Two Meetings of Party Workers
 Yesterday Further Plans for Meeting June 17

Two Republican meetings yesterday afternoon carried the G. O. P. forces several steps nearer the completion of plans for the territorial platform convention which opens next Monday.

As a result announcement was made today that the convention will meet next Monday at 9 a. m. in the Bijou theater. Committee sessions will be held in the supervisors' hall, Mayor Lane having agreed to put the hall at the service of the convention. It is expected that there will be four committees—on credentials, on rules, on resolutions and on platform.

Early yesterday afternoon the sub-committee on arrangements held a meeting, as reported in the second edition of the Star-Bulletin, and invited all delegates to meet at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the office of A. D. Cooper, 308 Bank of Hawaii building, to talk over platform plans. There is much work still to be done on the platform draft, which the convention will be asked to consider.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon another Republican meeting was held, this time of party workers invited by Mayor Lane to a conference in his office. It was decided at this time to hold a general ratification meeting at Aala park on Tuesday night, June 18, which will mark the close of the platform convention, but will primarily be to ratify the nominations of Hughes and Fairbanks.

Among those at the mayor's meeting were the mayor, Lorrin Andrews, Senator Charles F. Chillingworth, John Wise, Judge A. S. Mahaulu, Harry Murray, William Thompson, Walter Coombs, Eli J. Crawford and William J. Sheldon.

The following precinct clubs have been asked to get in their delayed primary election returns so that the convention roll may be made up: Fourth district, Nos. 1, 2, 9, 11, 12; fifth district, 2, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13 and 17.

GOSSIP HINTS
RICE WILL RUN FOR DELEGATE

That Charles A. Rice of Kauai, who was overwhelmingly defeated by Prince Kuhio for delegate to Congress two years ago, may run again this fall, is a bit of political gossip discussed by Kauai delegates to the church convention in Hilo, upon their arrival here en route home. Apparently they have nothing definite on which to base the gossip.

Another bit of conjecture is that John H. Coney, the veteran Kauai member of the house, may run for the senate, for the vacancy left by the expiration of Rice's term.
