(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oct. 28.
 On Friday evening Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Strong gave a beautifully appointed dinner. A lovely basket of yellow chrysanthemums occupied the center of the table, while many gold shaded candles added to the artistic effect. The places were marked with dainty yellow cards for Maj. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. Kerr T. Riggs, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Greacen, Capt. and Mrs. William Shedd, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Miss Lella Wilson and Lieut. Wallace Phloren.

Maj. and Mrs. Lewis Sorley were hosts at a charming dinner on Tuesday evening, their guests being Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Strong, Col. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Col. and Mrs. William Snow, Mrs. Locke, Col. and Mrs. Earl Carnahan, Col. and Mrs. Richard Croxton and Col. John McMahon. A centerpiece of feathery ferns and many candles shaded in pink made the table most attractive.

On Tuesday the 1st Infantry Reading Club met with Mrs. Elvid Hunt.

Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous entertained at a delightful bridge dinner on Wednesday evening for Capt. and Mrs. Charles Meals, Capt. and Mrs. William Shedd and Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Black. The highest scores at bridge were made by Capt. and Mrs. Shedd who were given an attractive Hawaiian picture.

Yellow chrysanthemums and candles in dainty yellow shades made a very pretty decoration for the dining table at a dinner given by Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, on last Saturday evening, when they entertained for Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Frankenberg, Capt. and Mrs. Harry Pfeil and Lieut. and Mrs. Jacob Devers.

Mrs. James Higgins gave another very enjoyable sewing party on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Karl Truesdell, Mrs. Frederick Black, Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall, Mrs. Eugene Householder, Mrs. Samuel Lyon and Mrs. Walter Frank.

Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre were hosts at dinner on Tuesday evening when they entertained Capt. and Mrs. Perrine Barney, Capt. Thomas Rothwell and Lieut. Edgar Whiting.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Meals are settled in their new quarters at No. 318 1st Infantry post.

Lieut. and Mrs. Carl Ballinger entertained Capt. and Mrs. Charles Leonard and Capt. and Mrs. Karl Truesdell at a charming little dinner on Friday evening before the 25th Infantry hop.

Col. and Mrs. Richard Croxton and Miss Lucile Kitson will move into Honolulu this week. Col. Croxton has been detailed with the Oahu National Guard.

A most beautiful affair of the week was the bridge tea on Wednesday afternoon at the 1st Infantry pavilion at which Mrs. Frank Halstead was a charming hostess. The pavilion was artistically decorated with potted plants. The tea table was covered with a very handsome lace cloth over blue silk, while a silver bowl of ferns and daisies and candles with exquisite lace shades made an effective decoration. Serving here were Mrs. Henry Hodges, Mrs. Benjamin Atkinson, Mrs. Richard Croxton and Mrs. Earl Carnahan. Those playing bridge during the afternoon included Mrs. Walter Greacen, Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Mrs. Thomas Schley, Mrs. Karl Truesdell, Mrs. Perrine Barney, Mrs. William McCleave, Mrs. Fred Pitts, Mrs. John Reardon, Mrs. Albert White,

Mrs. Clarence Day, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. Douglas McCaskey, Mrs. Byard Sneed, Mrs. Robert Sears, Mrs. Joseph Janda, Mrs. Henry Blasland, Mrs. Eugene Hartnett, Mrs. Robert Duenner, Mrs. Benjamin Atkinson, Miss Catherine Carnahan, Mrs. Harry Hodgett, Mrs. Grady, Mrs. John Richardson, Mrs. Charles Hedekin, Mrs. Ellen Jordan, Mrs. George Bailey, Mrs. Robert Cheney, Mrs. Clyde Abraham, Mrs. William Rossiter, Mrs. William Snow, Mrs. Charles Meals and Mrs. John Corey. The high scores were held by Mesdames Sneed, Meals, Sears, Snow, Pitts, Reardon, Jordan and Janda. Among the ladies who came in for tea were Miss Evelyn Hodges, Mrs. Francis Lacey, Mrs. Crandall, Miss Moore, Miss Lella Wilson, Mrs. Joseph Cecil, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Mrs. William Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Niles, Mrs. William Hunt, Mrs. Ralph Holliday, Mrs. Robert Peck, Mrs. John Randolph, Mrs. Guy Palmer, Miss Campbell, Mrs. Robert Evans, Mrs. Daniel Glenty, Mrs. Earl Carnahan, Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Mrs. Hugh Keen, Miss Stella Mayer, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Stahlmann, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Brady Ruttenutter, Mrs. American Mitchell, Mrs. Rufus Bratten, Mrs. Charles Van Way, Mrs. Paul McCook, Miss Lucile Kitson, Mrs. Walter Pridden, Miss Berline, the Misses Neide, Mrs. Charles Leonard, Mrs. Harry Knight, Miss Leonard, Madame Leonard, Mrs. John Burnett, Mrs. James Peale, Mrs. Paul Manchester, Mrs. William Aiken, Mrs. Conrad Babcock and Mrs. John Baxter.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Pfeil were Sunday night supper hosts for Col. John McMahon, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre and Capt. Leonard Mitchell.

Capt. and Mrs. David Stone gave a most enjoyable dinner on Wednesday evening at their attractive Honolulu home for Gen. and Mrs. Robert Evans, Col. and Mrs. Daniel Howell, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, the Misses Southland, Mr. Idler and Capt. Hornsby Evans.

Lieut. and Mrs. Irving Carr gave a very enjoyable dinner last evening, the affair being in honor of their second wedding anniversary. The decorations were in pink and white, being carried out in a miniature wedding cake, exquisite little bridal bouquets, which served as guest favors, and keeplee bride place cards which were marked for Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Sinclair of Honolulu, Dr. and Mrs. Warren Torrence, Capt. and Mrs. Louis Pepla of Fort De Russy and Dr. Varvel.

