BRONZE REVUE IS BEST AS SEASON DRAWS TO CLOSE

Minstrel First Part Will Be Revived in Tonight's Program; New Songs and Dances

It is probable that the Bronze Revue will close its local season at the Bijou theater within the coming week and there appears to be a desire on the part of everybody connected with the organization to follow the dictates of George M. Cohan and "Leave 'em all a-laughin' when you say good-by." With this aim elaborate plans are being made for the closing bills and with the change of program of this evening there will be presented a brand-new melange of minstrelsy of the highest order. The ever popular "minstrel first part," the "olio" it used to be termed in the olden days when minstrelsy was a new institution, will be revived.

There will be no repetitions in tonight's bill. All songs of this company are concerned. Of course, no minstrel first part would be complete without some of the old songs, memories of which are entwined with the greatest names in the burnt-cork business. Yesterday's Star-Bulletin noted the death of the author of "Silver Threads Among the Gold." This sweet refrain was first sung in a minstrel show by one of the greatest ballad singers minstrelsy has ever produced, Richard Jose. "Dick" Jose still sings the old song today and, while his voice has gone beyond recall, there are those who would travel many miles to again hear this sweet song sung by this former sweet-voiced singer.

Saturday afternoon there will be a special children's matinee and this will probably be the last of these delightful afternoon affairs, consequently those tots who are commended by the sandman early in the evening while the grown folk go to the theater are expected to fill the big open-air theater on this occasion.

TRUTH FILMED BY FOX CORPORATION

Claire Whitney and William E. Shay in "The Ruling Passion," the latest sensational-William Fox release, are bringing large audiences to the Hawaii theater. However, this is nothing unusual, as the run of the Fox films are strong drawing cards, largely for the reason that they are more daring than the productions of other companies. Fox appears to make a specialty of the melodramatic, some might say the sordid, in the silent drama. No effort is made in these productions to bring the ending out in accordance with the best laid plans of fairy tales.

"The Blue Bird" is a name that has gained considerable prominence in the motion picture world of the mainland during the past few months and Blue Bird films are proving the equal of any, provided it is possible to believe the trade journals. Honolulu has, thus far, seen no Blue Bird productions but will be afforded this opportunity at the Hawaii next Sunday evening when "Undine" will be the offering. This film is said to be similar to the big Kellerman film but superior in the spectacular.

KIPLING USED AS BASIS FOR DRAMA

Honoluluans will be given an opportunity to judge of the latest sensational photo-dramatic release, "Alien Souls," at the Liberty theater tonight and to decide for themselves whether such a play is a benefit or a detriment to the social scheme of the United States. Sessue Hayakawa and Tsuru Aoki, Japanese photo-dramatic stars, appear in the leading roles, which deal intimately with the possibilities of assimilation of the yellow races by the white, or vice versa. Rudyard Kipling said it cannot be done when he penned those memorable lines: "For East is East and West is West; and ne'er the twain shall meet." The playwright in this instance might have taken these lines for the text of his drama.

There will be many who will raise objections to "Alien Souls" for the reason, they will claim, that such plays engender racial feeling. Others will praise the work on the ground that it is a sociological study. Each member of the audience must be his own judge. "The Broken Coin" concludes with the present chapter and the many followers of this thrilling serial are on tiptoe of expectancy for this finale.

NOT A PARTICLE OF DANDRUFF OR A FALLING HAIR

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in Just a Few Moments
 25-cent "Danderine" Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

REVENUE WORK HERE PRAISED

Agreeing with the opinion expressed of the local internal revenue work when he left here a month ago, the report of L. M. Dolde, special agent from Washington, has been received by Collector "Jim" Haley and classifies the office as No. 1.

As printed in the Star-Bulletin at the time of Dolde's departure the agent was highly pleased with the showing of the local office. The present report is forwarded by Internal Revenue Commissioner Osborn. It concludes as follows:

"Collector Haley devotes all the business hours of the day to the discharge of his official duties, maintaining a close supervision of the work in the office; proper office hours are observed and the entire force seems to be faithful and efficient in the discharge of its respective duties. Office files were in neat order and all the records written up to date. It is a pleasure to report that this office is in excellent condition."

How About That Doctor's Bill?
 You simply had to have the doctor at that time when you were not prepared to pay his bill. Of course, the doctor came, and he's been waiting ever since for you to pay him, in little dribs and drabs, maybe. It isn't fair. A savings account at the time would probably have saved you the humiliation of asking for credit.
