BIG INCREASE OF ARMY HERE TOLD IN CABLE

Message Received This Morning Brings to Headquarters Important News

NOT LESS THAN 2050 REGULARS TO BE ADDED

Infantry, Heavy Field Artillery and Coast Artillery to Expand

Washington, D. C., June 20, 1916. Evans, Honolulu.

General order will issue from this office announcing formation new organizations under new national defense act as follows: Seven new regiments of infantry, one in the Philippine Islands, one in Hawaii, one in Canal Zone and four in Southern Department; two new regiments cavalry in Southern Department; three new regiments field artillery, two light artillery in Southern Department and one heavy artillery in Hawaii; three regiments and one mounted company engineers, including existing organizations. Increase in Coast Artillery Corps to be announced later. Photostat copy that order mailed today will set forth in detail necessary instructions to form these organizations. Such action as may be necessary will be taken on photostat copy in advance of receipt of printed copy, which will be distributed as soon as practicable. (Signed) McCAIN.

The foregoing message, received by cable this morning from the War Department, is considered by army officials here as one of the biggest pieces of news that has reached the local department in a long while.

While the details of the increase in local garrisons will not be known definitely until receipt of the general order, it is evident that it will be by not less than 2050 enlisted men for the infantry and heavy artillery regiments.

As stated in the message the increase in coast artillery will be announced later, so that only guesswork can place any number for these, but the belief is prevalent that the increase will be large.

Under the new army law the infantry regiment is composed of practically 1500 men in peace strength, and the heavy artillery of approximately 700. This is exclusive of officers.

Heavy field artillery regiments are to consist of field and siege type guns. Six batteries make up a regiment, there being two battalions of three batteries each in it.

It is not known where the new regiments will be stationed, and officials at headquarters do not venture a guess. The suggestion is made, however, that the holding up of the new infantry may be made by transferring from any of the three regiments—the 1st, 2d, and the new company—until they are of equal strength, after which they will be built up from an even nucleus.

FAMOUS GERMAN AVIATOR DEAD?

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) LONDON, Eng., June 21.—Lieut. Immelmann, the famous German aviator, is reported killed.

Lieut. Immelmann is the most famous aviator now operating on any front, due to his extraordinary exploits in shooting down or disabling his opponents in air battles. At last count he was credited with having shot down 17 or 18 aeroplanes and has been especially distinguished by the emperor. He has been operating on the west front in a big and fast Fokker aeroplane.

PINKHAM AND KINNEY CORRESPOND IN CASE OF KAUAI TEACHERS

"I haven't taken any further action in the matter and cannot say now whether I will or not," said Henry W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction, yesterday, commenting on the petition sent to the governor by residents of Kauai asking a reconsideration of the action of the school commissioners in failing to reappoint Henry C. and Mrs. Brown as principal and teacher, respectively, at the Waimea school.

Superintendent Kinney added that he has seen a copy of the petition and that the governor has written him in regard to the Brown case.

"I have answered the governor's letter," he said, "but am not now prepared to make any statement as to what further action, if any, may be taken."

An additional tax of 10 per cent will be levied on American securities by Great Britain.

Punahou's Distant Past to Be Revived in Pageant Groups on Campus

Some of the groups and figures illustrating costumes of the olden days. Nos. 1 and 2 show the winding of the tapa pa-us, for the followers of Liliha. No. 3 shows costumes of 1820, at the time of the arrival of the missionaries, with old calashos, gowns, shawls and mits. No. 4 is a girl's costume of early Punahou days and No. 5 is the "Water Lily," one of the dancers in the symbolic dance of the Spring, Kapunahou.

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) LONDON, Eng., June 21.—Lieut. Immelmann, the famous German aviator, is reported killed.

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, June 20.—West front: General situation is unchanged. Patrol engagements were successful for the Germans near Beauverains and in Niederaspach. Our flyers heavily bombed the military establishments of Bergen, near Duenkirchen, and in Souilly, southwest of Verdun. On east, Hindenburg's German detachments, which advanced south of Smorgon beyond Cary and near Tanocoya, brought in one officer, 143 men, four machine guns and four mine throwers. A Russian biplane was forced to land and was destroyed by artillery fire west of Kolodn. Railroad tracks in Vileyka were bombed.

