ROME.—Unconfirmed reports that Prince Edward Albert of Wales, heir apparent to the British throne, seeks the hand of Princess Yolanda, the eldest daughter of King Victor Emanuel of Italy, have excited widespread discussion here. The rumor is a surprise to Italians generally, for it had been supposed that the British prince would marry one of the daughters of Emperor Nicholas of Russia, but there are a number of incidents that have led the Italian people to believe that Prince Edward will marry the Princess Yolanda.

It is now stated that the reasons for the visit of the Duke of Connaught to the Italian king in May was to present the formal request of the king and queen of England for the hand of the Princess Yolanda. The princess is only fifteen years old, and the Prince is only twenty-two. She received an English education from boyhood under the tutelage of an English governess, Miss Brown, and those who know her intimately have spoken of her as one of the best marriageable prospects in European royal families. She is said to be an extremely sensible and practical girl, having been brought up in a family that is peculiarly domestic, and being the oldest girl in the family, her royal intimates say she has been regarded as the "boss" of the household. She has always acted as the protectress of her younger sisters and her brother, Prince Humbert. Sometimes she has extended this role even to her mother, the queen. The latter, on one occasion recently, when speaking to the American wife of an Italian journalist, said: "I rarely attempt to speak English because Yolanda insists on correcting my mistakes."

The princess strongly resembles her mother, having dark hair and eyes, and a fine complexion, and the nose is not unlike the famous one in the Mona Lisa painting. She has been given more of the modern outdoor education than many of the English girls who have followed the English and American custom. She has been taught to ride, swim and to play tennis, and she has been given a thorough knowledge of all the modern work among the four families of soldiers and in the hospitals, particularly the latter.

The princess is a Catholic, and the English law does not allow of the occupancy of the British throne by a Catholic, but among those who wish to see the marriage carried out, it is recalled that in recent years certain princesses have changed their religion in order to become queens. The queen of Spain became a Catholic on her marriage while the queen of Greece adopted the religion of the country for the same reason.

Should the marriage not take place, the fact may some day develop that it was because the princess so wished. The Italian royal family is known to be susceptible to conversion to domestic laws not to insist on a wedding which the princess fails to view with full approval. As the throne of Italy cannot be inherited by a woman, the marriage of a royal princess has not the same importance as in the case of the prince of Wales. The girl having apparently eliminated both German and Austrian suitors, if the Princess Yolanda marries in either England nor Russia, she may after all marry in Italy, where many of the princely houses consider themselves quite as good as the House of Savoy.

The Italian royal family is far wealthier than the English royal family, being rated only second as to that of Russia in wealth, and much of this wealth is in gold cash, not in undeveloped lands.

AN ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
Col. and Mrs. Charles James McCarthy announce the engagement of their daughter, Pearl Lydia, to Mr. Frank W. Burns of Hamakua, Oahu.

MR. AND MRS. HAROLD CASTLE'S SUPPER PARTY.
A delightful swim and supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle's way of entertaining for Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould on Monday evening of this week. It was a perfect night and most thoroughly enjoyed by the guests of honor and those bidden to meet them. After a dip in the ocean the guests did full justice to the bountiful repast served before them. The Goulds are enjoying every hour of their time here and making the most of all that Hawaii has to offer.

The friends invited by the Castles to meet the Jay Goulds were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. Frederick Kohl, Miss Marian Zelle, Major Matthew De Laney and Mr. Fritz Wichman.

MRS. EDWARD M. WATSON A HOSTESS
Friday Mrs. Edward M. Watson was hostess at a very pretty luncheon given in honor of Mrs. G. C. Ritter, who has been the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Balch, for some weeks past. The table was extremely pretty, with dozens of the very choice hibiscus blooms, from the palest tint of pink to a deep rose. A mound in the center of the table made of two shades of pink tulle was the foundation and gently resting upon it were the hibiscus blossoms. The name-cards were hand-painted and represented different Hawaiian blossoms.

Miss Lois Brundred, house-guest at the E. D. Tenney home. Miss Brundred is an athletic girl, a golfer of much prowess.

Mrs. Watson's guests were Mrs. G. C. Ritter, the guest of honor; Mrs. Tom Church, Mrs. W. A. Purdy, Mrs. Edward Dekum, Mrs. J. A. Balch, Mrs. Hugh Hairston, Mrs. John Guild, Mrs. Harvey Murray and Miss Dorothy Guild.

