could be held the same year. Members of the board of directors of the association are confident that the convention would be a big boost for Honolulu and would be a step in securing future conventions in this city.

New Officers Elected.
At the meeting yesterday afternoon officers were elected for the ensuing year. Frank C. Atherton, who has been an officer of the association for 13 years, was re-elected president; William G. Hall was named as vice president; Robert Anderson as secretary and Richard A. Cooke as treasurer.

A. E. Larimer will go to the mainland May 31, where he will be busy with a number of engagements, one of which will be his marriage. He will attend the Y. M. C. A. summer meeting at Lake Geneva, Wis., which opens the latter part of June. He is expected to return the first week in August.

During his absence Jay A. Urice, educational secretary, will act as executive secretary. He will also have supervision over the education department. William H. Dreier, intern secretary, has tendered his resignation and will go to the mainland June 23 to study for the ministry. Richard Whitcomb, at present membership secretary, will oversee the work in the intermediate department, and it is expected that a new man will arrive here soon to help in the office and in the intermediate department.

Members present passed upon the reports for the fiscal year ending April 30 and every department showed a gain over the previous year. Those present at the meeting were: Frank C. Atherton, W. G. Hall, Robert Anderson, H. G. Dillingham, C. H. Atherton, Ed Towse, C. B. Ripley, Robt. B. Anderson, Emil A. Berard, George C. Potter, Charles F. Clemons, Richard H. Trent, L. R. Killam and A. E. Larimer. The following report of the growth of various activities was handed in and passed upon:

OPIMUM DEN KEEPERS FIND CASE SERIOUS WHEN BEFORE COURT

Keepers of opium dens have realized in the last few days that they can't "muck" with the police. Yesterday Judge Monsarrat sentenced one to eight months and today Lau Chong was given nine months.

In another column of this paper is a story of how Chong came to the police station looking for his friend, but fell into the meshes of the law himself.

"We want to catch every opium outfit possible," said Capt. McDuffie today, "and after a few more sentences like the judge gave yesterday and today have been passed out the 'hop heads' won't be so apparent. We are looking especially for those places where the soldiers go to smoke. It is a shame that their uniforms should be decorated in such a manner and we're going to remove the means if possible."

DUAL BATHING MAY COME UNDER NUISANCE LAW

Japanese Seeking to Have the Practise Discontinued Can Invoke Statutes

Dual bathing in Honolulu may be stopped without a campaign of education, according to the interpretation of section 4122 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, which would class dual bathing under the head of common nuisances. Japanese interested in the fight for the prevention of dual bathing have made a campaign of education against the evil, as they did not interpret the law as opposed to this practise.

S. Fujii of Hilo, who is now in Honolulu, is the father of the campaign against dual bathing. He has devoted his entire time to the cause during the past year and in that time he has abolished the system of men and women bathing together in the Japanese public bath houses in three of the islands.

Mr. Fujii first started his campaign in Hawaii, and from there went to Maui and then to Kauai. In every island he succeeded in forcing separate bath rooms for men and women. He is now in this island working out a campaign of education, and expects that his work will bring results.

"It is a deplorable condition," he said when talking on the subject, "and for the best interests of the Japanese people the practise is to be condemned. A campaign of education may be necessary to abolish this practise."

DRINK PROBLEM FOR ONE WOMAN HARD TO SOLVE

What to do with a woman who drinks incessantly, who cares nothing for a jail sentence, who harasses her husband and neglects her children, was the problem that confronted Judge J. M. Monsarrat this morning in the case of Helen Miguel.

Just two days ago Helen was released from jail after serving one month. Yesterday she got roaring drunk, fell from a door step bruising her face and then ran to a policeman to have her husband arrested for assault. Instead, she was taken to jail herself.

On the stand this morning Helen told the judge that she was at her home in Iwilei asleep when her husband came home, aroused her and beat her. She showed a damaged countenance in evidence.

When the husband went on the stand he told a straight story of how his wife came home drunk, as usual, and started to curse him. Then she staggered out and fell from a step. The husband related that he had lost a steady job which he had held for nine years with the Oahu railroad on account of his wife's actions.

"We have two little children," explained the husband, "but instead of staying home and caring for them she used to get drunk and come down to where I was working until I had to quit my job."

Prosecutor Chillingworth verified this. "I will have to sentence you to three months," said the judge, "but I doubt if it does any good."

JUDGE WHITNEY NAMES HUTTON COURT OFFICER

New Juvenile Court Official Has Had Experience That Should Prove Valuable

work his selection is particularly suitable. Many remarks in favor of the selection were heard upon the streets this afternoon when it was noised about that he had the job.

For two years Hutton has been doing work for the detective department. He has been in Honolulu four years. Prior to his connection with the police Hutton was in charge of the restaurant and cook-house at Camp Castner. He lives in Kaimuki with his sister and daughter.

Hutton came to Honolulu from San Francisco. "Here he did lots of work with the boys. For five years he was probation officer of the juvenile court there. He was physical instructor of the Columbia Park Boys' Club, and built the first public playgrounds in San Francisco. He was superintendent of the playgrounds for some time afterwards. In Mrs. Hearst's South Park Settlement Hutton had charge of the boys' and men's work. He also did work with the boys in People's Place, institutional church work.

During his residence in Honolulu Mr. Hutton has taken an active interest in Boy Scout activities and is now scoutmaster of Troop 4.

"I am glad to get the new position," said Mr. Hutton this afternoon, "for it is more in my line, but I regret leaving Captain McDuffie's squad, as my relations with the captain and his men have always been the most pleasant."

M'DUFFIE NOT MIXED IN T. G. JONES AFFAIR

Says He Sent No Cable to As-certain if Plumber is Heir to $35,000

Who is going to be the wife of Thomas G. Jones, purported heir to $35,000; whether he intends to pick one of the many women who have responded to his matrimonial offer; and who started the report that Detective Capt. A. McDuffie had cabled to New York to confirm the story, are questions which are bothering several persons today.

McDuffie today denied a story published this morning that he had cabled to Jones' supposed lawyers in New York to find out whether Jones was $35,000 due him.

"I know nothing about this case except what I have read in the papers," says McDuffie. "I haven't sent any cable and don't intend to. No one has complained to me about the case."

A telephone call to Bath's plumbing establishment today received the trite answer that Mr. Jones was a mighty busy man, and that his time was valuable to the company. The young woman who answered the phone said she did not know whether Jones had picked a wife or not.
