CROWD JEERS AS CASEMENT HANGED FOR HIGH TREASON

Groans and Prayers From Spectators as Execution is Announced Complete

RELATIVES REFUSED REQUEST FOR BODY

"I Die for My Country," Says Former Irish Leader as He Ascends Scaffold

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
LONDON, Eng., Aug. 3.—"I die for my country."

With these words, uttered without a tremor as he ascended the scaffold, Roger Casement, shorn of his lordly title and condemned to death for high treason, was hanged at Pentonville jail at 9 o'clock this morning.

Hours before the time set for the execution, a large crowd, composed both of sympathizers and scoffers, gathered outside the jail. The crowd was orderly but when at 8:40 o'clock the prison bell began tolling in signal of the approaching execution, mingled cheers and groans went up from the dense mass of spectators outside the prison gates. The execution was strictly private. None but officials were allowed to attend.

Two priests accompanied Casement to the gallows, he having embraced Catholicism in his last hours.

According to an attendant who stood near him, ready to support him should he overcome, his last words, with the exception of the prayers which he repeated until the very final minute, were "I die for my country."

His demeanor was calm and courageous. He slept well last night.

At a minute after 9 this morning a single stroke of the prison bell announced that the trap had been sprung. He was dead in a very few minutes.

Behind the jeering crowd outside the gates there was a group of 30 Irishmen and Irishwomen. When the bell announced Casement's death the group fell to their knees and prayed for the repose of his soul.

His counsel, Gavin Duffy, requested on behalf of the relatives that they be given the body for interment, but the request was refused and the body was consigned to a bed of quicklime in the prison yard in accordance with English custom in case of treason.

NET TIGHTENING ROUND LABOR MEN IN BOMB PROBE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 3.—Fresh evidence has been collected by the police and the district attorney's office in their investigation of the bomb outrage, and it apparently has tied the knot still tighter around two of the five persons under indictment charged with complicity in the plot that led to the preparedness parade outrage.

The district attorney announced last night that a man, whom he calls "John McDaniels," but whom he refused to identify, for fear that "McDaniels" might come to some harm, has positively identified Warren K. Billings as the person seen at the spot where the explosion occurred, carrying a suitcase, such as that which has been proved to have contained the high explosives that did the work of the plotters.

"McDaniels" also has identified Thomas Mooney, labor leader, as a man he afterwards saw talking to Billings at a nearby street corner. The conversation is said to have taken place before the explosion.

A copy of the joint bond was sent to the remaining trustees with the understanding that, if they did not reply by 3 o'clock the individual bond would be filed.

Judge Ashford said it had been "abundantly proved" that King is a person of the Protestant religion.

Shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon E. C. Peters, attorney for King, notified the Star-Bulletin that he had not heard from the remaining trustees and that the individual bond had been sent to Circuit Judge Ashford for approval.

Chase For Submarine Proves Popular

Absolutely nothing like it! It stands unique in the newspaper history of Honolulu. It proves conclusively that Star-Bulletin readers know a good thing when they see it.

Already they are responding to the unusual opportunity presented them in the submarine chase contest, and their chase cards are commencing to pour in.

The first one to arrive from a reader living outside Honolulu came from Private Frank, Co.-H, 1st Infantry, Schofield Barracks. It's the leader of a long line of chase cards reflecting the great interest taken in the contest by Star-Bulletin readers.

One merchant alone handed out over two hundred chase cards yesterday morning; several others gave out almost as many.

Everybody has a chance to win the $50 prize. Your chance is as good as the next. Get a copy of Tuesday's Star-Bulletin, pick up your scissors, cut out the little cruisers and submarines that appear in the ads, follow the instructions you will find detailed on page three of that issue, and become a candidate for the gold prize.

Try it! You may be the lucky winner!

GERMANS ASSERT LINES ON WEST STILL UNSHAKEN

(Official Cablegram.)
GERMAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS, August 2.—A month has elapsed since the great Anglo-French thrust, called in England the "great sweep," was launched. During this time, according to the enemy's announcements beforehand, the decision had to be obtained under all circumstances by the Entente Powers.

On a 28-kilometer front the enemy advanced four kilometers on an average, but after the experiences of July 20, 22 and 24, as well as those of July 30, they cannot affirm that the German line was even shaken at any place.

This "success" cost the British at least 230,000 men, according to very conservative estimates. For the French losses there is no basis for accurate estimate, but since the French had to do the biggest part of the job, and even taking into consideration their superior fighting, still the total enemy losses will reach 350,000.

The German losses cannot be compared to these figures, they are so much smaller.

During the slow progress of the offensive on the part of the enemy the Germans had time to construct new fortifications behind the German line identical with those lost.