Prince Leopold's army flyers again attacked railroads in Lyachovishi and Luniniec. Strong Russian attacks against canal positions held by Linsingen's army southwest of Logoshin, broke down under certain fire with heavy losses. Repeated enemy's efforts against the Styrl line near and west of Kolk were generally without success. There are especially violent combats near Gruliatyn.

German troops broke the Russian resistance with especially bitter losses near Klessler, and in several places between the road, in Kovel, Luck and Turya we continue to advance. South of Turya the enemy's attacks were repulsed. The Russians' advance was stopped in the direction toward Gerochow. Gen. Bothmer's army situation is unchanged.

In Balkans, enemy's flyers dropped bombs upon villages behind our front. No damage done.

Gen. Pflanzer's Forces at Bukovina Said to Be Defeated; News of War Arenas

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) LONDON, Eng., June 21.—Gen. Pflanzer's army in Bukovina has been cut in two by the Russians, the story being confirmed by a despatch to the Evening Star from Petrograd.

MAY FORCE GREEK MINISTER TO QUIT

ATHENS, Greece, June 21.—It is probable that changes in the Greek ministry will result from economic pressure by the Allies. The resignation of Premier Skoufoudis is expected in some quarters.

RUSSIANS LOSE AT STYR

BERLIN, Germany, June 21.—The Russian forces which had crossed the Styrl river west of Kolk have been driven back by a counter attack. Northwest of Lutsk the Russians have resisted German advances.

The Russians have crossed the river Sereth, engaging the Austrian rear guard.

Thirteen hundred Russians have been captured.

GERMANS REPULSED

PARIS, France, June 21.—German attacks today upon Hill 108 and at Berry au Bac were repulsed. Heavy bombardments are taking place on the Verdun line.

On June 19 a German naval aeroplane in Rigabay, off Fruensburg, bombarded two Russian destroyers, one being hit.

FILIPINO WOMAN ON KAUAI IS MURDERED

News came from Kauai today that a week ago at Makaweli a Filipino woman, Emilia Blancafort, was slashed to death with a knife, said to have been wielded by a Filipino laborer, Braulio Gomez, with whom she was living. The man has been charged with murder and the case will be taken to the grand jury.

Experiments by the United States public health service resulted in the discovery of a new and inexpensive disinfectant derived from pure oil.

Punahou History Graphically Told In Picturesque and Quaint Pageant

Central Event of 75th Anniversary Exercises Taking Place on Alexander Field This Afternoon—Symbolic Pantomime and Dances—Hundreds Take Part

Recreating with striking reality the many interesting and historical episodes which have occurred since the founding of Oahu College in 1841 and up to the present time, a panoramic review of political, educational, religious and social conditions that have prevailed in Honolulu during the last 75 years is being staged on the campus of Punahou this afternoon—the crowning feature of the institution's celebration of its three-quarters of a century of existence.

The Pageant is to begin at 4 o'clock. At the time of the granting of the lands in Manoa to the trustees, 75 years ago, Kamehameha III was the founder and owner in fee of all of the lands in the "pagoos." There were certain lands which had descended to Liliha which were given by her to the mission, with the result that Oahu College, in other years merely a "school for missionary children," today stands in the first rank of American educational institutions—a forceful medium which has contributed in no small measure to the successes attained by many of the leading men and women in the territory.

More strictly speaking it is known as Oahu College. But the older residents (Continued on page two)

LIQUOR LICENSE COMMISSION TO FACE SURPRISES

Anti-Saloon League to Protest Against Tavern and Late Liquor Selling

Unexpected fireworks, specially prepared by the Anti-Saloon League, will be exploded this afternoon at the annual meeting of the Oahu Liquor License Commission. What promised to be a peaceful meeting, absolutely devoid of sensations, now promises some unlooked for developments.

When the members are comfortably seated at 3:30, George W. Paty, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, will request that the license for Heinle's Tavern be not renewed. He will strike again with a demand that special privileges to hotels and cafes to sell liquor after 11:30 p. m. be discontinued.

