PERRY-ARMSTRONG NUPTIAL KNOT TIED

A very pretty wedding, uniting two popular young people of this city, took place last evening in the Christian Church with Pastor David Cary Peters officiating, when Mr. Herbert D. L. Perry and Miss Mary Georgia Armstrong were united in marriage. Miss Maud Manning was maid-of-honor and Mr. Roy C. Blackshear was best man, while Mr. George F. Low and Mrs. Ralph C. Cuthbertson, close friends of the groom, were ushers. Miss Millicent Stroupe presided at the organ and Mr. A. R. Robertson played softly on the violin for part of the ceremony.

The pretty wedding was followed by a reception in the church parlors, at which many friends of the newly-married couple gathered to wish them godspeed on the voyage of life. Shortly after the ceremony the couple slipped away, and this morning started on a tour of Maui and Hawaii. On their return they will reside here.

Mr. Perry, who has been in Honolulu for about three years, is one of the valued members of the staff of B. F. Ehlers & Company. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Armstrong of 1073 Lunaliio street, and has been a resident here for some six years.

This morning an interesting meeting of a league of women for the promotion of "better movies" was held. A great deal of instruction and educational interest has been awakened by this move.

GET IT FIRST—NOT LAST

When a cold grips your system it is convincing proof that your condition is weakened—remember that. It is risky indeed to simply trust your strength to throw it off, because neglected colds have brought more serious sickness than any other one thing, while weakening cathartics and stimulating syrups are often depressing and dangerous.

The one best treatment for any cold—the one so often relied on when others fail, is the powerful blood-nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the very sources of bodily strength to suppress the present cold and generate strength to thwart further sickness.

Get Scott's first, not last—and insist on the genuine—always free from alcohol and injurious drugs.

COAST SOCIAL NOTES

FREEMAN-JOHNSON

Of the wedding of Mr. Harry Freeman of Honolulu and Miss Nonie Johnson of Las Flores, Cal., the Oceanside, Cal., Blade of September 16, says:

"A very pretty wedding, and one long to be remembered by all present, was that which took place at the residence of Miss Jennie Magee at the Las Flores ranch house on Saturday, September 9, at noon, when Miss Nonie Johnson, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Johnson, and a young lady who numbers her friends by the hundreds, was married to Mr. Harry Freeman of Honolulu, Hawaiian manager for the Holt Manufacturing Company of Stockton.

"The wedding, which was a private one and attended only by relatives of the bride and bridegroom, and a few intimate friends, took place on the lawn and was solemnized by Father Casimere, a priest of the San Luis Rey Mission. The wedding party of about 50 formed in the house and marched out on the lawn, where a concealed garden had been constructed of tulies from one corner of the house to the front fence. In this garden was an arbor, the ceremony taking place under a huge wedding bell made of polansettias.

"The bride, always very pretty and attractive from early girlhood, looked charming in her wedding dress and was attended by her sister, Miss Inez Johnson and Miss Maria Van Rensselaer as bridesmaids, the bridegroom being attended by Wm. Watt of Los Angeles as best man.

"Immediately following the marriage service, Mrs. Wm. P. Magee played the wedding march, and the party sat down to a wedding breakfast served also on the lawn, where the tables had been placed in the shade of the cypress hedge, which was decorated with all the beautiful flowers which abound at this season.

"Here the usual toasts and speeches took place and a delicious luncheon was served.

"About 3 o'clock the bride and bridegroom motored into Oceanside to catch the northbound 4 o'clock train, being accompanied by the more enterprising and youthful portion of the guests who were joined at the station by a large number of Oceanside friends of the bride.

"Oceanside is famous for its wedding 'send-offs,' but Saturday our younger people out-rivaled themselves in giving Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freeman a most amusing, hilarious and cheerful aloha. The Blade is prone to believe these singular performances might be moderately curtailed, but the young bride and bridegroom took the whole matter so joyously that possibly the point of view needs amendment.

"The Blade and the countless friends of Mrs. Freeman in San Diego county, and the many friends of Mr. Freeman throughout the state and the Hawaiian Islands, wish every happiness to the young people in their journey through life.

"Mr. and Mrs. Freeman first went to Los Angeles, from where they moved north to San Francisco en route to Honolulu, where they expect to make their home."

IN ARMY CIRCLES

Two army affairs of this week were those given by Mrs. Frank Weed at her quarters at the Letterman General Hospital at the Presidio Wednesday and the bridge party given by Mrs. William Chitty Thursday at the Presidio.

Mrs. Weed's guests were Mesdames Eben Swift, Clarence Connor, Wayne Lum, T. J. Nicol, G. E. Humphrey, L. J. Owens, Charles Weber, Clay Stayer and Miss Katherine Swift.

Mrs. Chitty's guest of honor was Mrs. Rawson Warren, who recently arrived at the Presidio from Honolulu. The other guests were Mesdames Chalmers Hall, Edward Carey, John P. Wisser, Guy Carleton, Alexander Milton, Allen Greer, James Frier, Paul Malone, Irvin Philippson, Guy Glassford, John McDonald, Ralph Harrison, Frank Weed, George Stockie, L. J. Owens, Sherrard Coleman, Misses Nell Carleton and Gertrude Malone.

MILLS CLUB ACTIVITIES ON COAST

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, was the guest of honor at an elaborate reception given Tuesday by the Mills Club at the Sorosis rooms in Sutter street.

