The Navy Relief Ball.
The Navy Relief Ball last night was the unqualified success that Honolulu knew it would be with Mrs. Clifford Boush at the helm. It was a brilliant event and everyone attending was charmed with the handsome decorations, brilliant lighting effects and the splendid evening. The background of pepper branches, cocoon leaves, handsome palms and hibiscus blossoms turned the usually business-like armory into a woodland.

The handsome gowns worn by the ladies and the smart uniforms of the officers gave an unusual impression. It is hard indeed to mention one frock without speaking of every other one there as the number of lovely ones was large. Some among those in boxes were Governor Pinkham, Admiral and Mrs. Clifford J. Boush, Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisser, Mayor and Mrs. John Lane, Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole, Miss Geraldine Boush, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case Deering, Commander T. C. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne, Judge and Mrs. E. M. Watson, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad C. von Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley, Mr. Francis Hatch, Col. and Mrs. D. L. Howell, Major Weigel, Col. and Mrs. J. B. Houston, Chief Justice, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Cooper, Chief Justice and Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carter of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Band, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Swanzy, Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisser, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Civil Engineer and Mrs. C. W. Parks, Miss Frear, Mrs. William Zane, Commander and Mrs. Arthur Crenshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers. Others among those noticed were Col. and Mrs. F. C. Reynolds, Maj. and Mrs. Gideon McD. Van Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dekum, Miss Louise Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hawes, Capt. and Mrs. J. Leithan, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Sloan of Fort Shafter, Maj. and Mrs. D. B. Case, Miss Betty Case, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. High, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Balch, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Mrs. K. Bodrero, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Laura Low, Miss Kopke, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Hazel Buckland, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bode, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Agee, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Buchly, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Damon, Mrs. Harold Giffard, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Kilbourne, Miss Rose Herbert, Mr. "Kelley" Henshaw, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Mr. "Kit" Carson, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Young, Miss Alice Hoops, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Miss Harriet Young, Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke, Mr. Ed Hede-mann, Mr. Bob McCroriston, Mr. Percy Deverill, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Miss Helen Kimball.

Miss Ruth McChesney, who will be one of the four solo dancers in the June Fantasy.

Brig-gen. and Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson's party at the Navy Relief Ball. Brig-gen. and Mrs. Johnson, N. G. H., gave one of the largest box parties at the Navy Relief Ball. Twenty-one were in their party. After the ball the Johnsons and their guests motored to Heine's, where supper awaited them, after which they danced until the wee sma' hours. The tables were most attractive, being decorated with American Beauty roses and spring flowers.

Gen. and Mrs. Johnson's guests were Col. and Mrs. Charles D. Lincoln, Capt. and Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson, Mr. and Mrs. William Williamson, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford B. High, Mrs. James Ward Russell, Miss Myra Angus, Miss Edith Williams, Maj. L. W. Redington, N. G. H.; Mr. Frank E. Thompson, Lieut. Fred W. Wichman, N. G. H.; C. R. Forbes and Maj. Matthew De Laney, U. S. A. Mrs. Samuel Johnson was one of the most handsomely gowned women at the navy ball. Her dress was an imported gold lace over gold chiffon and her shoes and hosiery were gold in color. It was a beautiful creation. Mrs. Clarence Olson was fascinating in a handsome white chiffon net with an embroidered pattern woven in pearls.

Mrs. William Williamson's dark beauty was enhanced by a pale blue lace with silver underslip.

Miss Edith Williams was in a wonderful creation of white lace over white satin with touches of gold and green.

Mrs. Charles Chillingworth looked regal in a butter-colored chiffon with silver trimmings and a dash of old blue. Miss Myra Angus wore a very handsome gown of old blue chiffon with touches of silver and pearl trimmings.

Mrs. Gustav Schaefer was indeed much admired in an apricot and gold shimmering silk chiffon made very severe.

Mrs. Clifford B. High was attractive in purple chiffon velvet with shoes to match.

Mrs. George Angus was very handsome in an all-black lace gown without a vestige of color.

June Fantasy Plans.
The June Fantasy will probably be the last performance to be held in the old familiar Opera House, as condemnation proceedings have already started in the courts for the federal building site here. The Opera House has so long been "one of us" that it is hard to realize Honolulu without it. However, all hope that a new up-to-date structure will soon replace this old landmark.

Everyone, no doubt, will want to bid the old building farewell and the house promises to be crowded.

The June Fantasy will be a show well worthy to serve as the farewell appearance of the Opera House. The pictures will be posed for by many handsome society women and will be true reproductions of the paintings they represent.

The musical numbers will feature some of the best known amateur musicians here, such as Reynold McGrew, the Messrs. Dillingham and the well known Evans boys.

The Zarasturo ballet will be artistic in every sense of the word.

Mrs. T. L. Breton has the leading role and she will be assisted by the following girls: Misses Hazel Buckland, Ruth McChesney, Doris Noble, Louise Girvin, Margaret Hawk, Ilma Woods, Rachael Woods, Florence Hoffman, Rhoda Ballentyne, Ruth Farrington, Sybil Robertson, Pauline Schaefer, Louise McCarthy, Letitia Morgan, Katherine Lenihan, Helen McLean, Lavery Low, Mesdames Howard Bode, C. H. Olson, Arthur Gilman and A. G. M. Robertson.