The Luncheon and Reading Club met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Cheney. The guests of the club at this meeting were Mrs. Andrus and Mrs. Morris, who are spending some time in Honolulu. Instead of the usual hours devoted to reading, bridge was the diversion for the afternoon.

Mrs. Louise Phipps is the house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Clyde Abraham.

Sunday dinner guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Rufus Bratten were Capt. and Mrs. Elmer Rice and Capt. and Mrs. William Shedd.

Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt were charming hosts on Thursday evening. American beauty roses and candles shaded in red made a beautiful decoration for the dining table, at which were seated Capt. and Mrs. Jerome Pillow, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre and Lieut. and Mrs. Percy Deshon.

A congenial party of people motored to Haleiwa on Saturday afternoon, as the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Wilbur Romers and after a swim partook of a delicious supper at the Plantation bathing pavilion. Small tables decorated with garden flowers were set for Col. and Mrs. William Snow, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Lieut. and Mrs. Jacob Devers, Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave, Miss Hazel Haynes, Mrs. M. H. Churchill, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Woods, Mr. Goodale and Dr. James Haynes.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pick gave a delightful tea on Sunday afternoon in honor of the birthday of Miss Violet Austin, who was their house-guest. A large and delicious cake, appropriately decorated, formed the center of attraction for the beautifully laden tea table. The guests included Miss Margaret Austin, Miss Victoria Pick, Lieut. Chit Andrus, Lieut. Bertram Frankenberg, Lieut. Frederick Stewart, Lieut. Edgar Whiting and Capt. William Smith.

Lieut. and Mrs. Gustav Gosner have gone to Kaula for station, where Lieut. Gosner has been detailed with the National Guard.

Col. and Mrs. William Banister were hosts at a very prettily appointed dinner on Tuesday evening. The table looked lovely with its centerpiece of lavender and pink sweet peas and tulle of the same shade. Cards were marked for Gen. and Mrs. Robert Evans, Col. and Mrs. James Houston, Maj. and Mrs. Thomas Schley, Miss Lella Wilson and Dr. Harry Kearns.

Master Raymond Pratt celebrated his eighth birthday with a lovely party on Tuesday afternoon. Snappers, which held all sorts of pretty toys, made much enjoyed favors, while the cake holding the prescribed number of candles formed the centerpiece for the well-laden refreshment table. Raymond's guests were Jack Corey, Bob Fienketter, Dolly Stokes, David and Helen Stone, Allen Day, Emily Monroe and Blanche and Robert Fisher.

On Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stokes had a welsch rabbit supper for Capt. and Mrs. John Corey, Lieut. and Mrs. Wilbur Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Thot of Wahaiwa, Mr. Richard Ward and Mr. Fletcher.

Mrs. Charles Steese of Fort Kamehameha has been the house-guest of Capt. and Mrs. Elmer F. Rice during the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell, Miss Hazel Haynes and Dr. James Haynes enjoyed a day's outing at Kahana Bay on Sunday.

Col. and Mrs. William Snow, Mrs. Locke and Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre were guests of Capt. and Mrs. Dennis Currie on Friday evening for the "movies" and later for a chafing dish supper.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Pfeil and Mrs. Charles Hobbs have been spending a week in town at the Seaside hotel. Mrs. Hobbs will leave on Wednesday for her home in the states.

Capt. and Mrs. William Shedd were informal dinner guests of Capt. and Mrs. Elmer F. Rice on Saturday evening.

Dr. James Haynes and Miss Hazel Haynes delightfully entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening. The table looked very artistic in its decoration of autumn leaves and candelabra. Covers were laid for Lieut. and Mrs. Herman Erlenkotter, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Thot and Mr. Richard Ward.

What a Comfortable Home Means to a Man---

The right sort of a home means to a man, perhaps more than anything else, COMFORT—a place where he can rest and recuperate his wearied brains and body—a place where he can turn for real relief from strenuous business life.

Men brag about their clubs, and show them off to their friends—but a club is only an apology for a home.

Give a man a home, in which his interests and comfort have been thoughtfully considered, and he will take more pride and satisfaction in it than in any club that ever was.

A well-furnished home, with good furniture in good taste, with harmonious carpetings and draperies, arranged and outfitted to contribute in fair measure to the welfare of husband as well as wife, with at least one room for HIS especial benefit wherein he may lounge, smoke and read—where he may entertain HIS friends—such a home will center a man's interest—and go far toward preserving the "tie that binds."

A well-furnished home does not require elaborate or expensive furniture. Indeed, it may be very simple. But it DOES require suitable, practical furniture, and furniture in good taste—and these essentials are easily obtained if the selection is but made at the right store—COYNE'S—where there is the right sort of furniture in plenteous assortment, and also the desire to really help the homemaker rather than merely sell him.

Many suggestions may be obtained at COYNE'S helpful to wives or husbands, toward making congenial homes for men folks—and toward making homes attractive for ALL the family.

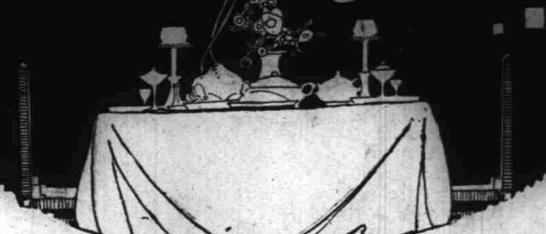

The Coyne furnishing Service is the very best. This service costs no more—quite likely LESS—than service not so pleasing—and therefore we suggest the wisdom of making COYNE'S YOUR Home Furnishing Store.
