DOCTORS OPPOSE MEDINA REMEDY AT FT. SHAFTER

Believe That Other Medicine Should Be Handed Out to Medical Corps

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Sept. 10.—The cable between the Medics and that D Company of the 2nd Infantry looked at first sight as if it were going to be another of those many victories gained recently by the hospital lads, but fortunately for the doughboys whenever the luck had a chance to decide matters it always waved its hand over the 2nd Infantry, and so the score that was finally decided by one little run went to the team of the livers.

The bandage wrappers played a most excellent game from start to finish and if they failed to win a victory in the game today they certainly laid the foundation for winning many games in the near future. This is all the more true because they have, like Columbus, discovered new material in a catcher in the rather euphonious name of Stoebauer. This same man played on Labor Day and then showed promise of making a very capable, all-around ball player, but to suddenly develop into a catcher is not an easy feat at any time, and to develop into a catcher that is noticed in a crowd is showing the right sort of timber out of which the big league players are made—sometimes.

Hanna really pitched a very excellent game, but, as we said above, the bouquets of luck did not fall his way and his team could neither make the hits at the right time, but they did and could make some few errors.

The score:

Down the Polo Field at Full Speed: Maui and Oahu Matching Strength and Speed

Some of the finest and fastest riding of polo ponies Hawaii spectators have ever seen was displayed Saturday when the evenly-matched Oahu and Maui quartets fought it out Saturday. In the photo above the ball has been driven hard down the field and the ponies are strung out in a race for the goal. The ball is coming up from behind like a bullet and the riders are looking backward at it. Riders from left to right are Walter Macfarlane of Oahu, Dave Fleming of Maui, Walter Dillingham of Oahu, Frank Baldwin of Maui and Harold Castle of Oahu. Position of flying ball is marked by a cross.

Oahu Four Wins Great Match From Maui Team

Local Poloists Drive Home Victory By Score of 8½ to 7—Walter Macfarlane Playing at No. 1 Plays Sensational Game and Scores Six Goals for Local Forces—Oahu Players Show Excellent Teamwork Throughout Thrilling Match

They may stage great matches at Meadow Brook, Lakewood and Little Neck, but the Meadowbrookers, Lakewooders and Littleneckers would have to hand out a mighty classy article of polo before local enthusiasts would believe that it bettered the play of Saturday afternoon at the Kapiolani field when Oahu won from Maui by a score of 8½ to 7.

Saturday's match was the best exhibition of brilliant polo that has ever been played on Kapiolani field. Excellent horsemanship, clever driving and teamwork made this contest, from an offensive standpoint, the best ever staged on Oahu. From the throw in until the players tipped their helmets in the center of the field, ending the match, the play was sensational. There were a number of misses, but these were overlooked by the spectators, who were keen on the offensive play, which brought out hard riding on the part of the two teams.

Dillingham Plays Great Game.
Capt. Walter Dillingham as usual played a steady game throughout, and judged the play well. His passing was fully up to the standard he set in the Kauai match, while his general play was much improved, as he had excellent mounts and got all that was possible out of his ponies. In the fifth period Dillingham after a ride out played a beautiful backhand through the lattice, which gave Oahu a big advantage.

Macfarlane a Sensation.
Out of the play of Saturday one poloist was the object of much attention. This was Walter Macfarlane at No. 1. Macfarlane was on the ball at all times. David Fleming, the excellent back of the Maui's, was watched every moment, and only on a few occasions did he have a chance to dispose of the Oahu No. 1.

Macfarlane not only played his position well, sacrificing goals for teamwork, but he ran through the Maui team on six occasions and upset the play of the visitors by shooting long shots, dribbles and angle shots through the posts. Macfarlane was a strong factor in every period. He not only rode Fleming out and allowed his teammates to score, but was in the play himself throughout.

Maui Was Favored.
Maui was the favorite when the match began, and had an excellent string of ponies, which outnumbered the Oahu mounts nearly two to one. But the visitors had not figured on a No. 1 playing an offensive game such as Macfarlane showed, and after Macfarlane on Indigo raced down the field after three short shots for a goal in the third period, the Maui defense became a less-learned quality.

It is not given to many players playing at No. 1 to score in nearly every period, but such was shown in the Maui match, and not only offensive play featured, but three saves at a critical moment were marked down to his credit. Fleming played good polo but Macfarlane's tactics upset his play and the Maui back was off his game in four periods.

