ALL APPLICANTS GAIN LICENSES TO SELL LIQUOR

Protests of Anti-Saloon League Heard But No Changes Made By Commission

Every application for renewal of liquor licenses which was submitted to the board of license commissioners in their annual meeting late yesterday afternoon was granted, notwithstanding protests made by the Anti-Saloon League. The action of the board settled all saloon matters for the ensuing year.

There were 59 licenses renewed. For selling "type" liquors Goncalves was ordered to close for three days; Sumida & Co., two days; McTighe & Co., one day, and Patrick F. Ryan, one day.

George W. Paty, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, and Pastor D. C. Peters spoke to the board against renewing the license for Heinle's Tavern, claiming it did not have the necessary indorsement of property holders in that vicinity, and also spoke against the granting of special privileges to hotels and cafes to sell liquor from 11:30 p. m. to the regular closing time for saloons, until 1 a. m.

"It's all ended for another year," said Paty this morning. "We didn't believe our efforts with the board would be successful, but we felt we should voice a formal objection." Renewed licenses are as follows: Wholesale—W. C. Peacock & Co., Wing Chong Lung Company, Seattle Brewing and Maltng Company, T. Sumida & Co., S. Kimura & Co., Lovejoy & Co., Yamasaki, H. Hackfeld & Co., Dias & Monix, Wing Won Tai Company, F. A. Schaefer & Co., Wong Chung Lung, S. Ozaki, H. R. Macfarlane, Hoffschlaeger & Co., J. C. Cohen, Ross & Co.

Hotels—Heinle's Tavern, Oahu Railway and Land Company, Alexander Young Hotel, Mosna, Seaside. Saloon licenses—C. A. Peacock, Manuel Andrade, John S. Gillis and John Buckley, Charles Lambert, Edward Lawrence Smith, Frederick Paul Johnson, Ah Choo, Isaac L. Cocke, Ghoy An, Leon Tan et al., D. Nagatani, Y. Takaki, E. S. Cunha, Manuel C. Silva, James E. Thompson, Y. Murooka, P. F. Ryan, George J. Wong, Will E. McTighe, Sealey L. Shaw, John G. Teixeira, Jr., Sadyasa, Jose Quintal, Mrs. Flora N. Niles.

Restaurants—Lee Chong, Mrs. R. Klemme, George Lyeurgue, J. Wisward. The meeting was a very crowded one at the start. The members present, in addition to Chairman F. D. Lowrey, were J. C. Carter, R. A. Cooke, J. A. Wallace and Secretary Carlos A. Long. License inspector Fennell was also in attendance, but had not much to do, as his recommendations were passed without question and none of his reports were disputed.

NEWCOMB FINDS HAWAII GROWING IN POPULARITY

"Everybody I met was interested in Hawaii, and 99 per cent wanted to know if they could get a job in the islands. The cafes in Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati are all playing Aloha Oe, and people applaud the song as they do when Dixie is played," said Harry B. Newcomb today. Newcomb and his bride returned last evening on the Matsonia.

"In the music stores of the Middle West they are selling many copies of Aloha Oe, the Old Plantation and On the Beach at Waikiki," he added. Newcomb and his bride, who was Miss Belle Sfrusser of Avondale, a suburb of Cincinnati, were married May 15 in the Ohio city. Mrs. Newcomb is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gruesser. Her father is a prominent Cincinnati business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb will make their home at Royal Grove, Waikiki, where Newcomb has built a handsome bungalow.

Mrs. Anna Ponder of Baltimore celebrated her 100th birthday.

JUSTICE WILDER CALLS CHICAGO MEETING 'TAME'

Former Judge Says That Absence of Excitement Marked Republican Convention

"It was a tame affair, that Republican convention at Chicago. The leaders had it well in hand all the time and there was more excitement in the galleries than among the delegates," said Judge A. A. Wilder today. He returned last night on the Matsonia after a trip to Washington on legal business. The judge stopped in Chicago to see the G. O. P.'s convention and left the night before Hughes was nominated.

"J. Wesley Thompson's appointment as Hawaii third circuit judge was confirmed while I was in Washington," added Judge Wilder. "When I was there the general opinion was that the Mexican situation would soon smooth over, but it now doesn't look that way at all." Judge Wilder has been away some time. He said he learned nothing new about Honolulu's federal building, or the Hawaiian political situation while in the capital.

HALF STILL OWE FOR LUSITANA IMPROVEMENTS

Tomorrow is the last day for the payment of assessments for the Lusitana improvement project and but 25 of the 55 owners in the district had paid their tax at noon.

There is $10,023.39 due from private property owners in the district, the territory and municipality paying the greater part of the cost of the work. Of this but $463.08 has been paid. Property owners have their choice of paying all of their assessment or the first of ten installments.

