

SOCIETY

MUCH local interest attaches to the wedding in Berkeley recently of Miss Marie Whiting, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Whiting, and Lieut. James Harvey Taylor, U. S. N. The Whiting family has long been socially prominent.

The wedding took place at high noon July 1 at the country estate at Brookdale, Cal., of the bride's parents.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Reginald Hodgkin of All Soul's chapel, Berkeley, and witnessed only by the members of the immediate families of the young people. The bride's only attendant was Miss Jane Allen Macene, a god-daughter. The groom was attended by his brother, Benjamin Harvey Taylor, of Indianapolis.

The wedding was originally set for a date in September, but owing to the present Mexican situation and to the probable sailing within the next few days of Lieut. Taylor's ship, the U. S. S. Perry, the wedding was set early, making Miss Whiting another war bride.

Miss Whiting's bridal gown was of oyster white Georgette crepe and tulle, made in a simple afternoon demitulle style. With this was worn a large picture hat, a drooping mode becoming to Miss Whiting's girlish beauty. The bouquet was purple crocuses and gardenias. The wedding bridesmaid wore a frilly white net and lace and carried a round Dolly Varden bouquet of baby roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Whiting attracted no end of attention wherever she went, reminding one of "The Girl in the Sun" and "The Girl in the Park."

OUTRIGGER CLUB PARTY

A jolly company is enjoying a supper at the Outrigger Club this evening. After a swim, a steak supper will be followed by the C. and M. A. I. Club. Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hay on Oahu and Mrs. James Galloway, Capt. and Mrs. George T. Crenshaw, Lieut. and Mrs. Guy L. Gearhart, and Mrs. Edward A. Nottage, and Miss Hunt.

CAPT. AND MRS. FREDERICK PHISTERER ENTERTAIN

Col. and Mrs. Alfred M. Hunter were the guests of honor at a dinner given by Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Phisterer last evening. The table was extremely pretty with its central adornment of Shasta daisies artistically arranged in a low basket. Covers were laid for sixteen guests. The Country Club dance was attended during the evening.

MR. C. D. WRIGHT, A DINNER HOST

Mr. Charles Dan Wright entertained last evening at dinner at the Country Club. The table was prettily arranged and handsomely embellished with flowers. After dinner dancing was enjoyed. Mr. Wright's guests were Miss Eleanor Blevins, Miss Madrox and Miss Purcell of Santa Rosa, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wyatt and Mr. Robert Scott.

CAPT. AND MRS. GEORGE L. HICKS' DINNER

Friday evening the Country Club was the setting for one of the prettiest dinners given in a long time, that by Capt. and Mrs. George L. Hicks. The Hicks' guests enjoyed the dance with which the Country Club celebrated the full moon.

Mrs. Oswald Blakestone Lightfoot (Virginia McCarthy), whose wedding was an event of last week.

Their guests were Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Capt. and Mrs. W. C. Baker, Mrs. Bradley, Capt. and Mrs. James Galloway, Lieut. and Mrs. Edwards, Lieut. and Mrs. Guy L. Gearhart and Lieut. Chas. M. Buffingame.

MISS MYRTLE SCHUMAN, A BRIDGE HOSTESS

Thursday afternoon Miss Myrtle Schuman was hostess at a delightful bridge afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in all the shades of pink hibiscus. They are all in great glory just now, for the warmth of summer has brought them to perfection. A prize was given to the highest scorer at each table. The gifts were not only attractive but quite practical, being Japanese ribboned bedroom slippers. They were won by Miss Letitia Morgan, Miss Ramona Morgan, Miss Lucy Campbell and Miss Maud Ballentyne. The guests were Mrs. Stanley McKenzie, Mrs. Jack Guard, Mrs. Percy Nottage, Mrs. Geoffrey

OUTING TO HALEIWA

A party of young people is motoring to Haleiwa today to enjoy some golf and swimming, after which the dinner-dance at the hotel will be attended. Later they will motor home by moonlight. Those going in the pleasant outing are Miss Ruth McCheaney, Miss Dorothy Harker, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Vivian Buckland, Mr. Watson Ballentyne, Mr. Foster Horner, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Lieut. William H. Jouett, Dr. Walter L. Reesman, Mr. I. Jones and Capt. and Mrs. Charles W. Van Way.

