MAUI FAVORITE OVER KAUI IN STRUGGLE TODAY

Poloists From Valley Island Have Slight Edge; Jay Gould Will Play on Kauai Team

Maui and Kauai polo teams will meet this afternoon at Kapiolani Park in the fourth game of the championship series. The game is scheduled to begin at 3:30. This will be the first match of the series between two visiting teams. These two aggregations have lost to Oahu, and the struggle today will be for second honors.

Maui played a hard match against Oahu, and should win from the Kauai team, although the Garden Island poloists have greatly improved their game. Jay Gould, who will play back, has proved to be one of the leading poloists in the game here, and his great defense and back strokes have brought out much favorable comment from the spectators.

Kauai Improves

Kauai will enter the match with a determination to even the score on games. James Spalding will be stationed at No. 1, Malina at No. 2, Charles Rice at No. 3 and Jay Gould at No. 4. Spalding has not played much of late until this year, but at one time was ranked one of the leading players in Hawaii. He is a good rider, and his work in the Oahu game was good. Malina is one of the hardest hitting players in the game, and when well mounted is always a factor in the offensive play of the Kauai team. Charles Rice and Jay Gould may shift positions, but in either case the team will not be at a disadvantage as both are hard riders and clever players.

Maui will have a great team with a number of fast ponies, and their recent showing against Oahu should be improved upon. Collins is one of the stars of the team, and playing No. 1 in the Oahu game, did excellent work, although in this match Walter Macfarlane's perfect game was a feature. Herold Rice is an excellent player, a hard rider and with a thorough understanding of the game. In Frank Baldwin, playing at No. 3, a position that is not new to him, Maui should show better work than on last Saturday when the Maui captain played at back. David Fleming is always a good back, and the changed combination is certain to be a factor in a Maui victory.

JAMES TEN EYCK THROUGH WITH THE ROWING GAME

DULUTH, Aug. 22.—James Ten Eyck, coach of the Duluth Boat Club crew since 1911, today announced his permanent retirement from the coaching game, giving pressure of eastern business interests as the reason. While Ten Eyck has had charge of the local crews they have won the majority of events in which they have entered, both in national and north-western regattas.

EARL THOMPSON PLANS TO ENTER DARTMOUTH

Like the major ball teams, the Eastern universities have their eyes on the athletes of the West. This time the athlete to answer the call of the East is Earl Thompson, the U. S. C. hurdler, who ranks with the five best in the world. It is reported in Long Beach that Thompson will remain in the East following his competition at the national track meet at Newark. He plans, it is said, to enter Dartmouth College next month.

THEY DANCE TONIGHT

Tonight with the long, hard training over and the races won and lost, the men of the boat club will have a chance to relax and tell how it all happened. How by some skillful maneuver they won or why they lost, all will be talked over and alibis given and accepted, for tonight are the dances, the grand finale of all great races. In fact, there will be three dances on the roof of the Young hotel building. "Sonny" Cunha will hold forth in the center and flanked on both sides, Dude Miller and Tom Carter with their players will add to the spirit of Regatta Day. Tickets selling at $1 may be secured from the club members or at the Alexander Young hotel office. There will be laughter, song and dancing. Be there.

SEVEN PUNAHOU GRID STARS OF 1915 FOR TEAM

Football Season at School Now Under Way; Correa Will Lead Team This Year

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) OAHU COLLEGE, Sept. 16.—The football season at Oahu College is now under way. There was a general meeting of all interested in football last Wednesday morning, at which nearly all the boys in school turned out. This support and interest on the part of all the boys is sure to be of great benefit this year.

The most noticeable feature of the general meeting was the large number of small and young fellows who are interested. Not including the boys of the preparatory school, it is quite probable that there will be enough small fellows for two teams. These boys will be under the direct supervision of and coaching of Silverman and Marsh, two new additions to the Punahou faculty. Both these men have had lots of football and other athletic experience and they are taking hold of the work with fine vim and understanding. Beginning with Monday, these teams will practise on the lower field daily. They will arrange a schedule of games with teams of their class—120 pounds and under.

