Foods that Fatten Poultry

Long experience with making foods for poultry has taught us what the best ingredients are for bringing them up to maximum weight for the Thanksgiving Market.

Don't trust feeds mixed for mainland conditions. Our special feeds are mixed right here in Hawaii because we know it requires very different kinds of foods for hens here than on the Mainland.

EDDIE FOY COMEDY VEHICLE FOR MUSICAL STARS AT THE BIJOU

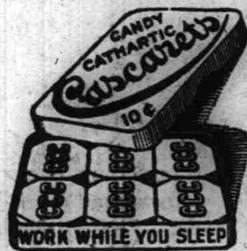

Eddie Foy, one of the best little comedians extant, has scored a success in a number of comedies, especially the musical variety, but in none has the success been more pronounced than in "Over the River," which will be offered at the Bijou theater tonight by the Ingersoll Musical Comedy Company and which will be continued through the balance of the week. All of the favorites who were "made" as a result of George Ade's "Trouble's Troubles," the opening number of these players, will again appear in leading roles while others of the clever artists of which this organization is formed will also be seen to advantage. Jeanne Mai, Bessie Hill, Aileen Flaven, Pearl Jardiniere, Bobby Ryles and Frank Vaek all made most favorable impressions in the opening program and all will "repeat" in the new bill. The "Great Western Four," a male quartet of exceptional ability, will offer a complete change of lineup of melodies while the principals will be well equipped with the latest song successes of the mainland. "Over the River" gives opportunity for fresh costuming of the chorus which is one of the lightest and sprightliest ever seen on a local stage and has the pleasing combination of good figures and good voices. A large advance sale is recorded for the balance of the week, which support should prove encouraging to the artists and result in the rendition of banner programs.

MYRA MYSTERIES PLOT THICKENS

The second episode of the great serial screen drama, "The Mysteries of Myra," will be shown at the Independent Theater on Hotel Street, just Ewa of Nuuanu, tonight. From the success of the first instalment, which was run twice last week by request, this second episode should be equally successful. The second episode of this great psychological screen drama shows how the Black Order again attempts to bring about the destruction of Myra. The instrument of destruction, however, gets into the hands of Dr. Alder and is about to accomplish its deadly mission on the doctor, when he is rescued by Myra. Thus the Black Order is foiled again. "Those College Girls," a two-reel Keystone comedy, makes one's sides shake at the funny antics of the college girls in their various escapades.

ENGLISH STAR IS ON LIBERTY BILL

One of England's cleverest stars, Peggy Hyland, makes her local debut at the Liberty theater tonight in "Saints and Sinners," Henry Arthur Jones, as a playwright, needs no introduction. His work is well known wherever the language spoken is English. He is a successful master of his profession. Peggy Hyland, according to all reports, is equally as successful as the illustrious playwright and Honolulu will be shown this evening. "Saints and Sinners" boasts of an absorbing plot and Letty Fletcher, the part handled by Miss Hyland, is a character that admits of clever work by the little star. Patrons of the Liberty have heard a great deal about Peggy Hyland and will be out in crowds to witness her initial appearance. There is every possibility that she will immediately become one of the rapidly increasing string of favorites at this theater.

Jackie (Miss) Saunders, in "The Grip of Evil," is already established at the Liberty while this new serial deals with a live topic and one that admits of unlimited discussion and argument.

'BEYOND THE LAW' IS INDIAN DRAMA

Miss Marie Farrinoff, a talented actress who has appeared in many Broadway successes, enacts a leading role in the new three-act dramatic offering, "Beyond the Law," which comes to the Empire theater today, supported by the same cast which dominated the production when it toured over the big theatrical circuits on the mainland. Among the successes in which Miss Farrinoff has recently appeared is "Conscience," "The House Next Door," "A Thousand Years Ago" and other plays equally popular and noteworthy.