MRS. FRANCIS M. SWANZY'S AFTERNOON PARTY

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Francis M. Swanzy complimented Mrs. Randolph, who is Mrs. William B. Atkinson's mother, with a pleasant party. Bridge was the attraction for the guests. At tea time several more friends were bidden and a very delightful afternoon was enjoyed. Every guest was given a beautiful, fragrant lei, in which every blossom possible was used. The conception was extremely pretty and greatly appreciated.

MRS. I. M. STAINBACK'S TEA

Thursday Mrs. I. M. Stainback gave the third of her series of afternoon teas at her cottage at the Pierpoint. Mrs. Reed, who is Mrs. Stainback's sister, was the guest of honor. Others present were Mrs. Rand, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse, Mrs. Arthur Macintosh, Mrs. Clarence Olson, Mrs. Edwin D. Kilbourne, Mrs. Fred Oht, Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson.

MR. AND MRS. FRED OHT ENTERTAIN

Friday evening at the Country Club Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oht entertained at one of the prettiest dinners given at the club in a long time. The table was blooming with fragrant sweet peas in the pastel shades.

Tulle in the same tones gave a filmy, cloud-like effect to the whole, making a wonderfully pretty and much adorned table. Each guest had as a favor a bouquet of waxy white gardenias. After dinner the Country Club dance was added to an evening of pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Oht's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mackintosh, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedemann, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Miss Edith Williams, Miss Bess Jones, Capt. J. Johnson and Mr. Billy Warren.

DR. CHARLES BRYANT COOPER'S CHOWDER SUPPER

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jack London were the honored guests at a chowder supper given by Dr. Charles Bryant Cooper at the Coopers' Kahala home. A swim in the ocean was enjoyed and then full justice was done the chowder. After an hour or more the party motored home by moonlight. Kahala is one of the most picturesque places on Oahu.

The Londoners, to the sincere regret of a large circle of admiring friends, leave on the 26th after a six months' visit here. They have made a permanent place in the regard of Honolulu. Friends will see them go with a deal of regret and welcome them back with a hearty aloha. They are overwhelmed with invitations before they leave, so anxious are their friends to do them honor.

Dr. Cooper's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Governor Lucius E. Pinkham, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis of Albany, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Brodie McGrew, Mrs. Paul Withington.

MISS NORA SWANZY'S DANCE

Thursday evening Miss Nora Swanzy was hostess at a very pleasant dance. The lovely Swanzy home was prettily decorated with Chinese lanterns, with electric lights, tall, graceful strands of green and white bamboo and scarlet hibiscus. The rooms were all opened into one for dancing. The large lanai was also used. A supper was served on the lantern-lighted lawn and it was a very lively party, one of the nicest dancing parties this summer. About 50 guests enjoyed Miss Swanzy's party and all left at a late hour very reluctantly.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) FT. SHAFTER, July 15.—Last Friday evening Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood were hosts at a very enjoyable "movie" party, when they entertained in honor of Miss Linnard of Pasadena, Cal. After the pictures at the aerodrome a supper at the quarters of Lieut. and Mrs. Rockwood in the cantonment made a jolly ending for this enjoyable affair. Those asked to meet Miss Linnard were Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Halloran, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg, Lieut. Edwin Witsell, and Dr. Delber.

Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg entertained informally at bridge last Saturday evening at their house in the cantonment.

Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell spent the past weekend at Schofield Barracks as guests of Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day in the cavalry garrison.

Dr. Harry Delber has moved from the cantonment to the bachelor building in the main garrison and is now occupying the quarters recently vacated by Lieut. and Mrs. Douglass T. Greene.

The many friends of Col. McRae will be interested to hear that he is convalescing rapidly from his recent operation at the department hospital and will shortly be able to see his friends.

Lieut. Thomas Crystal, who is a patient in the department hospital, is convalescing rapidly and very soon will be able to return to his home in the cantonment.

Tuesday evening Lieut. and Mrs. Ralph Holliday had Capt. and Mrs. Harry R. McKellar and Mrs. Alexander as their dinner guests in their home in the cantonment.

This afternoon Mrs. John B. Richardson is entertaining informally at tea at the Country Club in honor of Mrs. Pearson and Miss Pierson.

Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, who has been a patient in the department hospital for the past fortnight, has almost entirely recovered from her recent indisposition, and returned to her home in the cantonment on Monday, and is now able to receive her friends.

Miss Catherine Lenthall spent a few days during the past week at Schofield Barracks, the guest of Miss Dorothy Harker.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry McKellar and Mrs. Alexander were the dinner guests Thursday evening of Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall at their quarters in the cantonment.