In order to illustrate the above-mentioned facts it is stated that in the first month's combat at Verdun the Germans gained a double extent of territory, while the German casualties there were only 100,000.

TEUTON AIR-RAIDS COVERING EASTERN COUNTIES; GERMANS ADMIT REVERSES IN FRANCE

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless).
BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 3.—A Zeppelin last night succeeded in dropping bombs in London, on the Harwich railway works and on industrial establishments in the county of Norfolk.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 3.—One of the biggest air-raids of the war was carried out by the Germans in the early morning hours today, when a fleet of six Zeppelins, presumably accompanied by a large number of aeroplanes, stole over the eastern counties of England in the darkness and dropped bombs at a number of widely-separated points.

Up to the present time 80 bombs are known to have been dropped, but the only effect so far reported is the killing of nine horses. Most of the bombs are said to have dropped and exploded without much damage.

One of the Zeppelins, caught in the air by a shaft of light from a searchlight, was immediately fired on by anti-aircraft guns. It was thought at the time that this Zeppelin was crippled by the explosives shot from below, and the report was confirmed by a despatch from Ymuiden, Holland, which says that a Zeppelin was sighted today off the Dutch coast with a heavy list, flying as if damaged.

That Germany is raiding the English coast almost nightly with Zeppelins and aeroplanes has been shown by the reports of the past two weeks. A German official cablegram received today says:

"BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 3.—German airship squadrons on the night of July 31 and August 1 attacked London and the eastern English counties. Bombs were dropped with success upon coast works, defensive batteries and industrial establishments of military importance. All the airships, though violently shelled, returned safe. They were shelled by British sea-forces while approaching the coast."

French Make Substantial Gains At Monacu; Take Verdun Trench

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless).

Since August 1 the French have captured 1100 Germans on this bank of the river.

Berlin Despatch Admits French Gained Trenches In Hard Fighting

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless).
BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 3.—The French today penetrated the German lines at Monacu farm. They also took a trench-section north of Monacu hamlet. North of Verdun there was considerable fighting today, the French recapturing a trench section they had lost to the Germans.

Conference at White House on Labor Situation

Vote of Brotherhoods to Date Appears to Favor Walkout; Result is Expected to Be Known August 8

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless).
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—The good offices of President Wilson may be called upon to avert the threatened country-wide strike of railroad employees, involving virtually all of the big systems and affecting hundreds of thousands.

William Chambers, commissioner of the federal board of mediation and conciliation, conferred with the president at the White House today in connection with the strike situation, which is admittedly serious. It is feared that 400,000 railroad employees will quit.

The president is eager for all information possible, in order to be in a position to intervene if the strike seems inevitable. The vote of the railroad men to date appears to favor a walkout. The results of the national vote, which is taken by mail, are expected to be known August 8.

COMPROMISE OF G. O. P. FAILING TO MATERIALIZE

Meeting Called for Monday Night Expected to Bring Affairs to Climax

Compromise plans to bring harmony to the Republican "progressive" and "stand-pat" factions arising out of the recent platform convention have so far failed of success. For nearly two weeks the situation has drifted along, with neither side taking action, but a small-sized crisis is approaching.

Next Monday night there is to be a meeting of the territorial executive committee for organization and preliminary campaign plans. If Chairman Berndt adheres to his announced and reiterated determination, he will resign unless there is a material reorganization of the committee to make it "more representative of the business community."

Last week there was a plan afoot which involved the retirement of H. E. Murray, fourth district, and E. J. Crawford, fifth district, from the executive committee, and W. S. Kaka, fifth district, from the central committee. In the fourth district it was proposed to substitute John Wise of the executive committee, and in the fifth district Alfred W. Eames was to go on the executive committee.

These concessions, Republicans were told, would satisfy the insistence of the "progressives" for changes in the executive committee, with some minor changes in the central committee.

Delegate Kuhio, Robert W. Shingle and others were asked to use their efforts with the so-called "stand-pat" men to insure the retirement of the men for whom substitutes were chosen. All last week there were rumors that the changes would be made, but up to today nobody had seen fit to offer himself up as a political sacrifice.

Hence the prospect that when Chairman Berndt calls the meeting Monday night there will have been no concessions. In which event he will be facing a dilemma. Republicans have urged him to stay, even though the committee as constituted does not have the confidence of the "business element." On the other hand, he has made public a declaration which amounted to an ultimatum that he would resign unless there were a bona fide reorganization of the committee.

The situation does not strike the old-time politicians as serious. They believe some slight concessions will be made and Chairman Berndt induced to remain. As for the "stand-pat" men they are giving a perfect exhibition of standing pat, and from their camp comes word that they are waiting with some gleeful expectation to see what happens on Monday night.