The story deals with the rugged life found many years ago in the British Northwest. The attempt to perpetrate a series of unfair business deals with the Indians leads to a host of complications and troubles. Excellent photography has added much to the attractiveness of the play. A cleverly constructed burlesque on theatrical life, its trials and its joys, is brought out in the one-act roaring farce, "Hamlet Done Over." Frank Merredith is a new comedian to make his bow to Honolulu in this pretentious vehicle. "The Water Cure" is a comedy guaranteed to please.

PROCEEDS OF OLD HAWAIIAN TABLEAU GOES TO RED CROSS

With the proceeds to be devoted to foreign Red Cross funds in response to requests received by the organization, a concert and tableau will be given at the Opera House at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, November 11, by the members of the Na Hale o ka Chiefs of Hawaii, under the leadership of President Edward H. Liliuokalani.

The tableau will be laid around Kaliauokekoa ana Kauakahihi of Pihakalani and the history of Umi-a-Liloa and Akahiakuleana, his mother. Tickets will be on sale on November 6 at the office of the Territorial Messenger Service, Union street. A portion of the proceeds will be devoted to the members' sick fund.

GOOD FILM MOVEMENT HAS CONSIDERATION OF HUMANE SOCIETY

The Hawaiian Humane Society at a directors' meeting November 1 referred the question of cooperation with the Good Films League to the child welfare committee, whose chairman is Mrs. A. Haneberg, and to the educational committee, of which Mrs. W. W. Thayer is chairman. These ladies will attend next Friday's matinee at the Liberty theater, as they feel that the subject of good films is one of great importance to the education of children.

Great possibilities for trade are offered by the Caucasus. Most of the merchants, however, are men of small capital.

THRILLING STORY ON HAWAII SCREEN

The Hawaii theater continues the popular exhibit of Fox masterpiece films, a service that has large drawing powers and consistently packed houses. The Hawaii is playing to the large crowds which follow Fox. "The Fool's Revenge," the current Fox Hawaii offering, presents a new pair of artists in the persons of Maude Gilbert and William H. Tooker, both new to Honolulu and both already prime favorites.

The story of "The Fool's Revenge" is most unusual and deals with the efforts of a former circus clown, later a man of wealth, to revenge himself on the man who ruined the home of the clown and led the latter to murder his wife. The clown plans to break up the home of his enemy through the aid of another man who covets the enemy's wife. The clown aids in kidnapping the woman only to learn that a serious mistake has been made and that the kidnapped woman is none other than his own daughter. It is a thrilling story powerfully told. Edna Mayo and Henry B. Walthall in "The Strange Case of Mary Page," are big favorites at the Hawaii, while the serial is one of the strongest ever shown at this house.

SEATS GOING RAPIDLY FOR CHERNIAVSKY TRIO CONCERT ON NOVEMBER 8

Seats are going rapidly for the opening concert here of the famous Cherniavsky trio, November 8. The seats are on sale at the Territorial Messenger Service and the house is more than half sold out for the first night. Much interest is being taken among society and music lovers in the appearance here of these five Russian musicians.

DISTRICT MAGISTRATE ENTERTAINS ESCAPED PRISONERS UNAWARES

Judge Benjamin Zablan, recently appointed district magistrate at Waianae, is in Honolulu and tells an interesting story of how the prisoners who escaped from the territorial camp on Punchbowl and were later captured and returned enjoyed to the fullest extent his unsuspecting Hawaiian hospitality.

The men came to his place very hungry and tired, he says, and he immediately took them in and gave them plenty to eat and a place to sleep. The next morning they told him they were going to Waianae, but he later discovered their tracks leading along the beach in an opposite direction. To deceive him one walked in the other's footsteps to give the train the appearance of a one-man affair. Later that day came the wire from Honolulu to arrest the strangers and shortly the judge learned that his guests for the night were on their way back to the road making crew.

How About That Doctor's Bill?

You simply had to have the doctor at that time when you were not prepared to pay his bill. Of course, the doctor came, and he's been waiting ever since for you to pay him, in little driplets, maybe. It isn't fair. A savings account at the time would probably have saved you the humiliation of asking for credit.