After luncheon a scent game was played. A dozen kinds of perfume were offered and each had an opportunity of testing her sense of smell, no easy task. Mrs. J. A. Balch's selections were the most accurate and to her was given a bottle of perfume. To the one who guessed the least number was given a Wichman box, holding a penny. A merry laugh was given to Mrs. Tom Church, who won the cent.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD TENNEY'S POI SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Tenney invited a number of friends in to welcome home their son and daughter and their house-guests who came in on the Maunaloa on Tuesday evening. The table was decorated as only Mrs. Tenney knows how, with orchids, roses, sweet peas, forget-me-nots, Shasta daisies and feather green. The house resembled a flower shop, so dense and plentiful were the flowers which had been sent by friends having an affectionate aloha for this charming family. A swimming tank, with a wonderful pergola above it, was a surprise gift to the young folks and a swim was indulged in before supper. Miss Wilhelmina Tenney brought home as her house-guests Miss Lois Brundred and Miss Alice Hastings, while with Vernon Tenney came Donald Lewis. Many parties are being planned in honor of the young people of this household.

Mr. and Mrs. Tenney's guests were Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. George Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Atkinson, Mrs. Julia Macfarlane, Mrs. Alice Schultz, Miss Lois Brundred, Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Thelma K. Murphy, Miss Rosie Herbert, Miss Adeline Smith, Miss Edna McDuffie, Miss Grace Carter, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mr. Fred Wichman, Mr. Jack Galt, Mr. Carter Galt, Mr. Charley Herbert, Mr. Donald Lewis, Mr. Guy Macfarlane, Mr. Douglas Damon, Mr. Henry Carter and Mr. Vernon Tenney.

A WEEK-END PARTY.
This week-end Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham are entertaining complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould of New York. Mokuleia will be the setting for this delightful affair and the Dillinghams country home is one of the show places of Oahu. All sorts

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES TEMPLETON CROCKER'S DINNER

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker entertained at dinner, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould. The table was exquisite with its handsome decoration of American beauty roses and waxy white gardenias and the soft maidenhair fern. Dancing was the attraction of the guests after dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocker's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould for whom the dinner was given; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Mrs. Frederick Kohl, Miss Marian Zelle, Maj. Matthew De Laney and Mr. Frederick Wichman. It was Mrs. Kohl's birthday and many indeed were the good wishes bestowed on this very charming woman.

The Crocker's, Mrs. Kohl and Miss Zelle all leave here on the 28th of this month.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT LUNCHEON

Today Mrs. Oswald Lightfoot was hostess at a very delightful luncheon. The table was ablaze with golden shower and the double golden coreopsis and long fronds of fern. The luncheon went on as most luncheons do until the service plates were removed, when, lo! dainty missives had kept very quiet indeed. The envelopes were soon opened and the betrothal of Miss Pearl Lydia McCarthy and Mr. Frank W. Burns was announced. The bride to be was showered with good wishes. It was a unique way of announcing the coming event and it is quite surprising that the bridal picture of one member of the family is in this issue of the Star-Bulletin and the betrothal picture of another sister in the same issue.

Miss McCarthy has been on Maui for the past year and there she was wooed and won, and Maui is to be her future home. Mr. Burns is a civil engineer in the Hamakua district on Maui.

It will be a late winter wedding.

Mrs. Lightfoot's guests spent the afternoon in pleasant chat and the extending of good wishes for the young lady.

The guests were Miss Pearl McCarthy, the guest of honor; Miss Aileen McCarthy, Miss Louise McCarthy, Miss Margaret McCarthy, Miss Abbie Lucas, Miss Violet Lucas, Miss Mabel Lightfoot, Miss Ester White, Mrs. Caleb Burns, Mrs. B. Burkowitz, Mrs. Lyman Bigelow and the hostess, Mrs. Oswald Lightfoot.

MRS. ARTHUR CRENSHAW'S LUNCHEON

Mrs. Arthur Crenshaw, wife of Lieut. Cmdr. Crenshaw, naval station, Pearl Harbor, was hostess on Wednesday at a very dainty and well appointed luncheon. A low wide spreading basket was artistically filled with white fields, daisies and maidenhair fern. The name cards were most Jap. made, and the guests were joyed with a refreshing swim, while others played bridge.

Mrs. Crenshaw is a very charming woman and a perfect hostess and the home-going hour came all too quickly. The naval station is now one of the beauty spots of the island with its avenue of alternating royal palms and caca grandis. The quarters of the officers and their families are especially attractive and those of the Crenshaws is especially pretty.

The friends enjoying Mrs. Crenshaw's hospitality were Mrs. Thomas Hart, Mrs. Norman Kirk, Mrs. Charles McLeod, Mrs. Howard Bode, Mrs. John W. Lewis and Mrs. Crenshaw's sister, Miss Muster.

MR. AND MRS. E. F. CHILLINGWORTH ENTERTAIN

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Chillingworth entertained with a poi supper in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hons, who left on Wednesday's steamer for a San Francisco trip. About twenty guests enjoyed this affair.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES CHILLINGWORTH ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chillingworth entertained on Monday evening very informally for several friends who left on Wednesday's steamer for the mainland. The table was very pretty. A basket was filled with golden coreopsis and asparagus fern. Those enjoying the Chillingworth dinner were Mr. and Mrs. P. Martin of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hons, Miss M. Sheehan, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Chillingworth, Sr., and Miss Alice Doherty. The evening was spent with chat and music.

