Late News At A Glance

NEW JERSEY WIRELESS HEARD A AUSTRALIA.
What is probably one of the longest distances a message was ever picked up in the wireless world occurred May 31 when the Oceanic steamer Ventura left Australia, and is reported here today by that steamer. As the Ventura left the harbor of Sydney Chief Operator Oswald heard the operator at Tuckerton, N. J., send a message to Germany, a distance of 9000 nautical miles, or nearly 10,333 land miles, which is equivalent to about two-fifths of the way around the world. According to Oswald the message was very distinct and he could understand every word clearly.

E. Arnold.

FILES LABELS AGAINST FIVE VESSELS.
U. S. Attorney S. C. Huber this afternoon filed in federal court complaints against the masters of the steamers China, Mongolia, Siberia, Manchuria and Korea in an endeavor to secure the payments of mitigated fines against those vessels, some of which were imposed as early as 1912, the matters having been pending in the district attorney's office until the present.

JOINT MEETING CONSIDERS R. T. FRANCHISE.
Members of a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, including S. S. Paxon, J. P. Child, J. A. Balch and Raymond C. Brown, are meeting with the public utilities commission this afternoon to discuss the Rapid Transit charter. Among the questions brought up is at what figure the transit capital shall stand in the proposed franchise, and whether or not the matter of rates shall be considered in it. Chairman Forbes stated at the meeting that the governor is expected to have his study of the franchise completed within a few days. The committee objected to making any thorough report on the franchise until the governor and the commission have submitted it complete.

Coke, In Salary Issue, Wireleses He's Not Doing Politics at St. Louis

James L. Coke, attorney for the public utilities commission, has no intention of "doing politics" at St. Louis. He says so in a Marconigram received by the commission from San Francisco.

A day or two after Coke sailed for the coast rather suddenly recently, rumors reached the commission that Coke was going to St. Louis as attorney for Dr. J. H. Raymond, who was contesting for the Maui place on the Hawaii delegation to the big convention. In fact, Chairman Pacheco of the Democratic central committee said that he had a letter from Coke informing the committee that he represented Raymond as his attorney in the contest.

Chairman Forbes of the commission thereupon had a hasty round-up of the other members and as a result dispatched a cablegram to Coke saying that if he, Coke, should go to St. Louis to do politics for any interest his salary as attorney for the utilities commission would be stopped. Coke was absent on two months' leave at full salary, and supposedly was to work for the commission in Washington.

A few days ago, it was learned this morning, Coke sent to the commission the following Marconigram:

"Have no intention of appearing as attorney or otherwise for any political interest at St. Louis."

It was said at the commission's office this morning that his salary has not been held up.

ORDNANCE DEPOT FOR SHAFTER IS GIVEN APPROVAL

Word has just been received at army headquarters to the effect that the proposed $300,000 appropriation for an ordnance depot at Fort Shafter has been favorably reported and is now awaiting the action of the house. The appropriation bill comes under what is known as the sundry civil bill, and has already been approved by the president. As the document is a house bill it has yet to go to the senate, and will, upon approval there, become a reality.

Surveys here have been made so that work can be commenced without delay.

It was stated today at army headquarters that the two heavy motor tractors, which have been ordered to this department for conveying heavy guns of the field artillery, have not arrived, but are expected at any time. They were shipped from Peoria, Ill., May 30.

Because she lied to him John Ah Luke slapped his wife and made her nose bleed, he said in police court this morning, and the blow cost him $20.

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

HYPHEN ISSUE BRINGS HUGHES OUT IN REPLY

Declares Anyone Supporting Him is Supporting "Out-and-out" American

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
NEW YORK, June 13.—Answering reporters who questioned him insistently today regarding his attitude toward support offered him as a presidential candidate by German-Americans, Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate, declared that his attitude is "one of undiluted Americanism."

"Anyone who is supporting me is supporting an out-and-out American, and an out-and-out American policy, and nothing else," he declared.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 12.—President Wilson delivered a notable and significant address today to the graduates of the United States Military Academy here, in the course of which he touched upon many of the national issues which will figure in the presidential campaign.

A large crowd, among whom were many prominent men, including Maj. Gen. George W. Goethals, the canal builder, heard the address.

The president discussed "militarism," Americanism, the causes of the European war, peace, the Monroe doctrine, divided allegiance in the United States and the ideals of America.

"The present imperative duty of the United States is to be prepared," he said. "Mankind is going to know that when America speaks, she means what she says."

Shaking his fingers in an emphatic gesture he declared that nobody who does not "put America first" can be tolerated, adding that true Americans should set a good example to all within national borders.

Rumor Two Former Hawaii Boys Lost In Jutland Battle

Lieuts. Colin and Donald Campbell Subject of Unconfirmed Report

An unconfirmed rumor has been received in Honolulu that two former Hawaii boys, Colin and Donald Campbell of Kanae, were lost at sea in the British-German naval battle off Jutland.

