HEIRESS COMING HERE NEXT JUNE TO MARRY DOYLE

At Least This is Announcement of Coast Paper; "Chet" Says He "Knows Nothing"

Rumor has it that Chester A. Doyle, raconteur, man about town and circuit court interpreter, is engaged to the "richest girl in Salt Lake City." "I don't know anything," declared Mr. Doyle today, when shown an item from a coast paper which states that the young lady, whose name is Miss Gladys Hagney, will leave shortly for Honolulu to marry Mr. Doyle. "Yes, I know the young woman," Mr. Doyle confessed. "I met her when she was here before, but as to being engaged to her—well, as I said before, I don't know anything."

Says the mainland paper: "Could have a new strafe to his bow. It is the wireless. In proof of its effectiveness in binding two hearts to beat as one, a romance began in the tropic clime of Honolulu and brought to a betrothal by several proposals over the wireless was learned at Venice today when Miss Gladys Hagney, daughter of a Salt Lake City millionaire, announced her engagement to Chester Doyle of Honolulu."

"Miss Hagney is at present visiting in Venice at the Oceanic hotel. But before that she was a visitor at Honolulu, where she met Mr. Doyle, a prominent attorney and a Japanese interpreter. "It was love at first sight with Mr. Doyle. But however the captivating girl's heart beat at the first meeting, she refused to admit it then. "Mr. Doyle pressed his suit, but when Miss Hagney asked back to the States the only promise she would give was to think about it."

"A few hours out from shore she received a wireless proposal from the sailor she had left behind. Another wireless message was flashed across the widening waters to her the next day. Before she reached San Francisco she had received a number of wireless proposals—and had made up her mind. "On docking she wirelessed back a precious 'Yes.' "The marriage will be on June 15 in Honolulu, for Miss Hagney will go there for the ceremony, accompanied by her mother. The latter owned an extensive system of storehouses in Salt Lake."

KIPAHOU SUGAR MAY BE RAISED TO BIGGER CROP

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
WAILUKU, Maui, May 28.—With the high price of sugar and two unusually favorable growing seasons, Kipahou plantation promises to be better than most gold mines to its owners in the next year or two. Although this year's crop will amount to only about 500 tons of sugar, owing to the fact that the former owners had intended to abandon it, and had stripped it of about all the cane capable of making any juice at all, next season, it is predicted it will show a 2000-ton yield. Guy H. Buttolph, the well known Honolulu broker, who is associated with John Pascho and William Williamson in the plantation, returned to Honolulu on Wednesday of this week after having spent a week looking into matters on the plantation. It is understood that he is exceedingly well pleased with the outlook. The probability of developing more water for the plantation occupied a good deal of Mr. Buttolph's time.

[Special Cable to Hawaii Hoehi.]
TOKIO, Japan, May 30.—Despatches from Shanghai last night announced that the British authorities at the Chinese city have arrested Chai Tenschow, one of the revolutionary leaders, and an assistant to Dr. Sun Yat Sen. The charge against him is passing counterfeit paper money. It is said that he had passed one million yen ($500,000) in the paper currency of the revolution. It is believed that other revolutionary leaders will be arrested on the same charge.

The Danish papers, says the report, have already expressed fears of a shortage of coffee in that country.

DATA WORTHLESS ONCE BECOMES IMPORTANT NOW

Position That Was Sinecure Six Years Ago Would Give Needed Figures

Late in 1910 a man, name forgotten now, needed a job. He was a good vote getter, it is said around the city hall. He wasn't a man used to hard work so he couldn't be put out on the roads. There wasn't an inside job to be had, and it wouldn't do to put him on the payroll and have him hanging around the city hall doing nothing, so a job on the outside was made for him.

He was put to checking traffic all through the city. Idling about the street corners he counted the automobiles, the bicycles, the horse-drawn vehicles that passed. Every few weeks he put in a report to the road supervisor. Every two weeks an appropriation for his pay was passed by the board.

There is probably a record of the salary paid to him, but today there is no record of what he did for it. And today what he did would be extremely valuable. The results of his checking were never reported to the board and no trace can be found of his work in the records of the road department. And they have been gone through with a fine tooth comb, for the city engineer wants them mighty bad. They would show the increase in traffic, the change in the percentage of horse-drawn and motor vehicles and many other things that would be valuable when it comes to determining the type of pavement to be laid on a street.

