Armour's Grape Juice

Bottled where the Best Grapes Grow

ARMOUR'S is worth waiting for. Whether for health, refreshment, for entertaining or for general family use, Armour's is the drink that always satisfies.

To enjoy life in hot weather, drink Armour's Grape Juice regularly. It is rich in health qualities. It makes energy while it cools and delights. This is the pure juice, undiluted; no artificial sweetening.

Mother—make the Children a Grape Sponge Pudding

Bring one cup of Armour's Grape Juice and one cup of water to a boil, thicken with two tablespoons of corn starch (previously mixed smooth in cold water). Add one-half cup of sugar and a small pinch of salt. Let mixture cook in double boiler while beating the whites of two eggs to stiff froth. Slowly pour the hot mixture onto the eggs and beat briskly until it is all taken up. Serve very cold in individual cups with a custard poured over.

Order a bottle or case from your Grocer or Druggist—but say "ARMOUR'S!"

For more power, insist on the straight-distilled, all-refinery gas

BOY SCOUTS

BOY SCOUTS ARE INVITED TO BIG CAMP ON KAUAI

Splendid Opportunity is Open to Lads Through E. A. Knudsen

BOYS, ATTENTION!

A summer camp for boys will be established at Polihale, Napali district, Kauai, from Aug. 10 to Aug. 24. All Boy Scouts and other boys who might be interested are invited to come.

A charge of $3.50 for the whole period will be made, including food and lodging and transportation from Waiawa to Polihale and return.

Mr. E. Allen Crewey, scoutmaster of Kauai, will be in charge of the camp and he will have as assistants others versed in running, shooting, hiking, etc. All the various forms of scouting will be taught.

Any boy coming should bring a change of clothing, a light blanket and a mosquito net.

If you wish to come drop me a post card not later than Aug. 1.

Party will leave Waiawa Aug. 10. ERIC A. KNUDSEN, Kekaha, Kauai

TROOP VI GETS CERTIFICATES

Present, officials, 1; leaders, 6; scouts, 20; visitors, 4; absent, 6. Total 31.

Meeting was called to order at 7:15 p. m. Friday by the scoutmaster. After the rollcall we drilled on right and left flanks, squads right and left, etc. After the drill the scoutmaster told the boys that he had a surprise for us.

In about 10 minutes every boy was eating ice cream. We had an auto contest, in which S. Uyeda got the first prize, Y. Morikami, second; T. Kuninobu, third, and S. Hayashi, fourth. We gave three cheers to S. Uyeda. After the contest we again ate ice cream.

There was an important talk from the scoutmaster. Our troop meeting will be adjourned until August 7. Before the meeting adjourned the scoutmaster told us that he had another surprise. It was a certificate or card of membership of B. S. A. for every boy. We gave three loud cheers for Troop VI.

Most of the boys have gone home for the summer. The meeting adjourned at 9:30 p. m.

T. KUNINOBU, Scout Scribe.

TROOP IX WILL HOLD A DANCE

The meeting of July 7 was called to order at 7:30 p. m. Vice-president Machida was in the chair. The roll was called by Scribe Chang, 24 present, 10 absent, 1 visitor. The minutes were read by Assistant Scribe Crane. They were accepted as read. The treasurer's books were turned over to the scoutmaster, Haehlen. President took chair. It was moved and seconded that there be given another dance by Troop IX. The following committees were appointed by Scoutmaster Haehlen.

TROOP VII DOES HELPFUL DUTY

Thursday, July 6. — On Thursday evening 16 scouts of Troop VII turned out on duty at the band concert held at the Kakaako mission ground. When the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung every scout stood still and saluted at the end. When it was over they all helped to pack the chairs and benches back to the mission.

Saturday, July 8.—Meeting called to order at 7 p. m. Opening hymn, "Help Somebody Today," was sung by the whole troop and followed by a prayer by Scout Ah Ho Pung. The scout law and scout oath were repeated by all. The roll was called. Attendance—Scouts 12, candidates 1, Indian 1, official 2. Total 17.

Three scouts were appointed to turn out on duty at the Kaulani school at 9 a. m. by Assistant Scoutmaster Anderson. The minutes of last meeting's report was read and it was moved to be accepted by Scout Ah Choy Pung. Seconded by Scout Ah Hon Goo. Good turns were then told by four scouts.

Assistant Scoutmaster Sanderson gave an interesting talk. The date and time of the challenge was chosen. It will be held at the mission grounds at 4:30 p. m. on Saturday evening, July 15. A letter was read by Scout Joseph Hosea from the "Lone Scout." Assistant patrol leaders were then elected. Ben Kaiu was appointed assistant patrol leader for the Eagles and Ah Ho Pung for the Lions. Yells were repeated, cheering up the new and thanking the old for their good work.

Meeting adjourned at 8:25 p. m. Mizaph and benediction having been repeated by all.

Monday, July 10.—Two old scouts of Troop VII turned out on duty at the Kaulani school. After drilling the boys for a while all the scouts present at the Kaulani school were given orders to dismiss the boys. We walked around the place prepared to give first aid. At 4:30 p. m. all the scouts were dismissed.

SAICHI OTA, Asst. Troop Scribe.

FIRST OF SIX CHURCH SERVICES IN OPERA HOUSE NEXT SUNDAY

"Go to church Sunday night at the Opera House" is the slogan adopted by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. for the series of meetings which begin Sunday. The series is promising from the viewpoint of interest in the excellent and attractive program and that Dr. Raymond C. Brooks of Berkeley, Cal., and formerly connected with the University of California, will be the speaker for the six Sunday nights.

The Y. W. C. A. committee, headed by Mrs. A. F. Jackson, announces that the musical program is complete and that special music will be given each Sunday night. At the opening meeting the orchestra of the Hawaiian band has been secured for the music and a large chorus composed of the choirs of the different churches and many of the choiristers of the Brown-Curry meetings and the glee clubs of the Kamehameha Schools will be led by Stanley Livingston.

The meetings will begin at 7:30 and the program for the evening will be announced later.

GRASSHOPPER LEAGUE GAME ON AT PEARL CITY SOON

The Red Men and Foresters, the leading teams in the Grasshopper League, will stage a game at Pearl City on July 23. The members of the two orders will hold a picnic on this date, and the baseball teams will furnish the amusement for the crowd. Antone Paria, the crack backstop of the Foresters, has lined up a strong team to meet the Red Men.
