AUCTION BULLETIN

We must apologize to the public for not exposing for sale the Sorrel Horse as advertised in Friday's Sale. Many buyers were present and expressed their displeasure at its not being here. We were given instructions to sell by a Lieut. Richardson on the phone and we regard instructions when given as bona fide, but evidently the GENERALMAN does not so regard business matters, as the horse did not materialize, hence this apology. We expect to be treated by sellers honorably and not as a last resort, and when we have instructions to sell we must at least have the chance to do so, and we leave it to the public, who's dictum is that the Honolulu Auction Rooms invariably sell and sell at good prices. Honolulu Auction Rooms, J. S. Bailey, Mgr., Jas. E. Morgan Co., Ltd., Auctioneers.