There are seven "O" men in school this year. They are Capt. "Tony" Correa, Fred Peterson, Harvey Hitchcock, Dudley Pratt, Donald Brown, "Sleepy" Baldwin and Noble Kaubane. Five of these men are "yearlings," that is, they have had only one year's experience. There are several others who have had second-team and substitute experience who should be valuable men this year—Bill Mahikoa, Bill Palkul, Herman Alexander, Jimmy Rothschild, Anlay Macaulay, Nelson Robinson, Alex. Walker and Robert Kula. Kula, Palkul and Alexander have proved good as substitutes in critical games against Kamehameha and each has nearly won his letter.

Decker and Leal Out
Punahou gets two ex-high school men this year, Kenneth Decker and George Leal, both of whom look good for back material, though they are a bit light; Chang comes from McKinley, too, and he may make a good lineman; Clarence Blake, who has had some football experience at Kamehameha, has also donned the mole-skins.

Among the promising new material should be mentioned three huskies that have come up from the Prep school: Mortimer Lydgate, Will Kanakani and Charlie Hughes. These fellows all have the weight and should develop in a year or two into valuable men. The same is true of Hector Moir and others. Kee Fook Zane, brother of the sterling player of 1910, is out this season. His weight and handling should make him a valuable lineman. Clarence Kahal of Lahaina also looks promising. Leon Ebersole, Johnny Fassoth and H. Hampton are other additions to the squad.

Hard Campaign
Punahou has a hard task laid out for her if she is to win the fourteenth consecutive championship. The men and coaches all recognize this and they are carefully getting ready for the big games. It is fortunate that one of the members of the faculty, Godfrey Bergman, is a crack athlete and a speedy quarterback. He knows the game from goal to goal and he has played a lot of it. He and Frank Mitchell will have charge of the varsity squad. Both these men have played together and know the same system of play.

Punahou expects the same loyal support from the alumni this year that she has always had. The coaching and inspiration of Bill Paty, Johnny O'Bowda, Billy Williamson and many others have always been the strongest factors in turning out the successful teams of previous years and surely these old grads will lend their experience and enthusiasm again. The team will have fewer experi-

Garden Island Poloists Who Meet Maui Players Today

After being out of polo for some time, Kauai has come back with a strong, fast aggregation. This team was not expected to play excellent polo in the beginning, but the players have worked together in such a way as to receive the thanks of all lovers of the mallet game. The reentrance of Kauai into the game has been a big boom to the sport here, and despite handicaps of inexperience this year and lack of fast mounts the contingent has made a good record, and whether they win or lose in the match today they are certain to get all that is possible out of the play. The players from left to right are: James Spalding, No. 1; J. Malina, No. 2; Charles Rice, No. 3, and Jay Gould, No. 4.

OLYMPIAD TRIP WOULD BE BOOM FOR ATHLETICS

So Say Leading Authorities Interested in Sending Team to Far Eastern Meet

Since the announcement was made that the board of governors of the Far Eastern Olympiad would meet this month in Japan, Honolulu athletic followers have become interested, and many have stated that if the Far Eastern athletic authorities decide to ask Hawaii to compete, the sending of a team could be arranged.

Hawaii athletic fans have followed the work of the athletes in the East, and with swimmers here who can outdistance the best in the world, it is certain that there would be no danger of losing in this event. Hawaii has a number of good track athletes and in baseball the local athletes have more than held their own with the best in the Orient.

Hawaii Could Win
Prominent leaders in athletic lines here believe that a team of from 10 to 15 men could be sent to the Orient and not only capture the meet but bring the 1919 Olympiad to Honolulu. The time to go into this matter is as soon as definite word has been received from Japan. At least if the project fails to meet with favor with the Orient, it has shown that Hawaii is awake to the progress of athletics throughout the world.

Some of the leading authorities in the athletic world have already given statements on the movement, and a few of the expressions are published. Should the plan go through there is a certainty that the foremost citizens of Honolulu will get back of the move in earnest. Here is what has been said on the subject:

Boost For Athletics
Lorin Andrews: Sending a team from Hawaii would be one of the biggest boosts possible for the sport here. If the Japanese committee consents to the arrangement to invite Hawaii to the next Olympiad interest in amateur athletics will receive a big impetus.