"Unless every one of the 30 who have not yet paid come into the tax assessor's office before tomorrow night I will have a number of notices of sale posted along Lusitana street Saturday," said A. M. Cristy, deputy city attorney, this afternoon.

KAIMUKI RECRUITS VISIT FORT RUGER TO SEE GUN DRILL

The Kaimuki section of the Coast Artillery, National Guard, visited Fort Ruger yesterday evening. About 40 men were present witnessing the drill of the regular army men at the big 12-inch mortars and were shown over the fort by non-commissioned officers detailed for that purpose.

Arrangements have been made for the new coast defense men to drill with the regulars next Wednesday evening at 6:30, and it is expected that each man of the 40 present last evening will be on hand, and bring with him at least one other man who is ready and willing to sign up. A recruiting officer will be on hand to enlist the new men.

Anyone interested in the raising of this new company may communicate with Capt. G. K. Larrison, Room 20, Kapiolani building, telephone 3662. Regular army non-commissioned officers will be detailed as instructors for the National Guardsmen.

ENTHUSIASTIC ANGLER WILL ENJOY SPORT WITH BROTHER HERE

Wm. B. Sharp, brother of Raymer Sharp, special deputy customs collector, with his wife and child, arrived on the Matsonia last night and is stopping at the Plesanton hotel. Sharp, who is a retired attorney of San Francisco, expects to remain on the islands several months. He is a very enthusiastic fisherman and hunter, having brought to gaff many record fish, and will spend a large part of his time here fishing for the many game fish which abound in the waters about the islands. The dove season opens next month and he also expects to make several trips after them.

Raymer Sharp, special deputy customs collector of Honolulu, will take his vacation during July and will spend his time showing his brother, Wm. B. Sharp, who is here on a visit, about the islands.

POLICE NOTES

Kim Wam Sam, a Korean, was before Judge Monsarrat this morning charged with selling liquor in upper Nuuanu without a license. His case was postponed until tomorrow by request of his counsel, Attorney William J. Sheldon.

MUCH COMMENDED BY COMMITTEE VISITING DAIRY

Causes for Complaint of City Physician Are Minimized in Typewritten Report

In a written report to the board of supervisors, signed by W. M. Ahia, F. M. Hatch and Daniel Logan, the health committee of the supervisors considers the objection of the city and county physician to the granting of a license to the Territorial Dairy, frequently referred to as the Farm Corn Dairy, and so mentioned in the report.

Relative to the complaints made by Dr. Wayson the report says: "With reference to the location in a residence section we find that the site was approved by the board of health; also that no complaint against the dairy has been made by residents of the section. Therefore we consider that this ground for complaint is not well taken."

"We found the milk room in good sanitary condition, and the stalls floored with concrete, fairly clean. Mr. Corn's description of his methods of milking and handling the milk for customers satisfied us that no complaint was due in that regard. Your committee is informed that the milk from this dairy has always been found clean and up to the standard by the board of health pure food inspectors."

"The buildings had been newly whitewashed, Dr. Wayson admitting the improvement in that respect. "Regarding the complaint about a muddy paddock, we could not say the condition is insanitary, especially as the cows are well groomed before milking."

The committee recommends that a horse stable away from but to windward of the cow barn be cleaned, saying there is room for improvement there.

That a modern closet and covered cesspool replace present conditions. This is at a point away from and below the cow yards and barn; so that they do not drain into the dairy quarters.

A caretaker's cottage, also away from cow yards and barn should be repaired and all rotten wood should be cleaned away and platform and buildings made between buildings.

Supervisor Logan told a representative of the Star-Bulletin that the cows were carefully washed and brushed before milking; that the milking vessels were modern and sanitary in type and that it was apparent the proprietor was anxious to have the dairy proper and its output clean and sanitary.

The directors of the F. W. Woolworth company increased the quarterly dividend to common stockholders from 1 3/4 to 2 per cent.

UKULELE MOST POPULAR INSTRUMENT UPON COAST

Nearly every schoolgirl in Berkeley owns a Hawaiian ukulele this summer, according to Edward W. Hulise, a business man of that city and San Francisco, who is visiting in Honolulu today, having arrived last night on the Matsonia.

"The children parade around in Claremont Park every evening with ukuleles, singing, and the air is filled with the music made by them," he observed. "Nearly all the young people in Berkeley seem to own ukuleles." Hulise is in the islands for the fifth time. On his return to the mainland in January on the Wilhelmina he wrote a graceful verse tribute to Hawaii.

William E. Luke, aged 24, of Brooklyn, civil engineer, employed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, died at Allentown, Pa., of injuries received when he was stabbed at South Bethlehem on March 11 after an argument over the possession of a seat.

Harris Johnson, 101, oldest Elk in the United States, is dead at Columbia, Miss.
