

HOW MRS. BEAN MET THE CRISIS

Carried Safely Through Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Nashville, Tenn.—"When I was going through the Change of Life I had a tumor as large as a child's head. The doctor said it was three years coming and gave me medicine for it until I was called away from the city for some time. Of course I could not go to him then, so my sister-in-law told me that she thought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure it. It helped both the Change of Life and the tumor and when I got home I did not need the doctor. I took the Pinkham remedies until the tumor was gone, the doctor said, and I have not felt it since. I tell every one how I was cured. If this letter will help others you are welcome to use it."

—Mrs. E. H. BEAN, 525 Joseph Avenue, Nashville, Tenn.

BRIDGE AT MARE ISLAND
 Bridge is proving extremely popular at Mare Island this season, and in addition to a number of spontaneously organized parties, a four-table club has been formed with meetings scheduled for each Monday evening. By playing in the evenings, it is possible to include the male contingent of the naval set, this contrasting with the majority of bridge meetings around the navy yard as the latter are usually played in the afternoon and therefore exclusively feminine. The club met last Monday at the home of Lieut. and Mrs. R. G. Coman. Mrs. Coman is one of the newest navy brides. She was formerly Miss May McMeans of Santa Rosa and

 Miss Lydia Miller, sister of Mrs. Henry Blake, and assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Blake, gave a reception and dance Saturday evening at the home of the latter in Koloa for children of the neighborhood who are leaving this week for school in Honolulu. The house was brilliantly lighted and decorated for the occasion.

Among the students present were the children of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Kuhlmann, Rev. Kaulili, Mr. and Mrs. Kaupiko, Mr. and Mrs. Kruse and others. Ice cream and other refreshments were served and dancing was kept up to the small hours of morning. All were agreed that it was a most delightful affair.—Garden Island.

KEEP OPEN HOUSE
 The E. A. Knudsen have kept "open house" in their beautiful mountain resort all summer, or since the early part of July, and guests have been coming and going all the time. There has been plenty of good hunting and many "campers," among the latter being D. Howard Hitchcock, with his family, who spent three weeks in a pretty spot known as Kookee; and the club has been filled with prominent Honolulu teachers all the time, the last to depart on September 2. A camp has been in existence there for 10 years and by adding a little each year it has become quite up to date.—Garden Island.

The daintily appointed table in the dining-room, on which covers were placed for 12, had for its centerpiece pink gladiolus intermingled with lace-like ferns, while another table, spread for the same number of guests, was placed in the attractive reception hall and had for its decorations white lilies peeping through the delicate tracery of maidenhair fern.