Harold Rice Figures.
Harold Rice had two mishaps, falling from his pony twice, but the Maui No. 2 played a great game throughout. His long driving and fast play was one of the bright features of the match. In the sixth period Rice got away for a good play, and dribbled the ball to score with a long angle drive.

only in spots did one see the bright polo tactics which earned him the title of one of the leading players of Hawaii. He was always in the play, but the Oahu offense proved to be so strong that his play, with the exception of the midfield work, was discounted.

Watch Castle.
Maui was watching Harold Castle. He made a number of misses, but throughout the match he was riding them out, and especially in the third period on Buttons, after a hard ride, made a beautiful goal which upset the Maui contingent. A Maui player planned a defense for Castle, and despite the fact that his mounts were not of the best at all times, and taking into consideration the play that was blocked for him, he played great polo. At times the hard riding No. 2 came out of the pack and once took the ball near the goal, raced down the field and scored.

Maui did not win because their defense was not up to the standard of the Oahu team. It was in this particular that Arthur Rice starred. On five different occasions the Maui forces knocked at the door of the Oahu goal, and on five different occasions Rice came to the rescue and made great saves. It was this particular feature of the play that spoiled the Maui chance for a victory. On one occasion Maui had the ball within a foot of the lattice, but with a two-goal lead Rice sent the ball over the line for a safety. Two minutes later Rice made a nice backhand for a save.

Arthur Collins rode hard throughout the match, but Arthur Rice out-generaled the Maui No. 1 on enough occasions to give the Oahu players the advantage. In three periods Collins played up to the standard, and made a hard fight for victory in the last period, but excellent defense on the part of the Oahu contingent spoiled the play.

Quick Silver Injured.
Oahu began the match with a dash and in the second period the visitors more than equaled this with some hard riding. In the third period Dillingham on Helen C was all over the field, playing his short game and passing from every angle. In the next period Quick Silver, one of Dillingham's best ponies, was injured, and according to Dr. Monsarrat, will be unable to play this year.

The Oahu teamwork was fully up to the Oahu standard, and although the Maui team were favorites, the advice to watch the Oahu teamwork was not lost by many who played Oahu to win. It was a great match throughout, and the midfield work and playing the boards were in line with the play in the shadow of the goals. It might truthfully be said that the match was an offensive one from beginning to end, with only the defense of Oahu to mark the difference in result. Maui had banked on stopping Dillingham and Castle, and while they were playing these tactics Macfarlane and Rice were unusually busy.

Army Next.
If the army aggregation had high hopes of an easy win on Thursday they have perhaps changed their attitude. The Army have a great team of fast riders, but they must remember they are meeting the two best players in the islands and two others who might figure with any other duo. This in itself will be a factor. True,

ALL-OAHU TEAM MAKES GREAT SHOWING AGAINST WRECKERS

25th Infantry Team Wins By Score of 5 to 0—Rogan Pitches Wonderful Ball, Striking Out 14 of the All-Stars—Crumppler and Janssen Have Good Day, Allowing Heavy Hitting Wreckers Only Five Hits—Record Crowd Watches Game

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFFIELD BARRACKS, H. T., Sept. 10.—The All-Oahu baseball team made its initial appearance on the post diamond today and crossed bats with the Champion 25th Infantry team. The visitors were defeated by five runs to none, but the team shows class and should give a much better account of itself in the next two contests at this post.

That a good game was expected was shown by the overflowing bleachers and the filled grandstand. Fully 1200 people saw the game and went home feeling that the visitors had been carefully selected and a first class team is in the making.

The fans were glad to welcome the old favorites, Chillingworth, Lang Akana and Kan Yen. The rooters were equally divided as is customary at this post and every one present liberally applauded the fine work of Hoke, Dumshot and Kan Yen.

The game opened by Rogan whiffing Peterson; Chillingworth flew to Gollah in right field and Kan Yen made three passes without connecting, retiring the side.

For the 25th, Cullens made three very weak attempts to hit the ball and then retired to the pit. Swinton grounded to Hoke at third, who threw him out at first. Rogan then came up and landed a vicious blow, the ball traveling over third at a terrific rate. Hoke made a dive for it and speared the pill to the great surprise of all the spectators. It was certainly a classy catch and merited the long applause. Hoke, however, went into right field after this as his hands were in no condition to withstand any more bombardment of that kind. Kan Yen came into third.

