'A FAMILY AFFAIR' IS THE NEXT
MUSICAL COMEDY AT THE BIJOU

"A Family Affair," just a great collection of song and dance, will be the next offering at the Bijou theater of the Ingersoll All-Star Musical Comedy Company, and the promise is made that it will be even superior to the last bill, "The King of Patagonia," easily the best thing this company has done since opening its engagement in Honolulu. As in the last offering, the one of tonight will include the entire cast, either in the action of the musical comedy or in specialty numbers during the action of the play. There has been a consistently noticeable improvement in the singing voices of a majority of the members of this company, while the chorus has done exceptionally fine work.

The introduction in last week-end program of a number of songs that have been popular for a number of years proved a most desirable innovation and brought forth the maximum amount of applause. Each rendition of a melody that was familiar to the audience necessitated the singer responding to several encores. It is likely that more of the big favorites of a more remote date will be interspersed in the bills of the future.

LOVE'S STRENGTH
SHOWN IN DRAMA

"The Flames of Johannis" is the latest offering at the Hawaii theater, also the latest vehicle for Nance O'Neill, America's queen of stormy passion, to come to Honolulu. Associated with Miss O'Neill in this offering are a number of stars who are virtually strangers to Hawaii audiences. However, they are capable artists and should prove big favorites.

EDNA GOODRICH
IN FINE DRAMA

"The Making of Maddalena," a feature photo drama from the Oliver Morosco Photo-play Company studio, came to the Liberty theater last night with Edna Goodrich in the leading role, and Forrest Stanley in the supporting cast. This is Miss Goodrich's second appearance before the camera since her return from the war zone last spring, where she worked as a nurse in the battlefield hospitals.

"MOONBEAM DANCE" TO BE HELD DECEMBER 9, OUTRIGGER DECIDES

At a meeting of the order and entertainment committee of the Outrigger Canoe Club late Saturday it was decided to hold another moonlight dance the night of the next full moon, Saturday, December 9.

President H. B. Campbell's suggestion that the affairs be called "Moonbeam Dances" was acted on favorably by the committee and this novel name will be featured by the club in its announcements.

So popular was the last dance, held Saturday night, November 4, that members have requested another. The committee will secure Duke Miller's glee club again.