Relatives of the family of Dr. and Mrs. Dugald Campbell, whose sons they were, are very much disinclined to believe the story in the absence of further particulars. One of the boys is understood to have been a lieutenant on the battle-cruiser Queen Mary, which was lost with all on board, and it is probable that the other was also with the big British fleet, but the fact that many days have passed since the battle and that no news of the reported deaths has come to the relatives here, gives reason for hope that the boys were not among the many Britishers lost in this engagement.

Dr. and Mrs. Campbell lived on Kauai for years and the boys were born at Waimea. Colin is about 23 and Donald 20 and both are understood to be lieutenants, through one report is that Donald was in the medical branch of the service. Through marriage they are related to a number of Hawaiian families.

Dr. and Mrs. Campbell and their sons left here about 15 years ago and have been living in London, where the parents still reside.

WAR SECRETARY WHO IS WILSON'S "MAN" AT ST. LOUIS NOW

WIFE SHOT FOUR TIMES; HUSBAND ADMITS JEALOUSY

David Kailiwai Gives Himself Up to Police; Woman Taken to Queen's Hospital and May Recover

With a bullet hole through her right ear, another in her breast, two in her head and one in her arm, Mrs. David Kailiwai is at the Queen's Hospital. Her husband gave himself up at the police station this morning, admitted shooting her and gave jealousy as the cause, say the police.

Mrs. Kailiwai was first taken to the emergency hospital in the ambulance and then rushed to the Queen's Hospital on account of her serious condition. She has not lived with her husband for the last seven months until quite recently.

According to a story which the police say Kailiwai told when he gave himself up, he was walking home on the road above the insane asylum when he met his former wife with Mrs. Keola Kailiwai. He went to the latter's home and when his wife refused to go to his home he pulled the pistol and shot at her four times, each bullet taking effect. He then ran for the police.

The Queen's Hospital authorities reported late this afternoon that the woman may recover, seeming not to be in immediate danger.

Kailiwai says his wife recently said she would live with him again, after another man had broken up their home. He stated that when she would not come with him this morning, with jealousy and anger in his mind, he pulled the gun which he was carrying for use on the home-breaker and shot her.

NEBRASKAN WOULD LURE BULL MOOSE INTO NEW CORRAL

Newton D. Baker Denies He is in Any Way Candidate for Vice President; Dr. Raymond Loses Out

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 13.—William Jennings Bryan, former secretary of state and former candidate for president, has a plan for fusion between the Democratic party and a large part of the Progressives.

The Nebraskan is here to attend the convention. He is reporting it for a newspaper syndicate and says that the reportorial role is his chief interest.

He proposes and will urge at the convention upon his influential followers a pact between the Democrats and Progressives to induce most of the Progressives to support the Democrats. He has suggested that this can be accomplished by writing into the Democratic platform progressive planks which will appeal to the Bull Moose party.

The delegates are discussing the chairmanship of the national committee, to fill the vacancy when W. F. McCombs retires. The vice-chairman, Cummings, William Salisbury of Delaware and Colonel House of Texas are all mentioned for the position.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 13.—The subcommittee of the Democratic national committee has sustained the action of the Democratic territorial central committee of Hawaii in electing Mervin Keohokaloie of Maui as a delegate to St. Louis instead of Dr. J. H. Raymond.

Whether this fight and the fight of High Sheriff Jarrett for the national chairmanship will be carried further in the convention has not been announced.

U. S. HEADQUARTERS IN MEXICO, Colonia Dublin, June 13.—Gen. Pancho Villa's largest remaining armed band of outlaws was completely smashed by a dashing attack of American troops near Santa Clara, not far from here, today, according to news which has just come to Gen. Pershing.

Twenty troopers of the 13th U. S. cavalry under Captain Otto W. Rethorst surprised a band of 25 Villista fighters with numerous hangers-on and dispersed the band into the broken country near their camp. Three were killed and several others wounded, while every horse which the outlaws had and all the ammunition were captured.

The bandits were pursued so hotly that they could not get their horses and fled on foot into the hiding-places of the hills. The troopers divided into small detachments and pursued the fleeing men for hours.

VILLA PLOTTING WITH CARRANZA'S ENVOYS

EL PASO, Texas.—Pancho Villa is not dead, as reported by a Mexican to the correspondents with Gen. Pershing at the front in Mexico. He is much alive and his ambitions to make trouble as ever, according to his El Paso friends.

It is reliably reported that the bandit chieftain is in almost constant communication with a former member of the Carranza cabinet, who is well known in the United States. Relatives of this man say an open letter from Villa announcing his future plans may be expected within the week.

If the truth is being told Villa is in retirement on a ranch not 100 miles distant from the place in southern Chihuahua where he ordered the execution of William Benton, the British subject, in 1914. He has made several excursions in Durango and the Torreón district.