Mrs. and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy's Kualoa Outing.
Col. William C. Rafferty is the guest of honor at a delightful outing that Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy planned in his honor. They leave today for the Swanzy's country home, Kualoa, and will return on Sunday afternoon. Twelve guests will enjoy this weekend at this charming home on the other side of the island.

Mrs. Louis E. Davis Gives a Series of Luncheons.
Beginning on this past Thursday, Mrs. L. E. Davis will be hostess every week, giving a luncheon to a small company of guests. It is a very wise way to entertain, as it is almost impossible, unless one takes the Country Club, to give a large affair including all one's friends, and most Honolulu folk like the small affairs much better.

Mrs. Davis' house and table on Thursday was most artistically trimmed with shell-pink hibiscus and lace fern and baskets of ferns and lovely palms made the rooms most attractive. Dainty name cards marked

Mrs. Gideon McD. Van Poole A Card Hostess.
Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Van Poole entertained with a large card party. The house was trimmed with shell-pink hibiscus, pink roses and pink sweet peas with baskets of pink Cecil Bruner roses and fern. After several good rubbers of bridge, gifts were awarded as follows: Mrs. Charles A. Ragan for highest scoring. She was given a very handsome tray with a beautiful piece of Chinese embroidery on it. Mrs. Frank R. Keeler was given a hand-painted fan hanging from a jade bracelet. Mrs. Powell Fauntleroy received the same sort of gift for her clever scoring. Mrs. Edward Dekum was gently consoled with two pretty crepe de

Mrs. Jack Hayes poured tea, Mrs. William P. Kendall poured coffee, while Mrs. Clarence Day of Schofield assisted Mrs. Van Poole in the reception and entertainment of her guests, who were: Mrs. John P. Wisser, Mrs. William P. Kendall, Mrs. Frank R. Keeler, Mrs. Charles A. Ragan, Miss Elizabeth McCue, Mrs. Chalmers Hall, Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan, Mrs. Powell Fauntleroy, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Clarence R. Day, Mrs. James A. Cochran and Mrs. A. C. Knowles.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Focke's Dinner.
Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Herman Focke entertained a company of friends at dinner, after which the party attended the Harold Castle dance. Mr. and Mrs. Focke's guests

Mrs. Victor Houston, wife of Capt. Houston, U. S. N., and a former Honolulu girl, Pinao Brickwood, niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Giffard. After living in San Francisco for more than a year she has gone to Bremerton, Wash., where her husband is stationed.

were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Captain and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton, Mrs. Alice Schultz, Major Matthew Delaney and Mr. G. Wilder.

A Week-End Party.
Last Saturday and Sunday was spent at charming "Luakaha" by the members of the Minutes Club. When Sunday evening came all left very reluctantly indeed. Those at the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McKenzie, Miss Catherine Blake, Miss Charlotte Blake, Miss Margaret Thurston, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Le. Miss Alice Hoops, Miss Gladys Halitia Morgan, Miss Ramona Maris, Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Helen McLean, Miss Grace Morgan, Mr. Jimmie Morgan, Mr. Roy Patten, Mr. Corycroft, Mr. Frank Midkiff, Mr. Hebbard Case, Mr. Harold Morgan, Mr. William Barnhart, Mr. Leslie Hicks, Mr. William Alexander, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne's Dinner.
Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chutun Ballentyne entertained at dinner. A dainty floral arrangement of spring blossoms made the table most attractive. Mr. and Mrs. Ballentyne's guests were Judge and Mrs. E. M. Watson, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Annie Hartnagle, Mr. Douglas Young and Mr. Watson Ballentyne. After dinner the party attended the Navy Relief Ball.

The Minutes Meeting.
The Minutes held a meeting Thursday with Miss Laura Atherton as hostess. After the election of officers refreshments were served and a pleasant hour spent in social chat and needle work. Miss Ruth Richards was made president, Miss Ramona Morgan vice-president, Miss Margaret Thurston secretary, and Miss Letitia Morgan treasurer.

Mrs. Charles P. Durney will come to Honolulu on Saturday morning from Maui, where she and Dr. Durney have been living for several years. Mrs. Durney leaves on Wednesday for a visit to the mainland, going to see relatives. On Monday evening Miss Rosie Herbert will give a dinner at the Country Club in her honor.

An Afternoon at the Outrigger Club.
Mrs. Carl Hardigg had a half a dozen guests out for a swim and tea at the Outrigger Club on Wednesday afternoon. A dip in the ocean and a refreshing cup of tea made a very pleasant way for Mrs. Hardigg to entertain, the guests being Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Catherine Lenihan and Miss May Marshall of Hilo.

The Morning Music Club.
The morning Music Club held its annual business meeting on Wednesday morning and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Ernest A. R. Ross, president; Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, vice-president, and Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson, secretary-treasurer. It was the last meeting until the second Wednesday in October. Miss Caldwell read a paper on "Modern Songs and Orchestras," which was very interesting.

Mrs. Albert Horner a Luncheon Hostess.
Mrs. Albert Horner entertained yesterday at luncheon. The hour after was spent at a rubber of bridge. Mrs. Horner's guests were Mrs. James B.