In the second inning Lang Akana was the first up and placed a pretty single over second. On a delayed start he reached second. Flizer then struck out but Hoke came through with a scratch infield hit. On the first ball pitched he then started for second and Oscar Johnson made all the movements of throwing him out at second, but instead of throwing where he was looking he whipped the ball to third and caught Akana, who was playing horse at that sack. McGavin then struck out, thereby ending all hopes of a score.

The 25th were more successful in their half of the second and scored a run on singles by Johnson and Smith and Gollah's sacrifice fly to right field.

Oahu may not play against the Army as they did against the Maui four. Maui has not won one match despite the fact that they are usually favorites, and the Oahu four must not be overlooked.

All-Oahu was at the mercy of Rogan for the remainder of the game and only made one more hit off him. This was the scratchiest sort by McGavin in the eighth. McGavin also got on first in the fifth, he being the only man to get a life on first during the remainder of the game.

Crumppler held the 25th hitless and scoreless for the 3rd, 4th and 5th innings. He was ably assisted by Akana, Dumshot and Flizer, who made difficult catches of terrific drives by the Wreckers. In the sixth inning after Hawkins had fled out to Dumshot, Crumppler weakened and walked Cullens; Swinton then sacrificed him to second. Rogan was also given a pass to first on four wide ones. Johnson came through with a hit, scoring Cullens and putting Rogan on third. On Johnson's steal and McGavin's throw to second, Rogan scored. Smith was safe at first on Crumppler's error of his grounder and quickly stole second on the next pitched ball. Gollah whalloped one which bounced off Chillingworth's knee and rolled into deep leftfield, scoring Johnson and Smith and placing him on second. Fagin ended the scoring by striking out. Janssen replaced Crumppler in the seventh and retired the side in order. Swinton singled in the eighth but only got to the half way station before the side was out. Without further excitement the game ended.

Six Records Broken at A. A. U. Games at Newark

George Bronder Breaks American Record For Javelin Throw—Three Hurdle Records Are Smashed By Simpson, Murray and Hummel—Sensational Middle Distance Runner From South Sets New Mark in 880 Yard Run—Many are Entered

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
NEWARK, N. J., September 11.—One American record and five A. A. U. senior outdoor records were broken at the Amateur Athletic Union senior championships held in this city on Saturday afternoon. The meeting of the star track and field athletes was the Olympic event of the year, and hundreds of athletes were gathered from all parts of the country.

George A. Bronder of the Irish American Athletic Club set a new American record for throwing the javelin, sending the spear a distance of 190 feet and 6 inches, which breaks the former record held by H. B. Liveridge of the University of California by 5 feet 8 1/2 inches. The world's record is held by E. V. Lemming of Sweden at 204 feet 5 1/2 inches.

Simpson Sets Mark
Robert Simpson, the sensational hurdler from the University of Missouri, captured the 120 yard hurdle event from a field of fast timber toppers in 14.4 seconds, which sets a new A. A. U. senior record. The former senior record was 15.15 seconds held jointly by Kraenzlein, A. B. Shaw and Forrest Smithson. Simpson is credited with a mark of 14.35 seconds in this event earlier in the year. Fred Murray of Stanford University won the 220 yard hurdles in 24 seconds, which beats the old senior record by 4.5 of a second. The former record was held by John Eller and Joe Loomis. The American record is held by Kraenzlein and Wendall of Wesleyan at 23.35 seconds on a straightaway.

Another hurdle record was broken, when Walter Hummel, the little blond barrier man of the Multnomah Athletic Club of Portland, Oregon, won the 440 yard barrier event in 54.45 seconds, which breaks the former senior record held by W. H. Meanix of the Boston Athletic Club by 3 full seconds. Hummel's time is only 1.5 of a second under the American record made by Meanix.

Wisconsin Giant Performs
Arlie Mucks, the Wisconsin Giant, won the discus event on Saturday from a field of strong weight men, hurling the Grecian platter a distance of 145 feet 4 1/2 inches, breaking the senior record of 137 feet 1 1/2 inch held by E. J. Muller of the Irish American Athletic Club of New York.

For the first time in the history of track athletics a track man from the South has set a new senior record. In the 880 yard run Don Scott of the Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical School won out from a field of great middle distance runners and flashed home to the tape in 1:54, which is 1.5 of a second faster than the time made by Mel Sheppard in 1911. In the recent conference meet held at Chicago, Scott won out, and set a mark of 1:53.45 seconds. Scott is the only middle distance runner of note which has been produced from that section of the country.

Even the youth who claims to have a finished education has a lot to learn. The upstart who says trade is vulgar is usually slow when it comes to paying his bills.