SEWER CHARGES MUST BE PAID CRISTY WRITES

Letters demanding an immediate settlement of their bills for sewer service for the last four or five years have been sent to a dozen or so property owners by A. M. Cristy, deputy city attorney, at the request of Harry Murray, manager of the water works. "The charge for sewer privilege stands as a lien against the property," said Cristy. "Unless payment is made quickly suit will be entered for the enforcement of the lien. It has not been attempted heretofore, as Murray says he hoped the delinquents would come through without making trouble. A collector has been put on the trail of the delinquents, an effort has been made to collect the tax in installments, everything possible has been done to get the money in without going to law. Now it has to be done."

Prominent in the list of delinquents is the Kapolani Estate, owners of the Kapolani Building, which houses the office of the sewer department. Frank Pacheco, Lucy K. Peabody and Armstrong & McCandless are other well-known names to be seen on the list. Most of them have not paid for their sewer privileges since 1911.

PUNAHOU'S ROLL OF HONOR ENDED

After careful consideration which has continued over several months the trustees of Oahu College have discontinued the roll of honor at Punahou. With the inscription of the name of Joseph R. Farrington of the class of 1915 upon the plate the original plate was completed. Since in the belief of the trustees the original object of the establishment of the roll of honor which was to call attention to the desirability of service to the school and to Hawaii has been served, the decision not to go on with it has been made.

How Mauna Loa's Lava Flow Crushed Down Verdure-Clad Side of Mountain

Here is another photograph showing how the lava flow from Mauna Loa comes down the mountain. The picture, taken by Dr. V. E. Colville of Hilo shows the lower end of the lava flow, about 1 1/2 miles above the government road at Honolulua. The man with the stick is actually poking the lava flow to secure specimens, the flow advancing so slow that he is perfectly safe in standing in front of it. All of this beautiful vegetation in the path of the flow is destroyed.

GOOD SYSTEMS FOR ACCOUNTING BUSINESS NEED

Advertising Men in Annual Convention Will Recommend Costs Systems

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 29.—Convinced that an advertiser, to be successful, must be a good business man in all particulars, the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which will meet in annual convention here June 2 to 30, have joined with other important agencies in a plan to set up a standard cost accounting system in the more important lines of retailing. The report of a special committee, appointed some time ago, will show that systems are being prepared for five important lines of business, and that the advertising men's committee has the cooperation of the federal trade commission, Harvard University and others.

Need of Accounting Systems.
In recent years the advertising club movement has been broadened in many respects and one of the things that has occupied the especial attention of the advertising men in the last year has been the alarming increase in the business death rate of this country. There are now about 15,000 business failures a year and one of the chief causes of failure, investigation has shown, is that business men do not have such accounting systems as will show them what is the matter with their business. They are not able, without a proper accounting system, to diagnose the cause of their business ills.

In addition to the attention the subject will receive through the report of the special committee, Edward N. Hurley, vice-chairman of the federal trade commission, who has given the subject of the business death rate much thought, will tell of some of the plans of the commission in its effort to provide accounting systems.

WAITE'S RELATIONS TO PETITION FOR RETRIAL

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.]
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 30.—Relatives of Dr. Arthur T. Waite, the young dentist, tennis player and poisoner, convicted of having murdered Mr. and Mrs. John Peck of this city, his father and mother-in-law, have decided that they will ignore his wishes and file an appeal in his case to the New York court of appeals. Just when this will be done a brother of Waite, who lives here, declined to say last night, but the presumption is that the action will be taken immediately.

JAPANESE AVIATOR JOINS CHINESE REVOLUTIONISTS

[Special Cable to Hawaii Hoehi.]
TOKIO, Japan, May 30.—The Japanese aviator, Y. Ozaki, son of the Japanese minister of justice, has accepted an invitation extended by Dr. Sun Yat Sen to join the revolutionary army in China. He will leave here for Shanghai within a few days with two aeroplanes. His father has given his consent.

STEVEDORES TO TIE UP SHIPPING ON PACIFIC COAST

Waterfront Employers Reject Men's Demands and Strike is Ordered for June 1

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 30.—Twelve thousand longshoremen and riggers at work in the ports of the Pacific coast, from San Diego to Alaska, will go on strike on June 1, tying up shipping and threatening business in all of the coast states. The Waterfront Employers' association, after a prolonged discussion of the demands made by the men, decided yesterday absolutely to reject the terms demanded. They will not give the 55 cents an hour and the $1 an hour overtime insisted upon by the workers, claiming that the demands are unreasonable.

JAPAN CONSUL'S AGENT VISITING MAUI DISTRICTS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.]
HANA, May 29.—A high Japanese dignitary has just arrived in Hana, M. Konda, secretary to the Japanese consul at Honolulu. In the name of his government and in the interests of the Japanese in the islands is making an official visit to the different islands to study and see at first hand the conditions under which his people are living here.