"HI JINKS" WILL BE FEATURE OF GOLFERS NIGHT

Members of the Oahu Country Club Meet This Evening for Installation and Stunts

Members of the Oahu Country Club will meet this evening for their high jinks and installation of officers. The chairman of the committee on arrangements has been a busy person the past few days and an ideal program of features has been listed.

In the afternoon a tourney will be staged, which will bring out some good play, and in the evening the fun will start. Last year the members had what one might call a regular time from start to finish, and Clarence Waterman, who has been arranging for a jinks, has promised several good acts.

"Gentlemen and golf players, I take great pleasure in introducing to you the greatest marvel of the age. He was captured in the wilds of St. Andrew's when but a mere child. I wish to present to you Joe Slice, the only individual in captivity who ever made an 82 and then did not say that he should have had an 80." This will be the expression from Waterman.

According to some of the members of the committee, Waterman was selected in the refreshment committee because he had a good name. During the course of the evening C. G. Bockus, who has recently returned from Presidio, Englested and Blingum, will introduce the latest invention—a golf ball within a golf ball.

This ball is said to be a big improvement on the "Radium" ball invented by Bockus and Harold Giffard. Bockus has a number of stories which he has brought from the coast and these, with the new invention, promise to be most interesting. The newest golf ball has a tendency to cling to the green and as a test Alex Bell made a 74 yesterday with the combination.

projects that could be proposed to make Hawaii a real Hub of the Pacific.

Y. M. C. A. Interested
Glenn Jackson: Naturally the Y. M. C. A. has taken a great interest in the Far Eastern Olympiad and the associations throughout the Far East have been active in promoting the athletic work. It was so in Manila, and at Shanghai, and the association in Tokyo will be to the fore in boosting for the 1917 meeting.

RUBIEN FAVORS PLAN TO BRING FEMININE STAR

Secretary of A. A. U. Indorses Move to Invite Fanny Durack to America Next Year

F. W. Rubien, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, has indorsed the movement to bring the Australian girl swimmers to America to compete against the best feminine stars of the United States. Rubien has become interested in the movement and has approved of the plan.

Some months ago the plan was advanced in Honolulu to bring Fanny Durack and Olga Dorfner together in the first meet to be held in United States as a big feature of the Carnival. With the very best of swimmers here an excellent meet could be staged with the mermaids as the real feature. Honolulu would receive publicity from the mainland that would outdo anything of the kind ever given a meet. It would be a real boon to feminine swimming here.

A. A. U. Favors Mermaids
A few years ago the A. A. U. frowned on women swimmers. Now the secretary of the main body is doing everything possible to bring the best of mermaids to America. Things are changing, and without doubt we will see women competing in meets in the East as often as women tennis players compete in tournaments.

When Olga Dorfner and Claire Galligan traveled across the continent they were received by delegations, and the amount of publicity given the meet in which they participated in San Francisco far surpassed anything recorded before that time in swimming circles.

Real Tourist Feature
If San Francisco would send Frances Cawells, Los Angeles their leading star and with the Honolulu girls taking an interest here one of the best events that could be planned would be presented to the tourists as a feature.

At the same time that the girls' meeting is staged the star swimmers of Honolulu could compete. It is every bit as interesting to see a closely contested meet between Duke, Cunha, Keili, Lane and Kruger as it is to see a meet with some mainland star. A program could be outlined which would receive the approval of all lovers of aquatic sports. This meeting of the mermaids would create an interest here in feminine swimming that has been lacking.