Heinle's Tavern is operating illegally," said Paty this morning, "and I intend to prove this to the commission. The place is really no more than a road house and although I have no specific complaint to make against it, numerous objections have come to my office from residents on Walkiki beach and I think it should be closed."

Paty says the tavern is operated upon a petition that does not carry the names of a majority of property holders and leases within 1000 feet of the tavern, as required by law.

The tavern at one time might have had sufficient signers on its petition, according to Paty, but many people have moved into that vicinity since who do not want the place there and will object strenuously to its continuance, says Paty.

Accompanying Paty's request that Heinle's be put out of business will be a petition to that effect, signed by about a dozen residents near the tavern. Paty says he can get many more if necessary.

Fights Special Privileges. The matter of special privileges to sell after regular closing hours, Paty says, is one of the most objectionable features of the whole liquor selling regulation system in Honolulu and he intends to make a strong fight against such special privileges.

If the commission decides to curtail

Neither war with Mexico, should it come, nor the November elections, no matter what the result may be, are expected to have any effect on the raw sugar market, according to cable advices received from New York and Washington.

A well-known local brokerage house this week cabled to sources in New York and Washington that are in close touch with financial, business and political affairs of the country for advice on the probable effect of a war between this country and Mexico and possible effects of the November elections on sugar prices. The cables received were in reply to these queries.

The coming elections should not have any effect whatever on the sugar market nor should the Mexican situation, whether it develops war or peace, is the burden of the reply received. Other conditions are far more important and the question of demand and supply is controlling the market and consequent prices. At the present time the market is somewhat affected by a falling off in the demand for refined sugar. Even so, the cable states, the price for raw sugar was 6.27.

CARRANZA IS BLAMING U. S. FOR TROUBLES

In Statements to European Powers, Issued Through Legations, He Says His Country is On Defensive

GEN. PERSHING "CALLS" GEN. TREVINO'S THREAT

Moves American Troops to East But No Sign of Attack Has Yet Developed

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—Diplomatic and other official circles here today are stirred at the news that representatives of the allied European powers are understood to be bringing strong pressure to bear on Provisional President Carranza of Mexico to prevent a break with the United States.

They are taking the stand that Germany is seeking to foment the war and inflame the Mexicans with a view to preventing the United States from gathering the trade formerly controlled by Germany in Mexico, South and Central America.

NATIONAL GUARDS WAIT FOR MARCHING ORDERS; WEST POINTERS MAY GO

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—Marching orders for the various national guard organizations that are ready to entrain for the border, have been held up pending more complete mobilization of state troops.

In compliance with Gen. Funston's request for troops, when a sufficient number are secured they are to be mustered into the federal service.

The war department is considering graduating the seniors at West Point immediately, for immediate commission as second lieutenants, so that they may take an active part in case of war. Interest now centers on the probable action the border troops would take in the event of war. It is considered likely that there would be a rapid general advance of the American forces a hundred or more miles south of the border. The line then established would be fortified and held until the volunteer reinforcements should arrive, and thus the fighting would be thrown into the enemy's territory and the American border protected.

MEXICO BLAMES U. S. IN STATEMENTS ISSUED IN EUROPEAN CAPITALS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) PARIS, France, June 21.—Mexico is placing her case before the European public in the form of statements issued virtually simultaneously at all the European capitals through the Mexican legations there. These statements throw upon the United States the entire blame for the present difficulties. They declare that Mexico is acting solely and entirely on the defensive against the aggressions of the United States and that Mexico throughout has tried to preserve harmonious relations.

PERSHING SENDS MEN EAST BUT NO ATTACK IS MADE BY MEXICANS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 21.—Gen. Pershing today gave the Mexicans a chance to execute Gen. Trevino's threat that any move by American troops except toward the border would be the signal for a Mexican attack.

He sent a small force eastward, in the direction forbidden by Trevino, to investigate the reported concentration of Mexican troops in the neighborhood of Guzman. The troops reported nothing doing and no attack was made.
