SCOUTS ARE BEST STUDENTS.

Editor of Scouting:
Sir: In looking over the school reports in our city for the last school period, I find that in two grades, the seventh and eighth, we have 45 boys who are Scouts and 55 boys who are not Scouts. I compared the two bodies of boys as to their grades to obtain facts with which to meet the disapproval of parents who complained that Scout work keeps the boy from his studies. The following table has effectively answered this complaint, and I am sending it to you in the hope that other officials will find it useful.
Out of 100 boys, 45 are Scouts, and their grades follow:
7B-13 Scouts average 85.2
7A-17 Scouts average 82.4
8B-17 Scouts average 87.7
8A-9 Scouts average 80.9
The 45 Scouts have an average of 84 per cent.
The other 55 have the following:
7B-27 boys average 79.3
7A-17 boys average 79.8
8B-8 boys average 81.8
8A-3 boys average 83.
These 55 boys have an average of 80.9 per cent.
Out of 55 boys, two fell below passing, or grade of 75 per cent.
Out of 32 Scouts in high school, all received passing grades. And out of all Scouts in this city we have not a Scout that failed to receive a passing grade. This little report is going to be a great help to the Boy Scout movement in this city.—W. W. Blakely, Scout Commissioner, Shelbyville, Ind.

SCOUTS MOBILIZE QUICKLY TO AID AT TRAIN WRECK.

A remarkable demonstration of scout efficiency was given in Richmond, Va., on February 17, when a report reached the city that a train had been wrecked and that half a hundred people had been badly injured. Scout Executive Weaver was asked to mobilize the scouts for duty. A mobilization order was issued and in exactly 12 minutes the first group of scouts reported, equipped for service. In 25 minutes 200 scouts were assembled in line under the scoutmasters, awaiting orders.
Businessmen volunteered the use of their automobiles and 75 picked scouts were rushed to the wreck. On arriving on the scene it was found that the reports of the seriousness of the wreck had been considerably exaggerated and there was little for the scouts to do.
The people of Richmond, however, have had a striking demonstration of the possibilities of the Boy Scouts as an emergency relief agency and they will remember it in spite of the fact that on this particular occasion there was nothing special for the scouts to do.

Noticed by the captain of the S. S. Locksun hereby gives notice that he will not be responsible for any personal debts contracted by the members of his crew.