The following clipping from an Eastern publication shows the attitude of the secretary of the A. A. U. on the subject:

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—In preparing dates for the women's swimming championships of the Amateur Athletic Union an attempt will be made to arrange the schedule so that Miss Fanny Durack and Miss Mina Wylie, the leading women swimmers of Australia, may compete for all the short distance American titles. This announcement was made today after a conference between Frederick J. Rubien, secretary-treasurer of the A. A. U., and Mrs. Hugh McIntosh, president of the New South Wales Ladies'

NEW GOLF CLUB WILL MEET FOR DINNER FRIDAY

Members of the Honolulu Golf Club Will Dine and Arrange for Tournament

Members of the Honolulu Golf Club will meet at the Alexander Young Hotel on Friday evening for dinner. After the dinner the members will hold a meeting to discuss plans for the beginning of a tournament.

It is expected that the members will hold a meeting to discuss plans for the beginning of a tournament. It is expected that the members will arrange for a tombstone tournament in the near future. A number of members have joined the club to date, and it is expected that a large number will hand their names in before the end of the year. The club was originally formed to handle tournament play and the first tournament brought out more than 50 participants.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLING ALLEYS TO OPEN MONDAY AT NOON

The Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys will open Monday noon for the fifth annual season. Necessary repairs have been made under the direction of J. C. Chamberlain and the Y alleys will be in tip-top shape for the opener next week.

Leagues will be organized in the near future and a committee is at work on a new Commercial League. The Pacific Coast Y. M. C. A. Bowling League opens November 2 and Honolulu will be a strong candidate for high honors.

New bowlers will have a chance to learn the game during the coming few weeks before the alleys are so largely used for league competition. The old-timers can get into shape leisurely so that a strong coterie of bowlers will be ready for the league season in October.

RACE MEET FOR CARNIVAL TIME NEW PROPOSAL

Mainland Horsemen Would Bring Five Fast Runners Here for February Event

Racing enthusiasts may have the pleasure of watching a big horse racing meet during the Carnival in February. This morning H. M. Ayres submitted a proposal to the members of the Carnival committee whereby five of the fast runners which raced at Tia Juana this year would come to Hawaii to meet the local bang tails.

The plan as outlined would mean the handling of the meet by the Hawaii Polo & Racing Club, and the receipts turned over to the Carnival committee. The Carnival committee in bringing the horses here and the Hawaii Polo & Racing Club would arrange the prizes.

Would Bring Runners Here
The proposal made on the part of Ayres is based on word received from the mainland from George A. Campbell of Tia Juana, that he would bring five runners, Vignola, Effie May, Prospero's Son, Aunt Tilly and Viva here, providing that expenses were paid for bringing the bang tails here and back to the coast. In his letter he states that he will take his own chances of making any money out of the prizes.

According to Ayres the Hawaii Polo & Racing Club will be willing to handle the meet providing a suggestion comes from the Carnival committee. They will attend to all arrangements and will turn over the net profits to the Carnival committee.

The horses named have been winners on the western tracks, and all are well bred. It is thought that if the meet is staged it will be sold on three afternoons during the week. The Carnival committee is expected to pass on the plan within the next month.

No Meet on Maui
There will be no regular race meet in Hawaii until that time as the Maui people have given up the plan for a meet on New Years. Angus McPhee is expected to retire from the racing game, while F. H. Looney has accepted a position with the Libby, McNeill & Libby Co., and will remain in Honolulu.

The special match race for September 20 between Onoata, Satisfax and Florence Roberts will go through as scheduled. The racing committee have already put up a purse and are waiting for the sweepstakes from the owners of the three runners.

What healthy Nerves Mean to You

A strong, vigorous nervous system means health, strength and ability to endure hardship and also to enjoy the full pleasures of life.

The man with healthy nerves accomplishes greater tasks with less fatigue. He has a clear eye, an active brain and a sound body. He is enabled to think better and work faster. He has energy. With healthy nerves he can overcome the hardest competition, be successful and gain wealth.

The woman with healthy nerves will prevent the sleepless mother, although weak with care and nursing, from a "break down" caused by her double or triple duty.

All men and women who suffer from these forms of nervousness—known as Neurasthenia—who have "gone to pieces," who lack energy, who have insomnia, who have succumbed to nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion, either mental or physical, whose condition is one of irritable weakness, will find ready relief and cure in the peculiar properties of