Mr. Konda has been in the islands as an official for the past three years. Before coming to Honolulu he was located in Northern China. The change in climate he considers very delightful, even if it does seem hot at times. The people and the government under which his countrymen are living here in the islands he considers most ideal. His praise of American institutions, ways, habits and customs is unstinted. Having had a long and very honorable career as a public official and diplomat he knows whereof he speaks.

Hana was selected as one of the first places to be visited on Maui by reason of its large and prosperous Japanese colony. Words of praise and appreciation were not stinted as he visited one and another of the settlements and saw the conditions under which the men and women are doing their work and living their lives. The people seem prosperous, busy and happy. They have nothing but words of appreciation for the treatment accorded them by the manager of the Kaeleku Sugar Company, John Chalmers. Mr. Konda will take the Haleakala trip and promises to visit Hana often, having been most delightfully entertained while here.

Canada's trade for the fiscal year ended March 31 last amounted to $1,309,511,866.

KITCHIN WOULD DELAY BUILDING NEW BATTLESHIPS

Declares Plans Should Await Finish of War; Contract Prices Too High

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 30.—Representative Kitchin, the Democratic house leader, is in favor of the naval appropriation bill as it stands, although with certain reservations. He made this plain in an interview given out last night in which he discussed the bill at some length. He said that he believes certain sections and provisions of the proposed measure are unnecessary. He thinks that the bill provides a greater degree of preparedness than is needed at present, and he is opposed to the plan for a five-year program. It is foolish, he declared, "to contract for ships at the current high prices, when after the war there undoubtedly will be a reduction that will mean a great deal to the treasury of the United States."

The measure will come to a vote on Friday, according to the house calendar.

VISIT TO MAUNA LOA MADE BY DR. TROTTER

Dr. F. E. Trotter, head of the quarantine service here, returned from Hawaii Sunday on the Matsconia from a visit to the volcanoes. He visited the flow which at the time of his visit had practically ceased moving. He said that while the outside of the flow is black, the inside is still on fire. When this flow first started it moved at the rate of five miles an hour and the people on the ranch fled for safety, but they have now returned to their homes.

SLAV COMMANDER DRIVES CRUISER ON SUNKEN REEF

Love For Teuton Wife Blamed for Traitorous Act; Captain Commits Suicide

[Special Cable to Hawaii Hoehi.]
TOKIO, Japan, May 30.—Persuaded to do the deed by the love for his wife, the daughter of a well-known German statesman, Capt. Kovimadoff, commanding the Russian cruiser recently purchased from the Japanese government, ran his ship upon a sunken reef off the harbor of Vladivostok yesterday in an attempt to wreck his command. His effort failed, for the bugs sent to the rescue of the stranded warship managed to haul her off the rocks in a few hours. Then Capt. Kovimadoff shot and killed himself in his cabin on his way back to port. The cruiser, 12,674 tons burden, was formerly the Sagami, and was sold to the Russian government by the Japanese admiralty several weeks ago and sent to Vladivostok for her trial trip. There she was turned over to the Russian naval officers to be in shape for the trials and the command given to Kovimadoff. It was known that the commander had secret leanings toward the Teuton side in the present war owing to his family connections and he had been sent to Vladivostok in order to remove him from the possible temptation of playing into German hands in the Baltic.

Sales receipts of the Territorial Marketing Division will be about $100,000 this month, according to Superintendent A. T. Longley. This is considerably larger than any similar month. Next month the sales will run between $12,000 and $15,000, says Longley. The large increase next month will be largely due to the new business brought in by the retail market, told about in detail last week in the Star-Bulletin. Retail sale of practically all meats, vegetables and fruits found on the islands will begin Thursday, June 1. Longley says any woman with a market basket can find what she wants at the Marketing Division, beginning Thursday, and will save money there. New refrigerator, counters, shelves and containers are receiving a coat of white paint today, and will be kept white and clean all the time, according to Longley. Hereafter small consignments will be carefully inspected by the division before acceptance from the producer; a price will be set on it and it will be sold directly to the consumer on a small margin of profit.

SALES RECEIPTS OF TERRITORIAL MARKET GROW

German-Americans vote for strict neutrality.

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless.]
CHICAGO, Ill., May 30.—German-Americans, representing churches, social and business organizations, at a meeting here yesterday, passed a resolution denouncing utterances tending to create racial division in the United States. The resolution also demands that the country return to the simple neutrality as understood by George Washington, when he warned the nation against entangling alliances with European countries. It urges that the administration adopt a foreign policy which will secure the protection of Americans. The resolution also expresses the hope that no party will nominate a candidate to the presidency who has views tending to the creation of racial differences and division, and it asserts that such a candidate, should he receive the nomination of any party, would be "unworthy of support."
