Try these Thanksgiving Recipes

Indorsed by the Honolulu women-whose names appear attached and reprinted from the Honolulu Star-Bulletin Cook Book:

FISH CHOWDER

(Preferably Deep Sea Fish)
 2 strips of bacon. 1 cup of tomatoes.
 2 cups of potato. 2 cups of fish (boned).
 Cook in a two-quart saucepan in alternate layers in the order given. Season to taste. Save fish heads and bones and boil separately in two cups of water, season with salt, and when boiled, strain and add to the above. Allow all to boil one-half hour without stirring. Just before serving, add one quart of boiled milk and one cup of broken crackers.

MRS. J. LUCAS.

SMOTHERED CHICKEN

Select a young roasting chicken weighing about 4 pounds. Split it down the back as if for boiling. Clean it, reserving the heart, liver and gizzard. Put some butter in a deep pan, so that the bottom is well covered. Then lay in the chicken, skin side up. Cover it well with little pats of butter. Season with salt and pepper, pour in a half pint of boiling water. Cover the pan tight and stand it in a moderate oven. Let the chicken cook one hour, then lift the cover and pour in a half pint of cream. Cover it again and let it cook another hour. Then serve.