Mrs. John Perine, president of Mills Club, and her executive staff welcomed the guests, among whom were presidents of the San Francisco clubs, the bay districts and from down the peninsula. It was one of the most interesting as well as distinctive affairs ever given in local clubdom. Society leaders, collegians, musicians and literary folks came to pay their respects to Dr. Reinhardt.

Mrs. James Rolph, Jr., and wives of other city officials were among the guests who attended the reception. The gowns worn by the club women, the flowers used in the decorative scheme, the music and the exchange of courtesies were some of the charms of the reception. Genial fellowship prevailed at the social gathering.

Among those who assisted in receiving were Dr. Marietta Beftala, Miss Grace Unger, R. A. Donaldson, Mrs. George P. McNear, Clarence Wetmore, Miss Janette Haight, Mrs. E. C. Wright, Mrs. Ingram, Miss Helen T. Bacon, Alice Dougherty, Mrs. J. J. McGee, Miss Rosalie Keep, Mrs. Wells Drury and Lenrietta Casebolt.—San Francisco Examiner.

ABOUT THE KOHLS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl are still maintaining their home there. "Idlewild" is one of the most beautiful places on the shores of Lake Tahoe, and while Mr. and Mrs. Kohl are there it is the scene of continuous entertainment. They are quite as devoted to its beauty as they are to their other lovely home at Easton. Idlewild was opened later than usual this year, owing to the fact that Mrs. Kohl made a long stay in Honolulu, so they are making up for that by remaining there later than has been their custom. Informal affairs, picnics, dinners and launch rides are taking place daily, their guests including those who, like Mr. and Mrs. Kohl, are remaining there through the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Kohl will return October 5 to Easton.—San Francisco Chronicle.

EFFICIENCY NEEDED IN HOUSEHOLD DUTIES

Efficiency is the watchword in business these days, and so it is with the up-to-date housekeeper who usually begins with her kitchen when she is furnishing the new home, whether it be in an apartment or house. There is no reason why the kitchen should not be just as attractive in its way as any other room in the home; it really should be regarded as a workshop and have all the modern appliances that make for comfort and ease in carrying out the details of three meals a day. A man demands the very latest equipment for his office, and why shouldn't the housewife exercise the same right in her kitchen, especially in this day when the servant problem is such a vital one?—San Francisco Chronicle.

FADS AND FANCIES IN PETS

There are fads and fancies in pets as in all other things, and this is nobody's fancy this season. The kitten threatens to take the place of the toy dog in many a woman's estimation.

It is said that a beautiful girl in Washington is responsible for the idea. She chose for her first appearance one of the leisure hours of the Harvard summer school when many young men were out enjoying an airing. It goes without saying they admired the pretty young girl from Washington and the fad she was trying to introduce into Boston. She marched gayly down the college thoroughfare with her favorite, a tiny two-weeks-old white kitten, nestling in her arms.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The many friends of Mrs. John Elliott and Miss Pissella Elliott are congratulating them on the news from Washington that Capt. Elliott has been restored to active service in the navy.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Elliotts have a host of friends in Honolulu who will read the above with interest.

GRANDVIEW GIRL COMES TO HAWAII

GRANDVIEW, Wash.—Miss Winifred Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bell, left Thursday for the Hawaiian Islands, where she will teach in a mission school. She expects to be gone several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Jackling left during the week for New York, where they will probably remain during the winter.—San Francisco Chronicle.

PALO ALTO, Sept. 23.—The wedding of Miss Alice Miriam Harrier, daughter of V. V. Harrier of Palo Alto, and Lester Lewis of Seattle, Wash., has been set for November 22. Miss Lyetta Hayes, daughter of J. O. Hayes of San Jose, will be maid of honor, and Mrs. Jack Mighell, Eleanor Tay, Mrs. Walter Wilson, Miss Alice Sanford and Miss Elizabeth Darsie will be bridal attendants. Both Miss Harrier and Lewis are Stanford graduates.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Lieut. Franklin Babcock, U. S. N., who recently arrived here from the East to visit his mother, Mrs. John Ereckridge Babcock, is being extensively entertained. He was recently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. William Babcock in San Rafael. Lieut. Babcock is a brother of Lieut. Conrad Babcock.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Col. William Forsyth, U. S. A., and his wife and daughter are guests at the Cecil Hotel. They are being entertained by their friends at the Presidio. Another army officer at the Cecil is Maj. Charles E. Tayman, who has been stationed at Schofield Barracks and came up from the Hawaiian Islands on the last transport.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Lieut. Hollis Le Roy Muller returned Tuesday night from Salt Lake City, where he had been stationed with the service training camp. Lieut. Muller joined his sister, Miss Marguerite Muller, at Fort Scott. Miss Muller came here last winter to visit her brother and has postponed her departure indefinitely.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Admiral and Mrs. Chauncey Thomas, whose attractive home, "The Moorings," has been the scene of much cordial hospitality since their advent on Monterey peninsula, were at home Tuesday afternoon to a group of friends, whom they entertained at bridge. There were six tables of card enthusiasts.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Lieut. and Mrs. Max B. Garber and their little son will be here soon to visit their relatives and friends. During their stay they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Willard. Before her marriage Mrs. Garber was Miss Etelka Willard. The Garbers are at present in Boise, Idaho.—San Francisco Chronicle.