COPELAND WOODWORTH.

M. L. Copeland, accountant of the Mid-Pacific Institute at Honolulu, was married yesterday afternoon to his childhood sweetheart, Miss Ethel Woodworth, by the Rev. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Copeland are at the Stewart Hotel. Miss Woodworth came all the way from Warsaw, New York, and met Copeland at the docks when he arrived at Honolulu. They have been engaged several years, and will return to Honolulu after a honeymoon in California.—Examiner, July 6.

FEMINE GOLF ENTHUSIAST VISITS HONOLULU

Among the popular athletic girls that Honolulu is honored with visits from this year is Miss Lois Brundred, who is the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Tenney and Miss Wilhelmina Tenney. Miss Brundred is of medium height, a trim figure on the links and extremely attractive. She is the champion "golfer" of the Wanango Country Club, Oil City, Pa. She has also taken many trophies at Pittsburg, Philadelphia, St. Paul and other places. Enthusiasts of the royal game here sincerely hope that her advent will awaken a new interest and stimulus among the golfing ladies of Honolulu.

The picture of Miss Brundred in this issue shows her in action at the conclusion of a long drive.

MR. AND MRS. HAMILTON P. AGEE'S DINNER

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton P. Agee entertained at a delightful and well appointed dinner. The table was very pretty with its adornment of American beauty roses and waxy white gardenias and fern. After a delicious dinner the Agee's and their guests motored out to Haleiwa, where the evening was whiled away dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Agee's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lytell, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hales, Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Pool and Mr. Bradley, a visitor from the Philippines.

MISS JOSEPHINE SOPER A HOSTESS

On Monday at the Country Club, Miss Josephine Soper was hostess at a very pretty and charmingly arranged luncheon given in honor of Mrs. G. Dohrman and Miss Dohrman of New York City, who are now on their second visit to Honolulu and Miss Glenn and Miss Morrison of Pasadena. The other guests were Miss Greenfield of Ewa, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Greenfield and Mrs. J. H. Soper. Efficiencies was much in evidence in the decorations. Miss Soper has created a number of new hibiscus flowers and they are a credit to her cleverness and skill. Miss Soper has just returned after having spent six months at Waihee, Kauai.

BRIG-GEN. AND MRS. ROBERT K. EVANS ENTERTAIN

Brig-Gen. and Mrs. R. K. Evans, while they have been here only six weeks, are really "Hawaiians" in spirit. Friends of theirs on Wednesday's transport were taken all about the city and shown its many attractions. The flowering trees have made an especially deep impression upon Gen. and Mrs. Evans and both the Evanses are enthusiastic about the islands and their best regret is that they will not be three or four years here. They were the Evanses luncheon guests. Others at the luncheon were Lieut. Charles Brickwood Lyman, aide to Gen. Evans. The Gordons are returning to Manila.

LIEUT. GEORGE H. PAINE TO ENTERTAIN

Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Robert Evans will take early dinner Sunday with Lieut. George H. Paine of Schofield Barracks. Lieut. Hornsby Evans will accompany his father and mother to Schofield.

COL. AND MRS. DANIEL HOWELL'S DINNER

Next Wednesday evening Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell of Shafter will give a dinner party in honor of Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans.

Miss Pearl Lydia McCarthy, whose engagement to Mr. Frank W. Burns of Maui was announced at a pretty luncheon this week.

MISS SMITH AND MISS McDUFFIE TO ENTERTAIN

Miss Adeline Smith and Miss Edna McDuffie, who have been guests at Haleiwa for the past three months, are entertaining with a dinner-dance this evening. Some among their guests are Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mr. Bob Menary, Mr. George Alhborn and Dr. Jay D. Witham.

MISS HELEN CHURCH ENTERTAINS

Miss Helen Church was hostess at an informal tea on Tuesday afternoon. About a dozen girls were guests.

MAJ. AND MRS. GIDEON VAN POOLE'S DINNER-DANCE

The Country Club on Friday evening was the setting for one of its favorite moonlight dances. A feature of it was the dinner by Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Pool. The table was lovely with its snaded candies, lovely blossoms and clouds of gossamer tulle in the pastel shades.

MR. AND MRS. LOTHROP WITHINGTON COMPLIMENTED

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Reynold McGrew gave a chowder supper at their Kahana home, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lothrop Withington, who are here on their honeymoon trip. After a refreshing dip in the ocean the guests enjoyed the chowder.

THE COUNTRY CLUB DANCE

The moonlight dance at the Country Club last evening brought out a large company of people. It was an enjoyable affair. Eighty-three guests were present at dinner and fully a hundred others of the dancing set joined the diners for some hours on the floor. The night was perfect. It is hoped that the club directors will continue the moonlight dances through the year.
